Conflict, War, and Peace Sara McLaughlin Mitchell, John A. Vasquez, 2013-08-13 Introducing students to the scientific study of peace and war. Conflict War and Peace: An Introduction to Scientific Research edited by Sara McLaughlin Mitchell and John A. Vasquez provides an overview of current scholarship in this dynamic area of study. Focusing on the factors that shape relationships between countries and that make war or peace more likely, this collection of articles by top scholars explores such key topics as dangerous dyads, alliances, territorial disputes, rivalry, arms races, democracy, peace, trade, international organizations, territorial peace, and nuclear weapons. Each article is followed by the editors' commentary. A Major Contributions section highlights the article's theoretical advances and relates each study to the broader literature, while a Methodological Notes section carefully walks students through the techniques used in the analysis. Methodological topics include research design, percentages, probabilities, odds ratios, statistical significance, levels of analysis, selection bias, logic, duration models, and game theory models.

Global Trends and Transitions in Security Expertise James McGann, 2017-11-08 The scope of Security and International Affairs research has expanded tremendously since the end of the Cold War to include topics beyond the realm of war studies or military statecraft. The field once devoted solely to the study of conventional military and nuclear security issues has diversified to include foci often considered nontraditional, including peace and conflict, political, economic, environmental, and human security. In this exciting new volume, McGann has undertaken a quantitative and qualitative study of SIA think tanks looking at global and regional trends in their research. He argues that the end of the Cold War marked a fundamental shift within the field of defense and security studies among think tanks and academics. Tracking the evolution of security as understood by researchers and policymakers is vital as the world follows the path of the Four Mores: more issues, more actors, more competition, and more conflict. As we move forward into a world of rapid change and ubiquitous uncertainty, think tanks will only become more prominent and influential. The volume concludes with an assessment of the future of Security and International Affairs studies and raises the possibility of a return to a traditional security focus driven by recent events in Europe and the Middle East. This will be an important resource for students and scholars of security studies, global governance, and think tanks.

What passes as DHS strategy is often just a list of objectives with vague references to the garnering of national resources and the marshalling of support from other nations. Drawn

India-US Relations in the Age of Uncertainty B.M. Jain, 2016-04-20 In the initial phase of the Obama administration India's ruling class and strategic community formed a perception that the spirit of strategic partnership between the two countries might be diluted on account of China looming large in the priorities of this administration. Despite occasional hiccups in their relationship this perception was overshadowed by the administration's recognition of India's role as counterweight to China in the Asia Pacific region. This book addresses and re-evaluates the perceptions, policies and perspectives of public policy makers and bureaucratic elites in both India and the US in setting and articulating the tone, tenor and substance of the multifaceted ties between the two countries. The scope of the book is not exclusively limited to the bilateral relationship in the critical areas such as the Indo-US nuclear deal, defence security and strategic partnership. Its concerns and ramifications are much wider in global and regional contexts covering involving security architecture in the Asia Pacific region, the interface between terrorism and weapons of mass destruction (WMDs), China as a factor in India-US relations and the fallout of the New Delhi-Washington partnership on South Asia.
