The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan Ridlehoover, 2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord s Prayer in Matthew s Gospel focusing on the prayer s centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself Ridlehoover argues that the Lord s Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord s Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus Whilst the centrality of the Lord s Prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers Ridlehoover s examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality

The Center is Jesus Christ Himself Cardinal Timothy M. Dolan, Bishop James Massa, 2021-04-02 The polarization in the Church today can be traced back to a more fundamental crisis in theology one which has failed to connect our mundane experiences and the mysteries of the Christian faith with the person of Jesus Christ Ecclesial discourse on the so called hot button issues of the day too often take place without considering the foundation and goal of the Church And this is unfortunately due to a similar tendency in the academic theology that informs that ecclesial discourse In short much of post conciliar Catholic theology is adrift floating aimlessly away from the center of the Christian faith who is Christ The Center is Jesus Christ Himself is a collection of essays which anchor theological reflection in Jesus Christ These diverse essays share a unified focal point but engage with a variety of theological subdisciplines e g dogmatic moral Biblical etc areas e g Christology Pneumatology missiology etc and periods e g patristic medieval and modern Given the different combinations of sub disciplines areas and periods theology is susceptible to fragmentation when it is not held together by some principle of unity A theology in which the person of Jesus Christ serves as that principle of unity is a Christocentric theology Together the essays illustrate not only what Christocentric theology looks like but also what the consequences are when Christ is dislodged from the center whether by a conspicuous silence on or by a relativization of his unique salvific mission The volume is published in honor of Emeritus Professor of Systematic Theology at Boston College Rev Dr Robert P Imbelli who dedicated his teaching and writing to bringing Christ back to the center of Catholic theological discourse      Matthew's Christian-Jewish Community Anthony J. Saldarini, 1994-05-16 The most Jewish of gospels in its contents and yet the most anti Jewish in its polemics the Gospel of Matthew has been said to mark the emergence of Christianity from Judaism Anthony J Saldarini overturns this interpretation by showing us how Matthew far from proclaiming the replacement of Israel by the Christian church wrote from within Jewish tradition to a distinctly Jewish audience Recent research reveals that among both Jews and Christians of the first century many groups believed in Jesus while remaining close to Judaism Saldarini argues that the author of the Gospel of Matthew belonged to such a group supporting his claim with an informed reading of Matthew s text and historical context Matthew emerges as a Jewish teacher competing for the commitment of his people after the catastrophic loss of the Temple in 70 C E his polemics aimed not at all Jews but at those who oppose him Saldarini shows that Matthew s teaching about Jesus fits into first century Jewish thought with its tradition of God sent leaders and heavenly mediators In Saldarini s account Matthew s Christian Jewish community is a Jewish group albeit one that deviated from the larger Jewish community Contributing to both New Testament and Judaic studies this book advances our understanding of how religious groups are formed      The Restoration of Messianic Hope Brian Main, 2025-06-25 The New Testament portrays the apostles as placing great emphasis on Jesus resurrection in their preaching and teaching This emphasis is often lacking however in contemporary preaching and teaching If Jesus resurrection is to regain the centrality it held in the apostolic age its significance must be understood In this study Brian Main attempts to understand the significance of Jesus resurrection in the Gospel of Matthew Since Jesus resurrection is the proper conclusion of the story in Matthew it is necessary to understand what the story is that it concludes By analyzing the characters settings plot and point of view in Matthew 1 1 4 11 as well as those in the resurrection narrative 28 1 20 Main and his readers come to grasp the expectations that Matthew s audience develops as that story unfolds As readers understand those expectations they will gain a better appreciation of what was at stake when Jesus experienced opposition and therefore of what was restored and guaranteed by his resurrection      My Worship Planner and Organizer Gloria Meurant, 1992 At last A practical planning tool for use by those responsible for implementing corporate worship There s just enough information to get you in the mood of each liturgical season then lots and lots of suggestions for creative and exciting worship Fred S Mortensen Pastor Education Advent Lutheran Church Boca Raton Florida This is a carefully planned presentation that offers the liturgist a concise way of journaling through the seasons keeping record of hymns lessons prayers and themes each year The special notes allow for food for thought Hannah M Howe Associate Pastor United Congregational Church Tolland Connecticut My Worship Planner And Organizer is the best friend of the pastor organist church secretary choir director and worship committee when it comes to keeping worship records and reference Its focus is Sunday worship Each Sunday has two pages available for taking notes and reference You will find Sunday by Sunday Cycle A B and C gospel first and second lesson lectionary text listings for Revised Common Episcopal
