Joachim Raff Helene Raff, 2012 Joachim Raff 1822 1882 a protégé of both Mendelssohn and Liszt was one of the most popular composers in the second half of the nineteenth century This book the only biography of him ever published is an essential source for anyone interested in his fascinating life and times and Alan Howe's splendid idiomatic and extremely readable translation makes it available in English for the first time Helene Raff's distinctively brisk voice objective and unsentimental in her judgement of her father is masterfully brought to life for today's readers This modern edition significantly enhances the original 1925 book with many illustrations extensively researched footnotes a complete work list and an index Schubert Studies Eva Badura-Skoda, Peter Branscombe, 2008-10-30 This collection of articles clarifies problems of style and chronology in the music Schubert composed during the last decade of his life Zoltan Kodaly's World of Music Anna Dalos, 2020-09-08 Hungarian composer and musician Zoltán Kodály 1882 1967 is best known for his pedagogical system the Kodály Method which has been influential in the development of music education around the world

Author Anna Dalos considers for the first time in publication Kodály's career beyond the classroom and provides a comprehensive assessment of his works as a composer. A noted collector of Hungarian folk music, Kodály adapted the traditional heritage musics in his own compositions, greatly influencing the work of his contemporary Béla Bartók. Highlighting Kodály's major music experiences, Dalos shows how his musical works were also inspired by Brahms, Wagner, Debussy, Palestrina, and Bach. Set against the backdrop of various oppressive regimes of twentieth-century Europe, this study of Kodály's career also explores decisive extramusical impulses such as his bitter experiences of World War I, Kodály's reception of classical antiquity, and his interpretation of the male and female roles in his music. Written by the leading Kodály expert, this impressive work of historical and musical insight provides a timely and much-needed English language treatment of the twentieth-century composer.

The Three Apostles of Russian Music Gregor Tassie, 2021-11-11

The Three Apostles of Russian Music looks at three figures in the Soviet avant-garde who led modernist music in the 1920s. Mosolov, Popov, and Roslavets were popular composers who are now unfortunately forgotten. These remarkable musicians produced compositions like the sensational machine music Foundry by Mosolov. The first symphony by Popov attracted musicians in Europe and America but was banned after the premiere, while Roslavets discovered serialism before Schoenberg, opening up a new trend in modernism. This book is the first study in English of the work, lives, and legacies of these apostles of the Russian avant-garde.

Henry Holden Huss Gary A. Greene, 1995

Contains an annotated worklist with suggestions of Huss pieces for further exploration by performers, a list of his writings on musical topics, and numerous illustrations.

Weinzweig Brian Cherney, 2018-03-31

John Weinzweig (1913–2006) was the pre-eminent Canadian composer of his generation. Influenced by European modernists such as Stravinsky, Berg, and Webern, he was the first Canadian composer to employ serialism, thereby bringing a spirit of innovation to mid-twentieth-century Canadian music. A forceful advocate for modern Canadian composition, Weinzweig played a key role in the founding of the Canadian League of Composers and the Canadian Music Centre during a buoyant and expansive period for the arts in Canada. He was an influential force as a teacher of composition, first with the Royal Conservatory of Music and later with the University of Toronto's music faculty. This first comprehensive study of Weinzweig since his death consists of new essays by composers, theorists, and musicologists. It deals with biographical aspects, the social context of early twentieth-century Toronto, his activism, his teaching, his early scores for CBC Radio dramas, analyzes his compositional processes and his output, his approach to serialism, his instrumental practice, the presence of jazz elements, the vocal works, the divertimenti, and examines various evaluations of his music, his own in letters, interviews, talks, and writings, plus those of critics and scholars, of listeners, and of performers. The essays are framed by the co-editors' portrait, assessment of Weinzweig, and a brief personal memoir. Much of the content draws on new research in the extensive Weinzweig Fonds at Library and Archives Canada in Ottawa. Included at the end of the book are a <http://www.wlupress.wlu.ca> General Beckwith Cherney list of works discography PDF, List of Works by John Weinzweig by Kathleen

The Music of Herbert Howells Phillip A. Cooke, David Nicholas Maw, 2013 Herbert Howells 1892 1983 was a prodigiously gifted musician and the favourite student of the notoriously hard to please Sir Charles Villiers Stanford Throughout his long life he was one of the country s most prominent composers writing extensively in all genres except the symphony and opera Yet today he is known mostly for his church music and there is as yet relatively little serious study of his work This book is the first large scale study of Howells s music affording both detailed consideration of individual works and a broad survey of general characteristics and issues Its coverage is wide ranging addressing all aspects of the composer s prolific output and probing many of the issues that it raises The essays are gathered in five sections Howells the Stylist examines one of the most striking aspect of the composer s music its strongly characterised personal voice Howells the Vocal Composer addresses both his well known contribution to church music and his less familiar but also important contribution to the genre of solo song Howells the Instrumental Composer shows that he was no less accomplished for his work in genres without words for which in fact he first made his name Howells the Modern considers the composer's rather overlooked contribution to the development of a modern voice for British music and Howells in Mourning explores the important impact of his son's death on his life and work The composer that emerges from these studies is a complex figure technically fluent but prone to revision and self doubt innovative but also conservative a composer with an improvisational sense of flow who had a firm grasp of musical form an exponent of British musical style who owed as much to continental influence as to his national heritage This volume comprising a collection of outstanding essays by established writers and emergent scholars opens up the range of Howells's achievement to a wider audience both professional and amateur PHILLIP COOKE is Lecturer in Composition at the University of Aberdeen DAVID MAW is Tutor and Research Fellow in Music at Oriel College Oxford holding Lectureships also at Christ Church The Queen's and Trinity Colleges CONTRIBUTORS Byron Adams Paul Andrews Graham Barber Jonathan Clinch Phillip A Cooke Jeremy Dibble Lewis Foreman Fabian Huss David Maw Diane Nolan Cooke Lionel Pike Paul Spicer Jonathan White Foreword by John Rutter The Music Bulletin, 1924 Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science, Second Edition - Miriam Drake, 2003-05-20 A revitalized version of the popular classic the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Second Edition targets new and dynamic movements in the distribution acquisition and development of print and online media compiling articles from more than 450 information specialists on topics including program planning in the digital era recruitment information management advances in digital technology and encoding intellectual property and hardware software database selection and design competitive intelligence electronic records preservation decision support systems ethical issues in information online library instruction telecommuting and digital library projects
