Notes From The Whirlwind:

Notes from the Whirlwind Charles W. Holsinger, 2005-03 If we don't know where we've been we will not know where we're going Notes From The Whirlwind is a semi autobiographical review of the changes conflicts and challenges that have occurred in the nation the culture and the larger Christian community from the perspective of the varied ministries of a Presbyterian pastor Will the mainline churches continue to decline in a society that indulges itself with entertainment and a vague spirituality that focuses on the me and the I Will the the church the culture and the nation ever resolve the dilemma of guns violence war racism and the divisive conflicts stemming from their failure to understand human sexuality The Notes include the significant events and circumstances that confronted one Presbyterian pastor as he sought to understand how to be a pastor preacher priest and prophet over the span of nearly fifty years Perhaps if we can learn from our history personal and professional the future may not only be different but better We may hear the voice from out of the whirlwind as the prophets Nahum and Job did reminding us that his way is in whirlwind and storm and the clouds are the dust of his feet We will not know where we need to go however if we do not know where we've been
