Notes ,1909 Fairy Tales Framed Ruth B. Bottigheimer, 2012-02-23 2012 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Most early fairy tale authors had a lot to say about what they wrote Charles Perrault explained his sources and recounted friends reactions His niece Marie Jeanne Lh ritier and her friend Marie Catherine d Aulnoy used dedications and commentaries to situate their tales socially and culturally while the raffish Henriette Julie de Murat accused them all of taking their plots from the Italian writer Giovan Francesco Straparola and admitted to borrowing from the Italians herself These reflections shed a bright light on both the tales and on their composition but in every case they were removed soon after their first publication Remaining largely unknown their absence created empty space that later readers filled with their own views about the conditions of production and reception of the tales What their authors had to say about Puss in Boots Cinderella Sleeping Beauty and Rapunzel among many other fairy tales is collected here for the first time newly translated and accompanied by rich annotations Also included are revealing commentaries from the authors literary contemporaries As a whole these forewords afterwords and critical words directly address issues that inform the contemporary study of European fairy tales including traditional folkloristic concerns about fairy tale origins and performance as well as questions of literary aesthetics and historical context Notes and Queries ,1887 Yosemite Nature Notes ,1946 Notes to the Fairy Emma L. Emotion Rüdiger Campe,Julia Weber,2014-06-18 What are emotions where do they originate and how are they brought into being While from antiquity to early modernity affects or passions were mostly conceived of as external physiological forces which act upon a passive subject modern conceptions generally locate emotions within the subject Drawing on the dichotomy of interiority exteriority as a complex interdependent relationship they mostly envision emotions as interior processes Contemporary conceptions of emotion from such different fields as human geography art history and cognitive sciences recently started to challenge this notion of internal emotions by developing alternative descriptions of externalized emotion This book reevaluates premodern modern and contemporary conceptions of affects passions and emotion by analyzing various historical manifestations of the discourse on emotion Unlike most previous research which especially in the German tradition often focused exclusively on the rise of the modern Romantic interiority without paying attention to the underlying dichotomy of interiority exteriority this study aims to explore the historical preconditions the internal logic and the possible shortcomings that inform our thinking on emotion The novels of sir Walter Scott, with all his introductions and notes sir Walter Scott (bart [novels, collected]),1862
