Love In Vain The Life And Legend Of Robert Johnson:

Love In Vain Alan Greenberg,1994-03-21 Robert Johnson is considered one of the greatest of the Mississippi Delta blues musicians This screenplay dramatises his life music and legend in a readable and vivid manner It is supplemented with extensive historical notes a selected discography and previously unpublished photographs Love in Vain is directed by Martin Scorsese for Warner Brothers

Robert Johnson Barry Lee Pearson,Bill McCulloch,2010-10-01 Even with just forty one recordings to his credit Robert Johnson 1911-38 is a towering figure in the history of the blues His vast influence on twentieth century American music combined with his mysterious death at the age of twenty seven still encourage the speculation and myth that have long obscured the facts about his life The most famous legend depicts a young Johnson meeting the Devil at a dusty Mississippi crossroads at midnight and selling his soul in exchange for prodigious guitar skills Barry Lee Pearson and Bill McCulloch examine the full range of writings about Johnson and weigh the conflicting accounts of Johnson's life story against interviews with blues musicians and others who knew the man Their extensive research uncovers a life every bit as compelling as the fabrications and exaggerations that have sprung up around it In examining the bluesman's life and music and the ways in which both have been reinvented and interpreted by other artists critics and fans Robert Johnson Lost and Found charts the cultural forces that have mediated the expression of African American artistic traditions

Love in Vain J. M. Dupont,2016-10-04 From Crossroads Blues to Sweet Home Chicago Hellhound on My Trail to Come On In My Kitchen Robert Johnson wrote some of the most enduring and formative songs of the original blues era songs that would go on to help shape the birth of rock n roll in the 1960s Beloved of Clapton Dylan and the Stones Robert Johnson remains one of the most iconic and mythologised figures in popular music and the first of many to die at the age of 27 Born in the in the South in Mississippi Johnson made his way to the urban North as a travelling musician but it was only when he returned to the South that he recorded the twenty nine songs in two sessions which would create his legacy Exploring the stories and legends that surround his life and death his childhood his womanising his pact with the devil at the crossroads Mezzo and DuPont have produced a fittingly creative and beautiful depiction of this most extraordinary life of this problematic racial stereotype in the literature of the early Republic documents in which the enslavement of African Americans was justified through exegetical claims Van Deburg then probes antebellum slave laws minstrel shows and the works of proslavery polemicists to consider how whites conceptualized blacks as members of an inferior and dangerous race Turning to key works by blacks themselves from the writings of Frederick Douglass and W E B Du Bois to classic blaxploitation films like Black Caesar and The Mack Van Deburg demonstrates how African Americans have combated such negative stereotypes and reconceptualized the idea of the badman through stories of social bandits controversial individuals vilified by whites for their proclivity toward evil but revered in the black community as necessarily insurgent and revolutionary Ultimately Van Deburg brings his story up to date with discussions of prison and hip hop culture urban rioting gang warfare and black on black crime What results is a work of remarkable virtuosity a nuanced history that calls for both whites and blacks to rethink received wisdom on the nature and prevalence of black villainy
