My Life With Pablo Neruda:

My Life with Pablo Neruda Matilde Urrutia, 2004 The muse and widow of the Nobel Laureate poet of Chile who composed The Captain's Verses and One Hundred Love Sonnets reveals her side to their famed romance She documents her life not only as a love story but also as a document of her life as the persecuted widow of a national hero Pablo Neruda Adam Feinstein, 2008-12-08 Adam Feinstein's book is the first English language biography of the Nobel Prize winning Chilean poet Pablo Neruda Relating Neruda's remarkable life story and delving into the literary legacy of the man Gabriel Garcia Marquez called the greatest poet of the twentieth century in any language Feinstein uncovers the details of this icon's artistic output political engagement friendships with a pantheon of important 20th century artistic and political figures and many loves A Companion to Pablo Neruda Jason Wilson, 2014-08 Pablo Neruda was without doubt one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century but his work is extremely uneven There is a view that there are two Nerudas an early Romantic visionary and a later Marxist populist who denied his earlier poetic self By focussing on the poet's apprenticeship and by looking closely at how Neruda created his poetic persona within his poems this Companion tries to establish what should survive of his massive output By seeing his early work as self exploration through metaphor and sound as well as through varieties of love and direct experience the Companion outlines a unity behind all the work based on voice and a public self Neruda's debt to reading and books is studied in depth and the change in poetics re-examined by concentrating on the early work up to Residencia en la tierra I and II and why he wanted to become a poet Debate about quality and representativity is grounded in his Romantic thinking sensibility and sincerity Unlike a Borges or a Paz who accompanied their creative work with analytical essays Neruda distilled all his experiences into his poems which remain his true biography Jason Wilson is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies University College London
