Orientalism And Turkey:

Orientalism and Turkey Semra Germaner, Zeynep İnankur, 1989 Frontier Orientalism and the Turkish Image in Central European Literature Charles D. Sabatos, 2020-01-02 This comparative study analyzes the ways that Central European writers used stereotypes of the Turks to develop their national identities from the early modern period to the present Charles D Sabatos uses Andre Gingrich s concept of frontier Orientalism to foreground his analysis of Central European Orientalism designating the nations of the former Habsburg Empire as the occident and the Turks as the oriental Other This study applies theoretical approaches to literary history as developed by scholars such as Stephen Greenblatt and Linda Hutcheon to a range of texts from the early modern period the nineteenth century national revivals interwar independence and the communist and postsocialist regimes By following these depictions across literatures and over an extensive historical period this study illustrates how the Turkish stereotype evolved from a menace to a more abstract yet still powerful metaphor of resistance and finally to a mythical figure that evoked humor as often as fear Orientalism, Masquerade and Mozart's Turkish Music Matthew Head, 2018-12-13 Matthew Head explores the cultural meanings of Mozart s Turkish music in the composer s 18th century context in subsequent discourses of Mozart s significance for Western culture and in today s not entirely post colonial world Unpacking the ideological content of Mozart s numerous representations of Turkey and Turkish music Head locates the composer s exoticisms in shifting power relations between the Austrian and Ottoman Empires and in an emerging orientalist project At the same time Head complicates a presentist post colonial critique by exploring commercial stimuli to Mozart s turquerie and by embedding the composer s orientalism in practices of self disguise epitomised by masquerade and carnival In this context Mozart s Turkish music offered fleeting liberation from official and proscribed identities of the bourgeois Enlightenment Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond Tombul, Işıl, Sarı, Gülşah, 2021-05-28 Orientalism is about much more than just information gathered about the East within its general postcolonial period In this period orientalism is a Western discourse that dominated and shaped the view of the East There is otherization in the way the West has historically looked at the East and within the information presented about it These original stories of travelers in the past and previous telling about the East are facing a reconstruction through modern types of media Cinema television news newspaper magazine internet social media photography literature and more are transforming the way the East is presented and viewed Under the headings of post orientalism neo orientalism or self orientalism these new orientalist forms of work in combination with both new and traditional media are redefining orientalism in the media and beyond The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Approaches to Orientalism in Media and Beyond shows how both new media and traditional media deal with orientalism today through the presentation of gender race religion and culture that make up orientalist theory The chapters focus on how orientalism is presented in the media cinema TV photography and more This book is ideal for communications theorists and Literary Modernity in Turkey Nergis Erturk, 2011-10-19 The 1928 Turkish alphabet reform replacing the Perso Arabic script with the Latin phonetic alphabet is an emblem of Turkish modernization Grammatology and Literary Modernity in Turkey traces the history of Turkish alphabet and language reform from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century examining its effects on modern Turkish literature In readings of the novels essays and poetry of Ahmed Midhat Rec izade Mahmud Ekrem mer Seyfeddin Ahmet Hamdi Tanpınar Peyami Safa and N zim Hikmet Nergis Ert rk argues that modern Turkish literature is profoundly self conscious of dramatic change in its own historical conditions of possibility Where literary historiography has sometimes idealized the Turkish language reforms as the culmination of a successful project of Westernizing modernization Ert rk suggests a different critical narrative one of the consolidation of control over communication forging a unitary nation and language from a pluralistic and multilingual society Orientalism A. L. Kurdish Studies Archive Martin van Bruinessen, 2024-11-04 Kurdish Studies Archive publishes the content of volumes 1 to 10 of Kurdish Studies This interdisciplinary and peer reviewed journal was dedicated to publishing high quality research and scholarship Since 2023 the journal has been continued as the new Kurdish Studies Journal published by Brill and focuses on research scholarship and debates in the field of Kurdish studies in a multidisciplinary fashion covering a wide range of topics including but not limited to economics history society gender minorities politics health law environment language media culture arts and education After Orientalism, 2014-11-27 The debate on Orientalism began some fifty years ago in the wake of decolonization While initially considered a turning point Edward Said's Orientalism 1978 was in fact part of a larger academic endeavor the political critique of colonial science that had already significantly impacted the humanities and social sciences In a recent attempt to broaden the debate the papers collected in this volume offered at various seminars and an international symposium held in Paris in 2010 2011 critically examine whether Orientalism as knowledge and as creative expression was in fact fundamentally subservient to Western domination By raising new issues the papers shift the focus from the center to the peripheries thus analyzing the impact on local societies of a major intellectual and institutional movement that necessarily changed not only their world but the ways in which they represented their world World history which assumes a plurality of perspectives leads us to observe that the Saidian critique applies to powers other than Western European ones three case studies are considered here the Ottoman Russian and Soviet and Chinese empires Other essays in this volume proceed to analyze how post independence states have made use of the tremendous accumulation of knowledge and representations inherited from previous colonial regimes for the sake of national identity as well as how scholars change and adapt what was once a hegemonic discourse for their own purposes What emerges is a new landscape in which to situate research on non Western cultures and societies and a road map leading readers beyond the restrictive dichotomy of a confrontation between West and East With contributions by Elisabeth All s L on Buskens St phane A Dudoignon Baudouin Dupret Edhem Eldem Olivier Herrenschmidt Nicholas S Hopkins Robert Irwin Mouldi Lahmar Sylvette Larzul Jean Gabriel Leturcq Jessica Marglin Claire Nicholas Emmanuelle Perrin Alain de Pommereau Fran ois Pouillon Zakaria Rhani Emmanuel Szurek Jean Claude Vatin Mercedes Volait The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Gender Jenna C. Ashton,2025-05-30

The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Gender offers an exceptional range of international contributions that interrogate and analyse the interactions within and between heritage and gender Taking an intersectional and global approach the Handbook opens up space for a more critical and situated consideration of how gender comes into contact with heritage as a concept and practice The volume considers heritage in the broadest sense as a concept performance and materialisation The contributions also consider how heritage impacts identity power people values politics and ethics as well as processes and sites across material culture nature and intangible practices The volume and its contributions are inclusive of cisgender trans non binary agender and intersex identities Reflecting the multidisciplinary and transnational voices of its authors the collection challenges readers to consider what a focused analysis of heritage and gender can offer heritage studies as an evolving discipline and field of study The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Gender will be of interest to academics and students working in Heritage Studies Museum Studies Art History History Anthropology Gender and Women s Studies and International Development Reading Orientalism Daniel Martin Varisco,2017-04-11 The late Edward Said remains one of the most influential critics and public intellectuals of our time with lasting contributions to many disciplines Much of his reputation derives from the phenomenal multidisciplinary influence of his 1978 book Orientalism Said s seminal polemic analyzes novels travelogues and academic texts to argue that a dominant discourse of West over East has warped virtually all past European and American representation of the Near East But despite the book s wide acclaim no systematic critical survey of the rhetoric in Said s representation of Orientalism and the resulting impact on intellectual culture has appeared until today Drawing on the extensive discussion of Said s work in more than 600 bibliographic entries Daniel Martin Varisco has written an ambitious intellectual history of the debates that Said s work has sparked in several disciplines highlighting in particular its reception among Arab and European scholars While pointing out Said s tendency to essentialize and privilege certain texts at the expense of those that do not comfortably fit his theoretical framework Varisco analyzes the extensive commentary the book has engendered in Oriental studies literary and cultural studies feminist scholarship history political science and anthropology He employs critical satire to parody the exaggerated and pedantic aspects of post colonial discourse including Said's profound underappreciation of the role of irony and reform in many of the texts he cites. The end result is a companion volume to Orientalism and the vast research it inspired. Rather than contribute to dueling essentialisms, Varisco provides a path to move beyond the binary of East versus West and the polemics of blame. Reading Orientalism is the most comprehensive survey of Said's writing and thinking to date. It will be of strong interest to scholars of Middle East studies, anthropology, history, cultural studies, post-colonial studies, and literary studies.

Hegemonic Transitions, the State and Crisis in Neoliberal Capitalism Yildiz Atasoy, 2009-01-08. Offering a unique opportunity to make conceptual connections between neoliberalism and political authority, this book examines the transformation in the world economy as an outcome of historically specific social relations.

The Sung Home. Narrative, Morality, and the Kurdish Nation Wendelmoet Hamelink, 2016-04-08. The Sung Home tells the story of Kurdish singer-poets *dengbêj*s in Kurdistan in Turkey who are specialized in the recital singing of historical songs. After a long period of silence, they returned to public life in the 2000s and are presented as guardians of history and culture. Their lyrics, life stories, and live performances offer fascinating insights into cultural practices, local politics, and the contingencies of state borders. Decades of oppression have deeply politicized and moralized cultural and musical production. Through in-depth ethnographic analysis, Hamelink highlights the variety of personal and social narratives within a society in turmoil. Set within the larger global stories of modernity, nationalism, and Orientalism, this study reflects on different ideas about what it means to create a Kurdish home.
