Remembering Women's Activism Sharon Crozier-De Rosa, Vera Mackie, 2018-09-25 Remembering Women's Activism examines the intersections between gender politics and acts of remembrance by tracing the cultural memories of women who are known for their actions. Memories are constantly being reinterpreted and are profoundly shaped by gender. This book explores the gendered dimensions of history and memory through nation based and transnational case studies from the Asia Pacific region and Anglophone world. Chapters consider how different forms of women's activism have been remembered: the efforts of suffragists in Britain, the USA and Australia to document their own histories and preserve their memory; Constance Markievicz and Qiu Jin, two early twentieth century political activists in Ireland and China respectively; the struggles of women workers and the movement for redress of those who have suffered militarized sexual abuse. The book concludes by reflecting on the mobilization of memories of activism in the present. Transnational in scope and with reference to both state centred and organic acts of remembering including memorial practices, physical sites of memory, popular culture and social media. Remembering Women's Activism is an ideal volume for all students of gender and history, the history of feminism and the relationship between memory and history.

American Literature and American Identity Patrick Colm Hogan, 2021-11-10 In recent years cognitive and affective science have become increasingly important for interpretation and explanation in the social sciences and humanities. However little of this work has addressed American literature and virtually none has treated national identity formation in influential works since the Civil War. In this book Hogan develops his earlier cognitive and affective analyses of national identity further, exploring the ways in which such identity is integrated with cross culturally recurring patterns in story structure. Hogan examines how authors imagined American identity understood as universal democratic egalitarianism in the face of the nation's clear and often brutal inequalities of race, sex and sexuality, exploring the complex and often ambivalent treatment of American identity in works by Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Eugene O'Neill, Lillian Hellman, Djuna Barnes, Amiri Baraka, Margaret Atwood, N. Scott Momaday, Spike Lee, Leslie Marmon Silko, Tony Kushner and Heidi Schreck.

Feminist Manifestos Penny A. Weiss, 2015-09-11 A wide reaching collection of groundbreaking feminist documents from around the world. Feminist Manifestos is an unprecedented collection of 150 documents from feminist organizations and gatherings in over 50 countries over the course of three centuries. In the first book of its kind the manifestos are shown to contain feminist theory and recommend actions for change and also to expand our very conceptions of feminist thought and activism. Covering issues from political participation, education, religion and work to reproduction, violence, racism and environmentalism, the manifestos together challenge simplistic definitions of gender and feminist movements in exciting ways. In a wide ranging introduction Penny Weiss explores the value of these documents, especially how they speak with and to each other. In addition, an introduction to each individual document contextualizes and enhances our understanding of it.

Weiss is particularly invested in how communities work together toward social change which is demonstrated through her choice to include only collectively authored texts By assembling these documents into an accessible volume Weiss reveals new possibilities for social justice and ways to advocate for equality A unique and inspirational collection Feminist Manifestos expands and evolves our understanding of feminism through the self described agendas of women from every ethnic group religion and region in the world
