Nigel Of Canterbury:

The Passion of St. Lawrence, Epigrams and Marginal Poems Jan M. Ziolkowski, 2021-12-06 Nigel of Canterbury often referred to as Nigel Wireker or Nigel de Longchamps was a monk of Christ Church Canterbury during the troubled decades after the martyrdom of Thomas Becket Nigel is widely known for his Speculum Stultorum an amusing satiric poem nearly four thousand lines in length and for a caustic treatise that has been given the title Tractatus contra Curiales et Officiales Clericos Although his seventeen Miracula Sancte Dei genitricis uirginis Marie uersificae have been edited recently not all his other works have fared well The Passion of St Lawrence Epigrams and Marginal Poems brings into print for the first time Nigel's remaining poems From British Library Cotton Vespasian D xix are edited his account in rhymed hexameters of the passion of Saint Lawrence and thirteen epigrams from Cambridge Trinity College B 15 5 342 are published newly discovered marginal poems that shed light upon his techniques of poetic composition The volume opens with a general introduction on Nigel's writings his life at Canterbury and notable features of his verse Each of the three texts or sets of texts is preceded by a brief introduction and followed by a detailed commentary which glosses difficult words and constructions and which points the reader to literary sources and analogues The volume concludes with indexes of names and of notable words This new edition deepens our perspective upon Nigel of Canterbury and upon intellectual life in Canterbury after the death of Becket

A Commentary on Nigel of Canterbury's Miracles of the Virgin Jan M. Ziolkowski, 2023-01-10 Nigel of Canterbury also known as Longchamp and Whiteacre wrote toward the end of the so called Twelfth Century Renaissance He was a Benedictine monk of Christ Church when Thomas Becket was martyred and a star of Anglo Latin literature while the Angevin kings held sway over a vast empire that encompassed not only the British Isles but also western France The Dumbarton Oaks Medieval Library volume features alongside the Latin the first ever English translation of Nigel's second longest poem Miracles of the Virgin The Miracles is the oldest extant collection of versified miracles of Mary in Latin and indeed in any language The seventeen narratives telling a gamut of tales from diabolic pacts to pregnant abbesses gave scope for Nigel to display skills as a storyteller and stylist while recounting the miraculous mercy of the Virgin This supplement offers an extensive commentary to facilitate appreciation of the Miracles as poetry by a medieval writer deeply imbued in the long tradition of Latin literature

Nigel of Longchamp, Speculum Stultorum Jill Mann, 2023-05-31 An edition and English translation of the Speculum Stultorum The Mirror for Fools a long Latin beast epic written near the end of the twelfth century by a monk of Christ Church Canterbury This was one of the most popular works of the Middle Ages a favourite of Chaucer Gower and Henryson and was copied for over three centuries with a circulation extending as far as eastern Europe It is not only a milestone in the history of medieval beast epic but a rich source of information about contemporary life and events at Canterbury The work is dedicated to William Longchamp who was Richard I's chancellor and the significance of this fact is shown This is a highly entertaining narrative about a donkey who longs to have a longer tail and journeys to

Salerno to buy some imaginary medicines which will provide it When his medicines are destroyed in an accident he decides to become learned instead and goes off to study at the university of Paris for seven years but can still say only heehaw Interwoven into this simple narrative are other stories and long rhetorical set pieces which satirise the distorted values of contemporary religious life or the corruption of the papal curia and describe the qualities of an ideal bishop which the donkey hopes to become

Speculum Stultorum Jill Mann, 2023 An edition and English translation of the Speculum Stultorum The Mirror for Fools a long Latin beast epic written near the end of the twelfth century by a monk of Christ Church Canterbury It is not only a milestone in the history of medieval beast epic but a rich source of information about contemporary life and events at Canterbury

A Benedictine Reader Hugh Feiss, Ronald E. Pepin, Maureen M. O'Brien, 2019-04-15 A Benedictine Reader 530 1530 has been more than twenty years in the making A collaboration of a dozen scholars this project gives as broad and deep a sense of the reality of the first one thousand years of Benedictine monasticism as can be done in one volume using primary sources in English translation The texts included are drawn from many different genres and from several languages and areas of Europe The introduction to each of the thirty two chapters aims to situate each author and text and to make connections with other texts and studies within and outside the Reader The general introduction summarizes the main ideas and practices that are present in the Rule of Saint Benedict and in the first thousand years of Benedictine monasticism while suggesting questions that a reader might bring to the texts

The Reception of Papal Legates in England, 1170-1250 Emil Lauge Christensen, 2025-04 Considers the reception of legatine missions to England during a significant period in the development of Anglo Papal relations Papal legates as the most powerful representatives of the pope wielded significant influence in establishing and upholding papal authority throughout Christendom The adventus the elaborate ceremony of lordship on their arrival provided a reception to mark their status While the ceremony was ostensibly a straightforward display of power communicating the lordship and authority of the papal legate and a tool for establishing negotiating and gauging the relationship between the pope and other European powers it was also susceptible to manipulation and distortion This book investigates how four chroniclers Roger of Howden Gervase of Canterbury Roger of Wendover and Matthew Paris observed and interpreted such legatine adventus ceremonies in England in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries These writers aware of the curia's view that the reception of a papal legate signified acquiescence to papal authority and hegemony offer a range of responses from ridicule to praise Drawing on chronicles customaries decretals and other sources it sheds new light on the intricate interplay between the expectations of both the papacy and the legates and the diverse viewpoints found in the response of English writers

Laughter and Power in the Twelfth Century Peter J. A. Jones, 2019 Towards the end of the twelfth century powerful images of laughing kings and saints began to appear in texts circulating at the English royal court At the same time contemporaries began celebrating the wit humour and laughter of King Henry II r 1154 89 and his martyred Archbishop of Canterbury Saint Thomas Becket d 1170

Taking a broad genealogical approach Laughter and Power in the Twelfth Century traces the emergence of this powerful laughter through an immersive study of medieval intellectual literary social religious and political debates Focusing on a cultural renaissance in England the study situates laughter at the heart of the defining transformations of the second half of the 1100s With an expansive survey of theological and literary texts bringing a range of unedited manuscript material to light in the process Peter J A Jones exposes how twelfth century writers came to connect laughter with spiritual transcendence and justice and how this connection gave humour a unique political and spiritual power in both text and action Ultimately Jones argues that England s popular images of laughing kings and saints effectively reinstated a sublime charismatic authority something truly rebellious at a moment in history when bureaucracy and codification were first coming to dominate European political life

English Episcopal Acta 31, Ely 1109-1197 Nicholas Karn, David Michael Smith, British Academy, 2005-12-15 The 170 acta published in this volume provide one of the best records of the structuring of a new diocese and the establishment of a cathedral chapter The diocese of Ely comprising historic Cambridgeshire was founded in 1109 and its first four bishops oversaw the elaboration of a system of local ecclesiastical government and also the formulation of a settlement between themselves and the Benedictine monks of Ely whose church became the cathedral Two of the bishops also held high secular office William de Longchamp was effective regent of England while King Richard I was on Crusade and the acta issued in connection with these duties shed light on the delegation of royal power

The Cult of St Katherine of Alexandria in Early Medieval Europe Christine Walsh, 2017-05-15 St Katherine of Alexandria was one of the most popular saints in both the Orthodox and Latin Churches in the later Middle Ages yet there has been little study of how her cult developed before c 1200 This book redresses the balance providing a thorough examination of the way the cult spread from the Greek speaking lands of the Eastern Mediterranean and into Western Europe The author uses the full range of source material available including liturgical texts hagiographies chronicles and iconographical evidence bringing together these often disparate sources to map the way in which the cult of St Katherine grew from its early stages in the Byzantine Empire up to c 1100 its transmission to Italy and the introduction and development of the cult in Normandy and England up to c 1200 The book also includes appendices listing early manuscripts containing Katherine s Passio and including key original texts on St Katherine of the period This study will be welcomed by scholars of medieval history and the history of medieval art and as a case study for all those with an interest in the development of medieval saint s cults

Don't Hide From the Night Ellen Herbert,2025-07-07 Unopened birthday cards 18 year old Preston discovers in his grandmother s closet send him across the Atlantic to London in search of a man he never met his grandfather More than anything he needs to know if his grandfather shares his full moon nights when thick coarse hair covers his body when running on all fours feels natural when the animal inside him emerges He and his dad shared this condition How Preston loved their moonlit nights running through the woods but since Dad s death he has been alone and done things he should not such as rescuing his graduate teaching assistant Ms Worth which got him expelled from his university Will he find his grandfather And if he finds him will his grandfather welcome him after all these years

The King's Bishops E. Crosby,2013-09-04 This is the first detailed comparative study of patronage as an instrument of power in the relations between kings and bishops in England and Normandy after the Conquest Esteemed medievalist Everett U Crosby considers new perspectives of medieval state building and the vexed relations between secular and ecclesiastical authority

King Harold II and the Bayeux Tapestry Gale R. Owen-Crocker,2011 Harold II is chiefly remembered today perhaps unfairly for the brevity of his reign and his death at the Battle of Hastings The papers collected here seek to shed new light on the man and his milieu before and after that climax They explore the long career and the dynastic network behind Harold Godwinsson s accession on the death of King Edward the Confessor in January 1066 looking in particular at the important questions as to whether Harold s kingship was opportunist or long planned a usurpation or a legitimate succession in terms of his Anglo Scandinavian kinships They also examine the posthumous legends that Harold survived Hastings and lived on as a religious recluse The essays in the second part of the volume focus on the Bayeux Tapestry bringing out the small details which would have resonated significantly for contemporary audiences both Norman and English to suggest how they judged Harold and the other players in the succession drama of 1066 Other aspects of the Tapestry are also covered the possible patron and locations the Tapestry was produced for where and how it was designed and the various sources artistic and real employed by the artist 1st International Symposium on Biological Control of Arthropods, 2003 Animal Satire Robert McKay, Susan McHugh, 2023-08-22 Animal Satire presents a cultural history of animal satire a critically neglected but persistent presence in the history of cultural production in which animals expose human folly while the strategies of satire expose the folly of human animal relations Highlighting the teeming animal presences across the history of satirical expression from Aristophanes to Twitter with chapters on key works of literature drama film and a plethora of satirical media Animal Satire reveals the rich rhetorical significance of animality in powering the politics of satire from ancient and medieval through modern and contemporary times More pressingly the book makes the case for the significance of satire for understanding the real world implications of rhetoric about animals in ongoing struggles for justice By gathering both critical and creative examples from representative media forms historical periods and continents this volume aims to enrich scholarship on the history of satire as well as empower creative practitioners with ideas about its practical applications today The Galloping Nun Chiara Hatton Hall, 2013 This is the story of Sister Chiara the socialite who became a Franciscan nun Born into the Anglo Irish aristocracy presented at court and married to an army officer Chiara Hatton Hall set up a riding school for the international social elite Her students included the young Princess Royal Princess Anne At the age of 42 after the death of her husband Chiara found her vocation as a religious and exchanged her jodhpurs for a Franciscan habit Embracing a life of poverty chastity and obedience she was later to become an instructing judge on a diocesan marriage tribunal Then at the suggestion of an imaginative superior she took up the reins again this time to work for Riding for the Disabled travelling the world to teach riding instructors how to bring confidence self respect and joy to mentally and physically handicapped adults and children Sister Chiara looks back on a life of dramatic contrasts that were ultimately reconciled by embracing the spirit of St Francis One-act Plays for Stage and Study, 1928 Includes bibliographies The Journal of Medieval Latin, 1997 Anglo-Norman Political Culture and the Twelfth-century Renaissance Charles Warren Hollister, 1997 Papers exploring the impact of change on aspects of the twelfth century Anglo Norman world The twelfth century renaissance though usually seen as a French phenomenon produced fundamental changes in the culture and politics of the wider Anglo Norman world The essays in this volume by leading scholars in this field meeting at La Bretesche Brittany in 1995 explore the impact of this change Covering a variety of topics including the transmission of Norman saints cults vernacular history and aristocratic values and shifting modes of death and dying they have in common the elements of change and transformation occurring throughout society during the course of the Anglo Norman era The late Professor C WARREN HOLLISTER taught at the University of California at Santa Barbara Contributors C WARREN HOLLISTER CASSANDRA POTTS JOHN
