Religious Experience And Mysticism Otherness As Experience Of Transcendence:

Religious Experience and Mysticism Jose C. Nieto, 1997-05-22 Drawing from sacred scriptures world religions literature philosophy and psychology this monograph explores them as universal sources of religious experience and mysticism It systematically establishes the similarities and differences between them as well as their distinctions from aesthetic experiences and mystical thought Examples from religious experience show that it is perceived in space time categories while mystical experience transcends all these experiencing union It is this characteristic of mysticism which unifies World Mysticism regardless of the religious cultural or philosophical background This book is divided into three major parts Part I focuses on Religious Experience Part II on Mysticism and Part III integrates the results within the larger scope of the awareness of the diversity of Transcendence The introduction and conclusion structure both the inquiry and results

Transformative Religious Experience Joshua Iyadurai, 2015-04-30 What makes a priest of one religion become a preacher of another religion How could a person embrace a religion suddenly that he or she had up to then opposed Why would young women risk their reputation and endanger their lives for the sake of newfound faith How could an alcoholic detest a sip of wine all of a sudden What drives an atheist to become an ardent worshiper of God How could an intelligent person relate to God as to an adult human being Transformative Religious Experience answers these questions with fascinating narratives of conversion These narratives together show how the transforming effects of conversion permeate the daily lives of converts in a multireligious context Joshua Iyadurai analyzes psychologically the mystical turning point in the conversion process and finds that the divine human encounter entails a cognitive restructuring a new set of beliefs values and desires replaces previously held religious beliefs values and desires By drawing insights from the fields of psychology sociology anthropology and theology Iyadurai develops an interdisciplinary step model from a phenomenological perspective to explain the conversion process that incorporates the religious practices and social psychological factors while giving a central place to religious experience On Sharing Religious Experience , 2024-08-26

Phenomenology of Religion Archana Barua, 2009-01-01 Out of the wide variety of themes covered by Husserl's phenomenology and later developed by Heidegger Merleau Ponty and others in different possible directions the present work attempts to indicate the few features of the method that derives from Edmund Husserl's basic themes of the phenomenological movement and its methodology Barua explores the manner in which this method has been applied to the study of art and religion by other phenomenologists and accordingly introduces the problem of this profound bulk namely the phenomenological approach to religion mostly in their terms Transcendent Experiences Louis Roy, 2001-01-01 Roy discusses the validity of transcendent experiences and the reasons why they can be considered non illusory The Oxford Handbook of Mystical Theology Edward Howells, Mark A. McIntosh, 2020-02-25 The Oxford Handbook of Mystical Theology provides a guide to the mystical element of Christianity as a theological phenomenon It differs not only from psychological and anthropological studies of mysticism but from other theological studies such as more practical or pastorally oriented works that examine the patterns of spiritual progress and offer counsel for deeper understanding and spiritual development. It also differs from more explicitly historical studies tracing the theological and philosophical contexts and ideas of various key figures and schools as well as from literary studies of the linguistic tropes and expressive forms in mystical texts. None of these perspectives is absent but the method here is more deliberately theological, working from within the fundamental interests of Christian mystical writers to the articulation of those interests in distinctively theological forms in order finally to permit a critical theological engagement with them for today. Divided into four parts, the first section introduces the approach to mystical theology and offers a historical overview. Part two attends to the concrete context of sources and practices of mystical theology. Part three moves to the fundamental conceptualities of mystical thought. The final section ends with the central contributions of mystical teaching to theology and metaphysics. Students and scholars with a variety of interests will find different pathways through the Handbook.

Psychosis or Mystical Religious Experience? Susan L. DeHoff, 2018-02-13. This book presents a new paradigm for distinguishing psychotic and mystical religious experiences. In order to explore how Presbyterian pastors differentiate such events, Susan L. DeHoff draws from Reformed theology, psychological theory, and robust qualitative research. Following a conversation among multidisciplinary voices, she presents a new paradigm considering the similarities, differences, and possible overlap of psychotic and mystical religious experiences.

The Feeling of Transcendence, an Experience of God? Louis Roy, 2021-04-15. In this book, Louis Roy takes account of the fact that in the last fifty years, numerous people in the secularized West have responded yes to surveys that asked: Are you aware of having had an experience during which you felt in the presence of a dimension or a reality very different from ordinary human life? Are such experiences mere illusions? Some thinkers like Feuerbach and Freud believed so. Are such experiences encounters with God? Karl Barth, a great Protestant theologian, did not think much of their worth. On this issue, psychologists and theologians are divided. Roy argues that those experiences are valid; that they possess a real potential and that they can open their recipients to a genuine wisdom. He reports on eight narratives, spells out their constitutive elements, classifies them into four categories: aesthetic, ontological, ethical, and interpersonal, and suggests criteria to assess their concrete authenticity. Thus, this book will appeal to educated readers interested in spirituality, philosophy of religion, psychology, literature, theology, and pastoral ministry.

Religious Experience and Contemporary Theological Epistemology Lieven Boeve, Yves De Maeseneer, Stijn Van den Bossche, 2005. In this volume, we present the proceedings from the fourth international Leuven Encounters in Systematic Theology (LEST IV), November 5-8, 2003, which focussed on a critical investigation of the place and role of religious experience in the legitimization structures of contemporary theological thinking patterns. In the first part, the keynote lectures, including the responses, are gathered among others from L. Boeve, F. Fiorenza, L. Hemming, G. Jantzen, S. Painadath, S. Robert, R. Schaeffler, and S. Van den Bossche. In the second part, a selection of the contributions offered in the thematic seminars is presented.

Daiber Collection IV Mystery 101 Richard H. Jones, 2018-02-15 Offering readers much to ponder Richard H Jones approaches the big questions of philosophy such as the nature of reality consciousness free will the existence of God and the meaning of life not by weighing the merits of leading arguments in these debates but instead by questioning the extent to which we are even in a position to answer such questions in the first place Regardless of continuous technical and even groundbreaking advances in knowledge there will always be gaps in what we can fully understand Distinguishing true mysteries from problems yet to be solved but within the scope of our intellectual grasp Jones provides a penetrating and high level overview of the scope and limits of scientific and philosophical inquiry What is Religion? Jeppe Sinding Jensen, 2014-09-11 Religious belief is one of the most pervasive and ubiquitous characteristics of human society Religion has shadowed and illuminated human lives since primitive times shaping the world views of cultures from isolated tribes to vast empires Starting from the premise that religion is a concept which can be analysed and compared across time and cultures What is Religion brings the most up to date scholarship to bear on humankind s most enduring creation The book opens with a brief history of the idea of religion then divides the study of religion into four essential topics types representations practices and institutions and concludes with a final eye opening chapter on religion today Packed with case studies from a wide range of religions past and present What is Religion offers a very current comprehensive yet intellectually challenging overview of the history theories practices and study of religion Accessible wide ranging engaging and short What is Religion is written primarily for undergraduate students in the study of religion but it will also be invaluable for students of anthropology history psychology sociology and theology as well as anyone interested in how and why humans came and continue to be religious
