zodiac's intimate involvement in the creation of physical life. They understood that the twelve realms of constellations of fixed stars in the sky emanated specific forces that were brought to life and movement by the planets. These spiritual energies created and formed all living beings on earth, including of course the human being. This traditional awareness has been reenlivened and given new meaning in our time through Rudolf Steiner's anthroposophy. Steiner gave specific indications involving twelve individual gestures and colours that depict the forces of the twelve zodiacal regions. In this richly illustrated collation of original artistic research which features exciting new work on the zodiac via the mediums of sculpture, graphics and painting, these new insights are explored and illumined in twenty-seven essays and numerous full-colour images. Led by editor Gertraud Goodwin, the various contributing artists offer a rich tableau of authentic individual approaches to understanding the zodiac, throwing light on the vast realm of creative forces around us whilst acknowledging their primary source. From the many relationships to other qualities like the consonants, virtues, areas of the human body, colours, eurythmy, gestures, elements, earth, water, air, fire, musical keys and many more in which the zodiacal forces express themselves as if through different instruments, a harmony begins to emerge which informs me of an ever rounder picture of one particular force of the Zodiac. Gertraud Goodwin A Man Before Others Rudolf Steiner Press, 1993. This illuminating collection of essays and reminiscences by Rudolf Steiner's pupils and early collaborators contains a wealth of personal details on Steiner and his work. What emerges is his great unity of purpose and breadth of thought and his ability to attend to the smallest practical details while laying the seeds for spiritual impulses that would flourish far into the future. These essays reveal him as a man of vision, practical ability, humor and selflessness. MEMORIES OF RUDOLF STEINER Anna Samweber, 2015-09-07. I rang the bell, the door opened and there stood Rudolf Steiner in person. I was so taken aback that I dropped the basket which burst open and all my clothes and underclothes together with my other belongings were lying at the feet of the Doctor. A ball of wool got away and rolled between Dr Steiner's feet into the long corridor. Somewhat surprised but amused, he said, 'I have never been greeted in this way.' Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library, the Fogg Art Museum Harvard University. Art and Architecture Division, 1975. Das Schweizer Buch, 2004. Rudolf Steiner as a Spiritual Teacher Peter Selg, 2010. He listened extremely attentively, apparently not looking at me at all but totally devoted to my words. Franz Kafka: 'The only love that you can show me is to call me anytime day or night when you need me.' Rudolf Steiner to Friedrich Rittelmeyer. For Peter Selg: If Anthroposophy to be a living reality, we must learn to know and love Rudolf Steiner as he appeared to those who knew and loved him, namely as a spiritual teacher. To help us do so, he gathered recollections of those of who knew Steiner personally, historical witnesses to the living phenomenon of the figure of the teacher. It is his hope that these firsthand accounts will help readers see and experience the amazing, ever-mysterious person that Rudolf Steiner was, a dynamic, energetic dual citizen of both the spiritual and the physical worlds. He moved constantly between these two realities while his whole life was dedicated in service to the spiritual evolution of humanity Nonetheless he was also deeply sociable and a true friend convivial cheerful humorous and always able to enjoy and tell a good joke He was also austere and painfully serious In other words Rudolf Steiner was a paradox Steiner was imposing but it would be difficult to say why He was slim there was no heaviness in him Indeed what seemed to strike most people first was his lightness He moved rhythmically youthfully artistically with quick light steps his posture erect but fluid his head seeming to float between Heaven and Earth Yet he was fully grounded When he stood it was as if nothing could move him When he spoke his gestures and tone expressed perfectly what he had to say He was completely one with what he said so that he changed as the content changed Those who listened to his lectures found themselves transported to the source of what they were hearing Sometimes ten Steiners would pass before them To hear a lecture was a meditation experience Quite another figure appeared in conversations which filled his every public moment One experienced luminous kindness selfless interest and intense listening attention It was as though one were singled out in the world and having a sense of being allowed complete inner freedom All who came to him for advice felt Steiner's love They felt that he saw the best in them and spoke from that point of view whether it was a matter of life's journey or esoteric training By his example then he sought to exemplify the kind of spiritual community toward which he hoped anthroposophists would strive For anyone who has wondered what Rudolf Steiner was like this book will open many windows
