Religious Conversion Christopher Lamb, M. Darroll Bryant, 1999-10-01 Conversion has been an important issue for most of the universal religions those usually associated with a founder such as Christianity Buddhism Islam and Judaism which have a mission to spread their message Other religions have been less concerned with conversion except in so far as it has been a negative force for them to confront This study explores how conversion has been understood by different religions

during different eras and includes a survey of the textual legal ritual historic and experiential dimensions of the phenomenon of conversion Systematic Theology, Volume 2, Second Edition James Leo Garrett Jr.,2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett s system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and denominational positions will find his work instructive Consensus 1997 If one is searching for an extensive exposition of the biblical foundations and historical developments of the various loci of systematic theology there is no more complete presentation in a relatively short work than this Pastors will especially find this feature to be a real help in teaching theology It is an indispensable contribution to the task of systematic theology Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society September 1999 Many students and pastors will find all they need here and will in addition be helped to relate their knowledge to recent developments in the theological world The Churchman A Journal of Anglican Theology 1991 A gold mine of helpful material The Christian Century May 29 June 5 1991 No book that I know is more loaded with biblical and theological facts than this one The prodigious research that must have gone into the preparation of this volume is truly mind boggling Faith and Mission Fall 1991 Garrett has provided a massive and scholarly systematic theology from a thoroughly conservative and comprehensive viewpoint The work is well documented in both biblical and historical scholarship and will prove to be a classic William Hendrickson Southern Baptist Theological Seminary One of the most comprehensive concise books of its type available it should receive wide use in the classroom and in the study Robert H Culpepper Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Christian Conversion Walter E. Conn,2006-07-01 Walter Conn has provided us with something we have needed for a long time a scholarly study of Christian conversion that draws synthetically from present day psychology philosophy and theology and uses these insights to analyze actual Christian religious experience And in doing that Conn has produced what is probably the best treatment to date of foundational moral theology To follow Conn through the pages of this volume is to become acquainted with most of today s important reflection on human moral and personal development But one emerges with much more than relevant information about what is being said Conn s own view of conversion goes beyond the thinkers from whom he draws and provides a basic challenge to and enrichment of our understanding of faith and morality Bernard Cooke Holy Cross College Walter E Conn is Professor of Theology and Religious Studies at Villanova University He is also the editor of Horizons journal of the College Theology Society Religion and the Individual: Belief, Practice, and Identity Douglas J. Religious Harmony Michael Pye, Edith Franke, Alef Theria Wasim, Abdurrahman Mas'ud, 2012-02-13 It is crucial today to understand how religions can exist harmoniously in a shared environment whether local or global A reasoned approach to this question was sought by participants at a stimulating conference of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR in a predominantly Muslim country Indonesia Themes treated include the relation between theoretical approaches and religious viewpoints practical problems and conflict resolution at the local level and religious education with special reference to the role of Muslim schools pesantren in Indonesia

Journeys to New Life, Identity, and Community Peter Kwang-Hee Yun, 2021-09-06 In Journeys to New Life Identity and Community Dr Peter K Yun explores the complexities of identity for Muslim background believers MBBs in Bangladesh Encompassing scholarship surrounding contextualization and the insider movement as well as extensive personal interviews with Bangladeshi MBBs this book offers insight into the lived reality of following Christ within a Muslim context Yun identifies three primary approaches to negotiating social identity within MBB communities and examines the potential strengths and weaknesses of each as well as the implications for believers navigating the gospel's call to be within culture and simultaneously beyond it. This book offers careful anthropological observation while speaking to missiological concerns and offering practical suggestions for local believers, practitioners and future scholars. It is a powerful resource for anyone passionate about God's work in Muslim contexts.

An Ethos of Blackness Vivaldi Jean-Marie, 2023-09-26 Rastafari is an Afrocentric social and religious movement that emerged among Afro-Jamaican communities in the 1930s and has many adherents in the Caribbean and worldwide today. This book is a groundbreaking account of Rastafari demonstrating that it provides a normative conception of Blackness for people of African descent that resists Eurocentric and colonial ideas. Vivaldi Jean-Marie examines Rastafari's core beliefs and practices arguing that they constitute a distinctively Black system of norms and values at once an ethos and a cosmology. He traces Rastafari's origins in enslaved people's strategies of resistance, Jamaican Revivalism and Garveyism showing how it incorporates ancestral religious traditions and emancipatory politics. An Ethos of Blackness draws out the significance of practices such as avoiding technological exploitation of natural artifacts and the belief in living in harmony with the natural order. Jean-Marie considers Rastafari's theology exploring its reinterpretation of biblical scriptures and its foundations in the rejection of Christianity's Eurocentrism and racism. However, he insists before Rastafari can fulfill its promise of liberation for people of African descent it must confront its failure to include women and redress sexism. Through rigorous and sensitive reflections on Rastafari culture and cosmology, this book offers deeply original insights into the Black theological imagination.

Conversion To Islam Ali Kose, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1996 Religious conversion is an immensely complex phenomenon. The term comprises such diverse experiences as increased devotion within the same religious structure, a shift from no religious commitment to a devout religious life or a change from one religion to another. This study focuses on the conversion experiences of 70 native British converts to Islam. It addresses the following questions: why do people become Muslims? what are the backgrounds of the converts? what are the patterns of conversion to Islam and how far are existing conversion theories applicable to the group under study? The full range of social and psychological forces at work in the conversion experience are examined with reference to the converts whose whole life history, childhood, adolescent experiences and the conversion process itself were examined in detail. Chapter 1 deals with the history and present situation of both life-long Muslims and converts living in Britain. Chapter 2 focuses on childhood and adolescent experiences reviewing the psychological and sociological theories of conversion and attempts to find out how far these theories are applicable to the converts to Islam. Chapter 3 examines the backgrounds of the converts regarding religion. It then analyzes the immediate antecedents of the conversion as well as the conversion process focussing on version motifs. A conversion process model is also developed in this chapter. Chapter 4 looks at the post-conversion period to find out what changes the converts underwent. It also examines the relationship between converts, their parents and society at large. Chapter 5 reveals the findings on conversion through Sufism. Comparisons between conversion through Sufism and through new religious movements in the West are also made This study should be an important addition to the study of religious conversion as conversion to Islam either from outside or within Islam is widely neglected in the literature Identity Crisis Sarah Yoon, 2015-03-17 This book provides a general overview of the identity crises BMB believer from Muslim background women in Jordan go through and reasons for it Traditionally persecution from family community or the secret police is thought to leave these women with newfound faith However even before persecution exposes their new faith many initial believers give up seeking the new truth and return to their previous phase due to a serious identity crisis This phenomenon is found to occur particularly often among female BMBs because of their unique circumstances in the religious and sociocultural contexts of Jordan Through an examination of BMB women's narratives this book explores how Muslim women form their identities and what they experience in the process of conversion

Daniel Defoe and the Representation of Personal Identity Christopher Borsing, 2016-08-25 The concept of a personal identity was a contentious issue in the early eighteenth century John Locke's philosophical discussion of personal identity in An Essay Concerning Human Understanding fostered a public debate upon the status of an immortal Christian soul This book argues that Defoe like many of this age had religious difficulties with Locke's empiricist analysis of human identity In particular it examines how Defoe explores competitive individualism as a social threat while also demonstrating the literary and psychological fiction of any concept of a separated lone identity This foreshadows Michel Foucault's assertion that the idea of man is a recent invention a figure not yet two centuries old a new wrinkle in our knowledge The monograph's engagement with Defoe's destabilization of any definition or image of personal identity across a wide range of genres including satire political propaganda history conduct literature travel narrative spiritual autobiography piracy and history economic and scientific literature rogue biography scandalous and secret history dystopian documentary science fiction and apparition narrative is an important and original contribution to the literary and cultural understanding of the early eighteenth century as it interrogates and challenges modern presumptions of individual identity
