Nth Reader Neglected Texas History:

Frankly Speaking ... Charles Chupp,2008-05-02 Hugh Chupp and Thelma Brownlee tied the nuptial knot on May 30th 1925 at De Leon in Comanche County Texas Hugh was 26 years old an eighth grade graduate a bronc buster and a horse trainer Thelma was 17 a junior at De Leon High School and had an ambition to be a glamorous flapper That was the extent of their schooling but the subsequent sixteen years would provide education Rumors that their wedding was of the shotgun variety were proven baseless when their first son didn't see daylight until November 22nd of 1929 The roaring twenties were in session even in rural De Leon and the good times rolled until Black Friday October 25th 1929 and the arrival of Charles Elvin a month later He did not cause the Great Depression nor did the Great Depression cause him Times got tough but Hugh and Thel were blessed with yet another son March 15th 1933 as they moved from one rundown shelter to another usually when rent was due Benny Wayne was born December 18th 1939 and Hugh and Thel ceased production Hugh haunted the corner on Texas Street where day labor was chancy and often non-existent He watched as the Houston and Texas Central freight train rolled through town and envied the hobos who adorned the empty cars and went on down the tracks looking for the Promised Land To his credit he resisted the urge to climb aboard and leave his troubles behind Despite the hard times and the gloomy forecast for the future the little family managed to stay together when it would have been easier to quit As a matter of fact Hugh and Thel shared their shelter and food with Nancy Brownlee Thel's widowed mother Tom Brokaw's Greatest Generation was hanging tough in the eye of the hurricane When the going gets tough the tough get going is one version of an old adage and the Chupp family managed to weather the storm Grit and good humor was a major contributor to their will to hang on and when good times crept across America in the early days of 1941 they managed to move up a rung on the ladder of success A stroke of good fortune elevated the Chupps from day labor to tenant farming The story is an eyewitness account recounted here for your amusement and edification by the eldest son of Hugh and Thel And the story may sound familiar you may have lived it too The Duke, the Longhorns, and Chairman Mao Steven Travers,2014-04-07 1966 The year of change The year of division The middle of the 1960s the great dividing line between what America had been and what it became All of it in all its color glory and ugliness came symbolically together on a hot humid weekend in Austin Texas The protagonist None other John Duke Wayne the larger than life movie hero of countless Westerns and war dramas a swashbuckling ruggedly macho idol of America the very embodiment of what the United States had become the new Rome the most powerful military political and cultural empire in the annals of mankind Wayne like the nation itself stood astride the world in Colossus style talking tough Taking no prisoners In September 1966 John Wayne was in Texas filming War Wagon while the integrated Trojans of the University of Southern California arrived in Austin to do battle with a powerhouse of equal stature the all white Texas Longhorns The Duke a one time pulling guard for coach Howard Jones at USC was there accompanied by sycophants and according to rumor with spurs on Wayne arrived in Austin the night before the game

Dressed to the nines he immediately repaired to the hotel bar He had a full entourage who hung on his every word as if uttered from the Burning Bush So it was when the Duke ordered his first whiskey Thus surrounded by sycophants John Wayne bellowed opinions bromides and pronouncements What happened next is subject to interpretation for this weekend and many other details of the Duke s Trojan wars are revealed and expounded upon by longtime USC historian Steven Travers This book is a fly on the wall exploration of this wild weekend and an immersion into the John Wayne mythology his politics his inspirations the plots to assassinate him his connections to Stalin Khrushchev and Chairman Mao and the death of the Western
