N Pashley, 1925 Birds In Counties: An Ornithological Bibliography Of The Counties Of England, Wales, Scotland And The Isle Of Man David K Ballance, 2000-05-05 This is an ornithological bibliography for the counties of England Wales and Scotland and for the Isle of Man It includes all known books pamphlets and papers which contain substantial studies of the birds of local areas from a county down to a back garden or a gravel pit Each county has an introduction on its boundaries and the history of its ornithology There has been no comprehensive national publication of this kind since Mullens Swann and Jourdain s Geographical Bibliography in 1920 The volume also provides a detailed record of the many county and local bird reports and of the ever increasing number of area surveys produced by statutory and voluntary bodies The material is arranged by the pre 1974 counties and takes the record up to 1995 There are maps to show the many changes in county boundaries since 1800 The book will be a standard reference work for libraries and collectors and for anyone interested in the rich and diverse development of local ornithology in its homeland The Naturalist ,1887 British Birds ,1928 A Bird in the Bush Stephen Moss, 2013-07-25 This journey through the world of birdwatchers is a wonderful book fascinating often hilarious anecdotes and information Daily Mail Critic s Choice Scholarly authoritative and above all supremely readable Stephen Moss s book is the first to trace the fascinating history of how and why people have watched birds for pleasure from the beginnings with Gilbert White in the eighteenth century through World War II POWs watching birds from inside their prison camp and all the way to today s twitchers with their bleeping pagers driving hundreds of miles for a rare bird Proves that birdwatchers can be as instructive to watch as birds Sunday Times Thoroughly researched and well written The Guardian Moss knows his subject intimately and writes about it with just the right mixture of affection and occasional quizzicality Sunday Telegraph It would be difficult to imagine anyone producing a more comprehensive thoughtful intelligent and entertaining examination of how people have watched birds at each point in history In fact it is one of the few books which might prove such compulsive reading that even a dedicated twitcher might forgo a day in the field to stay at home to finish it Birding World Naturalist ,1925 Catalogue A. Dulau & Co, 1925 Feasting, Fowling and Feathers Michael Shrubb, 2013-09-26 A highly readable review of some 700 years of avian exploitation The way wild birds have been exploited over the centuries forms the focus of this remarkable new book by Michael Shrubb It looks at the use of birds as food for feathers and skins for eggs as cage birds as specimens and for hunting focusing on Britain northern Europe and the North Atlantic Never before has a book brought the huge amount of information on these topics in the academic literature together under one cover Introductory chapters on what was taken when why and its impact are followed by a number of sections looking in detail at important bird groups Along with discussions of broader themes of exploitation the book is packed with amazing facts For example we learn why

Grey Herons were so important in medieval falconry why the Black Death was good news for bustards why Napoleon is to blame for the scarcity of Quail in Britain today when tame plover stew was all the rage The book concludes with discussions of the cage bird and plumage trades both now consigned to the annals of history in Britain at any rate As well as summarising and condensing the material into a readable and entertaining account Shrubb goes back to the original sources This has allowed him to shed new and surprising light on the biogeography of a number of British birds The Zoologist, 1843 Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1926 Looking for the Goshawk Conor Mark Jameson, 2013-04-11 A gripping tale on the trail of a most mysterious and charismatic bird The book traces Conor Jameson's travels in search of the Goshawk a magnificent yet rarely seen in Britain at least raptor Each episode of the narrative arises from personal experience investigation and the unearthing of information from research exploration and conversations The journey takes him from an encounter with a stuffed Goshawk in a glass case through travels into supposed Goshawk territories in Britain to Berlin where he finds the bird at ease in the city Why he wants to know is the bird so rarely seen in Britain He explores the politics of birdwatching the sport of falconry and the impact of persecution on the recent history of the bird in Britain and travels the length of Britain through central Europe and the USA in search of answers to the goshawk mystery Throughout his journey he is inspired by the writings of T H White who told of his attempts to tame a Goshawk in his much loved book The Scottish Naturalist, 1926 Problems of Bird-migration Arthur Landsborough Thomson, 1926 Technical Book Review Index, 1924 Nature Sir Norman Lockyer, 1926 Notes from the Henhouse Elspeth Barker, 2024-03-19 A sharp and witty collection of autobiographical essays by the late Elspeth Barker acclaimed journalist and author of the beloved modern classic O Caledonia Following the publication of her acclaimed darkly funny novel O Caledonia Elspeth Barker's sharp and witty essays appeared regularly in the national press Notes from the Henhouse a selection of the most personal of these pieces welcomes readers into the celebrated writer's life Tracing Barker's upbringing from her Scottish roots these essays beautifully capture her time with the poet George Barker and her profound sense of loss following his death She writes about George's former lover Elizabeth Smart and other figures from 1950s bohemia and 1960s counterculture Pieces like Thoughts in a Garden equal parts hilarious and moving read like dispatches from the front lines of country living depicting the vagaries of raising a large family and assorted pets in a damp and drafty farmhouse Vivid charming and wholly original Notes from the Henhouse is a wonderful glimpse into the life of an extraordinary writer Zoologist, 1890 Bird Notes and News, 1907
