Early Christian Families in Context David L. Balch, Carolyn Osiek, 2003 Typical studies of marriage and family in the early Christian period focus on very limited evidence found in Scripture This interdisciplinary book offers a broader richer picture of the first Christian families by drawing together research by experts ranging from archaeologists to ancient historians By exploring the nature of households in the ancient Greco Roman world the contributors assemble a new understanding of ancient Christian families that is both compelling and instructive Divided into six parts the book covers key aspects of ancient family life from meals and child rearing to women s roles and the lives of slaves Three concluding chapters explore the implications of all this information for theological education today Contributors David L Balch Suzanne Dixon J Albert Harrill Ross S Kraemer Christian Laes Peter Lampe Amy Jill Levine Margaret Y MacDonald Dale Martin Eric M Meyers Margaret M Mitchell Carolyn Osiek Beryl Rawson Richard Saller Timothy F Sedgwick Monika Trummer Andrew Wallace

Hadrill Gender Differences and the Making of Liturgical History Teresa Berger, 2020-03-26 Mapping uncharted territory in the study of liturgy s past this book offers a history to contemporary questions around gender and liturgical life Teresa Berger looks at liturgy s past through the lens of gender history understood as attending not only to the historically prominent binary of men and women but to all gender identities including inter sexed persons ascetic virgins eunuchs and priestly men Demonstrating what a gender attentive inquiry is able to achieve Berger explores both traditional fundamentals such as liturgical space and eucharistic practice and also new ways of studying the past for example by asking about the developing link between liturgical presiding and priestly masculinity Drawing on historical case studies and focusing particularly on the early centuries of Christian worship this book ultimately aims at the present by lifting a veil on liturgy s past to allow for a richly diverse notion of gender differences as these continue to shape liturgical life

Jewish Women Katharina Galor, 2023-12-15 Jewish Women Between Conformity and Agency examines the concepts of gender and sexuality through the primary lens of visual and material culture from antiquity through to the present day The backbone of this transhistorical and transcontextual study is the question of Jewish women s agency in four different geographical chronological and methodological contexts beginning with women s dress codes in Roman Byzantine Syro Palestine continuing with rituals of purity in medieval Ashkenaz worship in papal Avignon and the Comtat Venaissin and ending with marriage and divorce in Israeli film Each of these explorations is interested in creating a dialogue between the patriarchal legacy of the traditional texts and the chronologically corresponding visual and material culture The author challenges traditional approaches to the study of Jewish culture by employing tools from art history archaeology and film and media studies In each of these different contexts there is ample evidence that women despite persistent overall structural discrimination have found ways to challenge male constructs of gender norms Ultimately these examples from past and present times highlight women s eminence in shaping Jewish history and culture Bringing a new interdisciplinary lens to the study of the history of gender and sexuality the book will be of interest to students and researchers of Jewish history and culture art history archaeology and film studies
