Transactions of the ... Annual Congress of the Federation of European Sections of the Theosophical Society Federation of European Sections of the Theosophical Society. Congress, 1907 Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 1889 Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 1912 With appendices A Muslim Mystic Community in Britain Tayfun Atay, 2012 This book is a social anthropological analysis based on ethnographic fieldwork of the discourse and social practice of an Islamic mystic community in London, namely the branch of Naqshbandi Sufi order led by Sheikh Nazim of Cyprus. The Naqshbandi order is a well-known mystical institution having a widespread historical and contemporary influence on the life of many Muslims all over the world, including the West. The book focuses particularly on the definitions and reflections of the members of this branch upon themselves and the wider modern western society outside their close-knit community. It reveals that the Islamic discourse of the community encompasses a multitude of expressions by which the members' perceptions of their social and spiritual universe are shaped and communicated to a wider audience. And it concludes that a thorough analysis of an Islamic community should pay particular attention to three closely related discursive processes: a) the reflections of such a community on the wider modern society of which it is a part; b) the ways in which it defines itself as Islamic and contests with other Muslim groups or movements for the representation of the correct model of Islamic tradition; c) the discourses of conflict and power within such a community. Tayfun Atay holds an MA in Area Studies Near Middle East and a PhD in Social Anthropology from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London. He has done ethnographic fieldwork in London and many parts of Turkey and published five monographs in Turkish. Currently, he is Professor of Ethnology in the Department of Folklore and Ethnology at the University of Ankara. Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain & Ireland Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain and Ireland, 1889 Has appendices The Theosophic Messenger, 1906 Rabbi, Mystic, or Impostor? Michal Oron, 2020-03-04 The enigmatic kabbalist Samuel Falk, known as the Ba'al Shem of London, has piqued the curiosity of scholars for generations. Eighteenth-century London was fascinated by Jews and as a miracle worker and adventurer, well-connected and well-read, Falk had much to offer. Interest in the man was further aroused by rumours of his dealings with European aristocrats and other famous characters as well as with scholars, Freemasons and Shabbateans, but evidence was scanty. Michal Oron has now brought together all the known source material on the man and her detailed annotations of his diary and that of his assistant give us rich insights into his activities over several years. We learn of his meetings and his travels his finances his disputes his dreams and his remedies and lists of his books We see London's social life and commerce its landed gentry and its prisons and what people ate wore and possessed The burgeoning Jewish community of London and its religious practices as well as its communal divisiveness is depicted especially colourfully The scholarly introductions by Oron and by Todd Endelman and the informative appendices help contextualize the diaries and offer an intriguing glimpse of Jewish involvement in little known aspects of London life at the threshold of the modern era Translated by Edward Levin With an introduction by Todd M Endelman The Mystic Rose Alfred Ernest Crawley,1927
