Committee on Appropriations,1974 Energy Law in Malaysia Abdul Haseeb Ansari,2018-11-16 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this book provides a systematic approach to legislation and legal practice concerning energy resources and production in Malaysia The book describes the administrative organization regulatory framework and relevant case law pertaining to the development application and use of such forms of energy as electricity gas petroleum and coal with attention as needed to the pervasive legal effects of competition law environmental law and tax law A general introduction covers the geography of energy resources sources and basic principles of energy law and the relevant governmental institutions Then follows a detailed description of specific legislation and regulation affecting such factors as documentation undertakings facilities storage pricing procurement and sales transportation transmission distribution and supply of each form of energy Case law intergovernmental cooperation agreements and interactions with environmental tax and competition law are explained Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable resource for energy sector policymakers and energy firm counsel handling cases affecting Malaysia It will also be welcomed by researchers and academics for its contribution to the study of a complex field that today stands at the foreground of comparative law

The National Politics of Nuclear Power Benjamin K. Sovacool, Scott Victor Valentine, 2012-05-16 This book offers a comprehensive assessment of the dynamics driving and constraining nuclear power development in Asia Europe and North America providing detailed comparative analysis The book formulates a theory of nuclear socio political economy which highlights six factors necessary for embarking on nuclear power programs 1 national security and secrecy 2 technocratic ideology 3 economic interventionism 4 a centrally coordinated energy stakeholder network 5 subordination of opposition to political authority and 6 social peripheralization The book validates this theory by confirming the presence of these six drivers during the initial nuclear power developmental periods in eight countries the United States France Japan Russia the former Soviet Union South Korea Canada China and India The authors then apply this framework as a predictive tool to evaluate contemporary nuclear power trends They discuss what this theory means for developed and developing countries which exhibit the potential for nuclear development on a major scale and examine how the new renaissance of nuclear power may affect the promotion of renewable energy global energy security and development policy as a whole The volume also assesses the influence of climate change and the recent nuclear accident in Fukushima Japan on the nuclear power industry's trajectory This book will be of interest to students of energy policy and security nuclear proliferation international security global governance and IR in general
