Artistic Practices Tasos Zembylas,2014-04-03 Art matters It affects us in our daily lives and is full of meanings that are valuable to all of us As a catalyst for social interactions art may either cause public conflict and create dissensions or facilitate mutual understanding and strengthen collective bonds All of this is grounded in practices that develop and change along social interaction cultural dynamics as well as technological and economic lines So how is art formed and produced What are the relevant constraints and challenges that artists experience in the creative process And what constitutes artistic agency This collection of contributions from international interdisciplinary experts explores particular case studies to deeply analyse artistic practices Comprising eleven chapters relating to different art forms each chapter offers an original perspective conveying a comprehensive understanding of artistic practices as arrays of specific activities in contemporary art worlds This book will be important for both researchers and practitioners in the field It will help artists to deepen their analytical abilities enabling them to further their own creative practice It will allow students and researchers to gain insights into processes of artistic creation and thus into the reproduction of art as well as innovation in the arts

Artistic Practices and Cultural Transfer in Early Modern Italy Allison Sherman,2017-07-05 For too long the centre of the Renaissance has been considered to be Rome and the art produced in or inspired by it This collection of essays dedicated to Deborah Howard brings together an impressive group of internationally recognised scholars of art and architecture to showcase both the diversity within and the porosity between the centre and periphery in Renaissance art Without abandoning Rome but together with other centres of art production the essays both shift their focus away from conventional categories and bring together recent trends in Renaissance studies notably a focus on cultural contact material culture and historiography They explore the material mechanisms for the transmission and evolution of ideas artistic training and networks as well as the dynamics of collaboration and exchange between artists theorists and patrons The chapters each with a wealth of groundbreaking research and previously unpublished documentary evidence as well as innovative methodologies reinterpret Italian art relating to canonical sites and artists such as Michelangelo Titian Tintoretto Veronese and Sebastiano del Piombo in addition to showcasing the work of several hitherto neglected architects painters and an inimitable engineer inventor

Literature and Artistic Practice in Sixteenth-Century Italy Angela Cerasuolo, 2017-01-05 In Literature and Artistic Practice in the Sixteenth Century Angela Cerasuolo art historian and restorer tracks the technical processes of painting through the cross analysis of literary texts and works of art Having traced the critical fortunes of the texts of the authors Leonardo Vasari Armenini Borghini Lomazzo she compares the information on drawing and painting analysing the specific terminology and identifying the materials and methods Central themes of the theoretical debate disegno invenzione the contrast between prestezza and diligenza the paragone are examined in the light of their relationship with the techniques On the basis of scientific studies on the technical execution of paintings works from the Capodimonte Museum Naples are analysed as case studies

Ecologies of Artistic Practice Ashley Lee Wong, 2025-05-27 An in depth look at how we make and circulate art today and how creative and economic processes shape the meaning and value of artworks In Ecologies of Artistic Practice Ashley Lee Wong explores the economic relationships of artists working at the nexus of art and technology as they negotiate a means to make art in a neoliberal creative economy Wong looks at the diverse ways in which artworks circulate both online and offline in galleries on digital platforms and on media facades and investigates some of the mechanisms that enable artists to create works including selling artworks and NFTs grants licensing commissions and artist residencies The book also looks at the ways in which artists collaborate with corporations and develop practices as commercial entities themselves The book provides unique insights into the diverse creative and economic processes that shape the meaning and value of artworks Wong seeks to shift away from notions of individual authorship and finite artworks that can be bought and sold and instead toward an understanding of artistic practices as collaborative social and cultural processes Rather than critique this economy Ecologies of Artistic Practice opens space for engaging in hypercommercialized contexts while considering how money is not an end goal but a means to initiate or continue an artistic process

Thinking Through Art Katy Macleod, 2013-01-11 Focusing on a unique arena Thinking Through Art takes an innovative look at artists experiences of undertaking doctorates and asks If the making of art is not simply the formulation of an object but is also the formation of complex ideas then what effect does academic enquiry have on art practice Using twenty eight pictures never before seen outside the artists universities Thinking Through Art focuses on art produced in higher educational environments and considers how the material product comes about through a process of conceiving and giving form to abstract thought It further examines how this form which is research art sits uneasily within academic circles and yet is uniquely situated outside the gallery system The journal articles from eminent scholars artists philosophers art historians and cultural theorists demonstrate the complexity of interpreting art as research and provide students and scholars with an invaluable resource for their art and cultural studies courses Art Themes Marjorie Cohee Manifold,2017-11-20 Flexible in approach and full of colorful examples this textbook provides a basic introduction to what art is and can be in the lives of people who do not necessarily think of themselves as artists You will be taught about a variety of art themes genres materials and processes that appeal to novice art makers The lessons are organized by themes of general subject matter or media Options are available for work in mixed media crafts photography and digital media as well as in traditional drawing or painting media After picking a theme of particular interest to you look next at the four strands of lessons presented in that thematic unit Moving from left to right select one lesson from each consecutive strand and complete that lesson Because each lesson builds upon previously presented knowledge and developed skill as you progress through four lessons one from each strand you should grow in your understanding of art concepts meanings and processes while also improving your art making skills Completing this course will help you develop a new appreciation for the power and possibilities of art learning by understanding better the art others create as well as making it yourself Practicing Art and Anthropology Anna Laine,2020-06-07 Practicing Art and Anthropology presents an in depth exploration of transdisciplinary work in the expanding space between art and anthropology Having trained and worked as an artist as well as an anthropologist Anna Laine s decades long engagement in art practice artistic research and anthropology provide her with a unique perspective on connections between the two fields both in theory and in practice Intertwining artistic and anthropological ways of working Laine asks what it means to engage a transdisciplinary stance when academia requires a specific disciplinary belonging In order to expand the methods of producing academic knowledge by going beyond conventional approaches to research she draws on examples from her own work with Tamils in India and the UK to present an original take on how we can cross the boundaries between art and anthropology to reach multiple dimensions of understanding Offering exceptional breadth and detail Practicing Art and Anthropology provides a unique approach to the discussion An important read for students and scholars in art and anthropology as well as artists and anyone interacting in the space in between Theories of Art Today Noël Carroll,2000 What is art The contributors to Theories of Art Today address the assertion that the term art no longer holds meaning They explore a variety of issues including aesthetic and institutional theories of art feminist perspectives on the philosophy of art the question of whether art is a cluster concept and the relevance of tribal art to philosophical aesthetics Contributors to this book include such distinguished philosophers and historians as Arthur Danto Joseph Margolis and George Dickie Walking as Artistic Practice Ellen Mueller,2023-10-01 Walking as Artistic Practice lays out foundational information about the history of walking and its development as an artistic practice making it accessible to readers of all backgrounds It also provides guidance on how to analyze and discuss walking artworks with vocabulary support over three hundred examples and over seventy five exercises The chapters offer a variety of topical approaches allowing readers and instructors to craft an experience most suited to their interests and needs Themes include observational and sensory experience leading versus following who walks where identity and positionality rituals place activism connections to drawing and embodiment Appendices include information on documentation sample syllabi readings and resources brainstorming tips community engagement guidance and tips for travel based study Instructors will appreciate this text because it has so many resources to direct students to when they have questions about analysis history community engagement or documentation approaches It's the type of book that students will hang onto long after the course is done because it is so practical and useful

Practice-led Research, Research-led Practice in the Creative Arts Hazel Smith, 2009-06-30 This book addresses one of the most exciting and innovative developments within higher education the rise in prominence of the creative arts and the accelerating recognition that creative practice is a form of research The book considers how creative practice can lead to research insights through what is often known as practice led research But unlike other books on practice led research it balances this with discussion of how research can impact positively on creative practice through research led practice The editors posit an iterative and web like relationship between practice and research Essays within the book cover a wide range of disciplines including creative writing dance music theatre film and new media and the contributors are from the UK US Canada and Australia The subject is approached from numerous angles the authors discuss methodologies of practice led research and research led practice their own creative work as a form of research research training for creative practitioners and the politics and histories of practice led research and research led practice within the university The book will be invaluable for creative practitioners researchers students in the creative arts and university leaders

Key Features The first book to document conceptualise and analyse practice led research in the creative arts and to balance it with research led practice Written by highly qualified academics and practitioners across the creative arts and sciences Brings together empirical cultural and creative approaches Presents illuminating case histories of creative work and practice led research

The Sociology of Art David Inglis, John Hughson, 2017-09-16 What can Sociology add to our understanding of art This volume brings together a range of respected scholars in the field who demonstrate the many ways in which sociology can add to our understanding of artistic issues Covering all the major schools of thought and dealing with many different art forms the book offers the reader a comprehensive and accessible guide to an often complex area It will be an invaluable resource for students seeking to understand sociology's contributions to the study of artistic and aesthetic issues

Public Knowledge Michael Asher, 2019-10-15 Writings by the conceptual artist Michael Asher including notes proposals exhibition statements and letters to curators and critics most published here for the first time The California conceptual artist Michael Asher 1943-2012 was known for rigorous site specificity and pioneering institutional critique His decades of teaching at CalArts influenced generations of artists Much of Asher's artistic practice was devoted to creating works that had no lasting material presence and often responded to the material social or ideological context of a situation Because most of Asher's artworks have ceased to exist his writings about them have special significance Public Knowledge collects writings by Asher about his work including preliminary notes and ideas project proposals exhibition statements and letters to curators and critics most of which have never been previously published Asher gave few interviews didn't write art criticism and rarely published extensive accounts of his own work Yet writing was central to his artistic practice serving as a tool for working out ideas negotiating institutional parameters and describing thought processes In these texts he considers writing and documentation discusses artistic practice offers notes for gallery and museum talks presents artist statements for exhibition goes describes individual works and their situational context and reflects on teaching and art education Among other things Asher provides his definition of site specificity addresses the function of art in public space and analyzes the intersection of teaching art and institutional models of education Readers will see an artist at work formulating ethical and political strategies for making art in a situational world

Digital Arts: Challenges and Opportunities at the Intersections between Arts, Society and Technology Marisa Gómez, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2016 The present volume gathers a selection of texts that attempt to contribute to the critical reflection about digital arts and the social cultural context in which they arise However this book is not a systematic study about digital arts which thoroughly covers their history or their aesthetic and discursive principles Instead the five chapters hereby presented work as a sample of the multiple perspectives and approaches from which is possible to address this topic and to claim fresh insights for its further research The authors of this volume explore some of the challenges and possibilities offered by the intersections between art technology and society both for the fields of contemporary art and for the articulation of the social cultural models of the current Digital Age Thus digital arts are approached here not only as an object of study but also implicitly or explicitly as a tool for analyzing our contemporary reality
