Nietzsche's Philosophy of Education Mark E. Jonas, Douglas W. Yacek, 2018-07-11 Nietzsche's Philosophy of Education makes the case that Nietzsche's philosophy has significant import for the theory and contemporary practice of education arguing that some of Nietzsche's most important ideas have been misunderstood by previous interpreters. In providing novel reinterpretations of Nietzsche's ethical theory, political philosophy and philosophical anthropology and outlining concrete ways in which these ideas can enrich teaching and learning in modern democratic schools, the book sets itself apart from previous works on Nietzsche. This is one of the first extended engagements with Nietzsche's philosophy which attempts to determine his true legacy for democratic education. In its engagement with both the vast secondary literature on Nietzsche's philosophy and the educational implications of his philosophical vision, this book makes a unique contribution to both the philosophy of education and Nietzsche scholarship. In addition, its development of four concrete pedagogical approaches from Nietzsche's educational ideas makes the book a potentially helpful guide to meeting the practical challenges of contemporary teaching. This book will be of great interest to Nietzsche scholars, researchers in the philosophy of education and students studying educational foundations.

Reassessing the Liberal State Timothy Fuller, John Hittinger, 2001 This collection of essays revisits Jacques Maritain's book Man and the State (the University of Chicago Walgreen lectures of 1949) and critically engages its greatest themes and arguments: the character of the modern state and its relation to the body politic; the state's functions and claims; the basis of authority; the foundation of human rights and natural law; structural pluralism; Church and State relations; national sovereignty and the prospects for world government. The contributors address whether Maritain has successfully accomplished his project of engaging modernity from the perspective of a 20th-century disciple of Thomas Aquinas; whether his reformulations and revisions of the modern state are philosophically sound and prudent; and whether his developments of Aristotle and Aquinas are faithful to the sources. Maritain, drawing upon the philosophy of Aquinas, represents a significant achievement: he provides a viable reassessment of the liberal state, uniting Thomistic and Aristotelian traditions with the human rights thrust of modern political philosophy. In short, Maritain reassesses the liberal state in light of ancient and medieval political traditions, seeking to find what is true and enduring.

and practical in the modern liberal state while criticizing its excesses and reconceptualizing its philosophical foundations The contributors to this collection find Maritain has achieved much in the accomplishment of this project Some continue this project by applying Maritain's philosophy to contemporary issues Other contributors find it helpful however to compare Maritain to other contemporary political philosophers and to question his use of the philosophy of Aquinas Maritain's political philosophy and Man and the State in particular is worth continued study Although his influence was greatest in the 1950s and 1960s and his philosophy has been displaced by new trends his work shows a remarkable resilience and relevance to the issues of the day offering a deeper philosophical foundation and more flexible set of tools for analysis than currently provided Timothy Fuller professor of political science and acting president of Colorado College is the editor of Leading and Leadership and The Voice of Liberal Learning Michael Oakeshott on Education John P Hittinger is professor of philosophy at the United States Air Force Academy and coeditor of Liberalism at the Crossroads An Introduction to Contemporary Liberal Theory and its Critics Contributors J Budziszewski Joseph M DeTorre Gregory Doolan Desmond FitzGerald Timothy Fuller John R Goodreau Catherine Green William Haggerty James G Hanink Jeanne M Heffernan John P Hittinger Russell Hittinger Richard Lemp V Bradley Lewis Nicholas C Lund Molfese John G Trapani Jr Deborah Wallace Henk E S Woldring and Michael Woodward The Publishers Weekly, 1924 Historical Sets, Collected Editions, and Monuments of Music Anna Harriet Heyer, 1969 CLASSIC FRIEDRICH NIETZSCHE COLLECTION FREDERICH.
