Encounters from a Kayak Nigel Foster, 2012-11-20 What makes travel special Perhaps the chill realization that a polar bear's eyes are fixed on you Maybe it is the chance meeting with a man who buries sharks in a beach only to dig them up months later not out of morbid curiosity but for food Perhaps it is the undulating wing beat of a dark shell less gastropod in the canal of a 17th Century French sea port or the criminal history of a rusting ship with a tree growing from its hold Encounters in a Kayak brings the reader along on the magical experiences that surround sea kayaking It's about the animals people and special places around the globe that have grabbed the attention of renowned kayaker and writer Nigel Foster His irrepressible curiosity drives him to tease out the unexpected stories hidden behind his subjects These nuggets from around the world are bound together by water and a centuries old form of sea travel kayak The result is a book of broad appeal for those interested in kayaking traveling and adventure

Kayak Across France Nigel Foster, 2021-09 Sea to sea kayaking adventures on the French canals and rivers by tandem kayak For a little contrast and so you can laugh a little at others' misfortunes Foster has included stories from his 1978 journey across France from the English Channel to the Mediterranean This crazy spur of the moment escapade in late winter inspired the second The main story is about crossing France in balmy late summer through wine country from the oyster farms of the Mediterranean to the oyster markets of the Atlantic Ocean Imagine floating shaded from the September sunshine by an avenue of plane trees that arch overhead Reflections of breeze tickled leaves and pale dappled bark flicker on the water Here is a waterside caf for coffee and croissants Nearby an open market for fresh produce Located enticingly close beside the canal vineyards and wineries and chateaux offering wine tasting Cafes and restaurants serve local cassoulets and flans French cheeses and fresh baked baguettes are just a stroll away As the evening light mellows there is time to find a cozy camping spot right beside the water before the sun sets glowing between the trees The warm creamy sandstone of the canal architecture glows Soon owls call from the trees beneath a fat moon The Canal du Midi built in the 1660s follows an ancient overland route later paved by the Romans as the Via Domitia and Via Aquitaine The area oozes history from Phoenician to Roman from the Medieval crusade against the Cathars to the punitive chevauchées of the English Black Prince There are cities too the medieval fortified town of Carcassonne the rose city of Toulouse and the pearl of Aquitaine Bordeaux Join Nigel Foster and Kristin Nelson as they climb lock by lock from the Mediterranean to the parting of the waters and descend to the Atlantic in an adventure both charming and insightful
