Notes From The Esplanade:

Notes from the Esplanade Igor Gelbach, 2003 Novel set in the 1980s during the fall of the Russian communist era A young Leningrad writer begins to write a novel about Albert Einstein Paul Ehrenfest and the nature of discovery The idea of the novel is pressed upon him by Abram Rubin the only pupil of the Russian revolutionary theatre director Meyerhold to survive the purges The writer realises that he has become a closet historiographer of Russia s catastrophe By the author of Confessions of a Clay Man Supreme Court, Appellate Division-First Department, Springfield, Ohio: a Summary of Two Centuries Tom Dunham, 2012-08-27 This survey highlights Springfields beginnings as an industrial oriented settlement growing into a city with an increasingly diversified industrial base well into the 20th century Discussed in this connection is the role of railroads as a necessary condition to industrial success As industry grew commercialism expanded and became centralized in the downtown The text traces the citys viable and lively downtown from the mid 19th century to the mid 20th century The background for the decline following World War II is covered as well as the downtowns changing role in the modern era Not all however is industry and commerce The citys wealth and the wealth of individual citizens led to the construction of many fine buildings of architectural merit as venues for cultural entertainment and religious functions Many of these structures are treated in relation to their cultural functions Not the least of the topics discussed is Springfields saga with infrastructure problems and their eventual correction Summary of Corrections, 1992

Memories of My Town Åström Anna-Maria, Korkiakangas Pirjo, Olsson Pia, 2018-06-15 The volume Memories of my Town is an exploration into how town dwellers experience their environment in a complicated way As people in urban milieus relate themselves to the environment this takes place on many levels where especially the time level becomes problematic The urban buildings and settings can be looked upon as a kind of collective history as carriers or witnesses of times past But it is only the town dwellers that experience urban time itself the time they live in but through their memories also times past In this past some elements take symbolically dense expressions Through reliving and narrating their experiences the symbolically important factors in the this urban relationship will be outlined for investigations concerning three towns Helsinki the capital Viborg the ceded and lost Carelian town and Jyv skyl a town with dense commercial and civilisatory dimensions in the middle of Finland The symbolic aspects are the kern in all the articles of the book Memories of my Town The aim of the book and its articles has been to use different theoretical concepts as guidelines in analysing the different narrative texts Thus the articles are to be seen as independent contributions to the scientific discussion about places urbanism memories and narratives The ethnological outlook is on the other hand an outcome of the joint project Town Dwellers and their Places whereby the articles substancially relate to one another Thus the book can also be seen as a joint result of this urban project which was sponsored by the Finnish Academy California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Memories of My Town Anna-Maria Åström, Pirjo Korkiakangas, Pia Olsson, 2004-07-07 Memories of My Town is an exploration into how town dwellers experience their environment in a complicated way As people in urban milieus relate themselves to the environment this takes place on many levels where especially the time level becomes problematic The urban buildings and settings can be looked upon as a kind of collective history as carriers or witnesses of times past But it is only the town dwellers that experience urban time itself the time they live in but through their memories also times past In this past some elements take symbolically dense expressions Through reliving and narrating their experiences the symbolically important factors in this urban relationship will be outlined for investigations concerning three towns Helsinki the capital Vyborg the ceded and lost Karelian town and Jyv skyl a town with dense commercial and cultural dimensions in the middle of Finland The aim of the book is to use different theoretical concepts as guidelines in analysing the different narrative texts Building ,1917 The Builder ,1893 Helsinki in Early Twentieth-Century Literature Lieven Ameal, 2014-05-27 Helsinki in Early Twentieth Century Literature analyses experiences of the Finnish capital in prose fiction published in Finnish in the period 1890 1940 It examines the relationships that are formed between Helsinki and fictional characters focusing especially on the way in which urban public space is experienced Particular attention is given to the description of movement through urban space The primary material consists of a selection of more than sixty novels collections of short stories and individual short stories This study draws on two sets of theoretical frameworks on the one hand the expanding field of literary studies of the city and on the other hand concepts provided by humanistic and critical geography as well as by urban studies This study is the first monograph to examine Helsinki in literature written in Finnish It shows that rich descriptions of urban life have formed an integral part of Finnish literature from the late nineteenth century onward Around the turn of the twentieth century literary Helsinki was approached from a variety of generic and thematic perspectives which were in close dialogue with international contemporary traditions and age old images of the city and defined by events typical of Helsinki s own history Helsinki literature of the 1920s and 1930s further developed the defining traits that took form around the turn of the century adding a number of new thematic and stylistic nuances The city experience was increasingly aestheticized and internalized As the centre of the city became less prominent in literature the margins of the city and specific socially defined neighbourhoods gained in importance Many of the central characteristics of how Helsinki is experienced in the literature published during this period remain part of the ongoing discourse on literary Helsinki Helsinki as a city of leisure and light inviting dreamy wanderings the experience of a city divided along the fault lines of gender class and language the city as a disorientating and paralyzing cesspit of vice the city as an imago mundi symbolic of the body politic the city of everyday and often very mundane experiences and the city that invites a profound sense of attachment an environment onto which characters project their innermost sentiments
