Nightwatch New And Selected Poems 1968 1996:

Nightwatch Dennis Lee, 1996 Dennis Lee is one of Canada's most celebrated poets. This long-awaited Selected shows why. Here are definitive new versions of his classic longer works Civil Elegies, The Death of Harold Ladoo Riffs. Plus a gathering of notable shorter poems such as The Gods and Coming Becomes You. The range is exhilarating from austere meditation to pure yearning rage delight. There is also a gorgeous new sequence Nightwatch. These midlife rants and psalms explore the deep deprivations of our era in music that moves from the playful to the sublime.

Collected Works of George Grant Arthur Davis, Henry Roper Roper, Sheila Grant, 2009-02-28 George Grant 1918-88 has often been called Canada's greatest political philosopher and his work continues to influence the country's political, social and cultural discourse and institutions. The fourth and final volume of the Collected Works of George Grant contains his writings from the last period of his life and includes unpublished material such as lectures, interviews and excerpts from his notebooks. With comprehensive annotations for his articles, reviews and the three books he published during this period: Time as History, English Speaking, Justice and Technology and Justice, the volume also contains his writings on Nietzsche, Heidegger, Simone Weil and C. Lévinas that were central to this phase of his thought. Volume 4 reveals his engagement with technology and the nature of technological society that is as insightful today as during Grant's lifetime and is lasting proof of his legacy. Arthur Davis is Associate Professor in the School of Social Sciences, Atkinson Faculty of Liberal and Professional Studies, York University. During the 1950s he studied undergraduate philosophy with George Grant.

A Matter of Spirit Susan McCaslin, 1998 The suggestion is here that soul making is the true vocation of the poet. Poetry is personal speech on universal experience and in this selection of poems the individual approach to the sacred is emphasized over any adherence to orthodoxy or doctrine. In this anthology spiritual traditions of East and West are filtered through the personal vision of sixteen contemporary Canadian poets. These poets are joined together not by faith and similar belief but in each following their own path to truth. Their poems and stories and editor Susan McCaslin's insightful introduction illuminated fundamental themes of spiritual life that resonated in each of us.

Stranger at the Door Kristjana Gunnars, 2011-04-07 At the beginning of a new writing project, whether it's the first page of a new novel or a less ambitious project, writers often experience exhilaration, fear or dread. For Kristjana Gunnars, the call of a new project is like someone you don't know knocking on your door; you either choose to let the person in or not. It's both exciting and dangerous to start a new manuscript. This book is an engagement with that stranger called writing. Creative or imaginative writing is a complex process that involves more than intellect alone. Writers make use of everything: their sensibilities, history, culture, knowledge, experience, education and even their biology. These essays seek out and gather into a discussion what writers have said about their own experiences in writing. Although the writers are from around the world and of very different backgrounds, the commonality of their remarks brings home the realization that writers everywhere are grappling with similar problems with the seemingly simple problems of when, where, why and what to write, but also larger questions such as the relationship between writer and society or issues of privacy appropriation or homelessness While none of these questions can be definitively answered they can be fruitfully discussed Originating as questions posed in creative writing seminars these essays have grown into companion texts for both writers and readers who want to participate in a conversation about what writers do Great Poets & Playwrights Britannica Educational Publishing, 2014-01-01 As with novelists and short story writers the job of poets and playwrights is to elicit emotion and generate thought The difference is that the latter authors do so while adhering to rules different than those governing standard prose works Where poets create rich verses loaded with subtext playwrights rely largely on dialogue to create poignant scenes that become all the more powerful when performed onstage This captivating collection of biographies profiles some of the greatest writers of poetry and drama from Aeschylus to Diane Ackerman Sophocles to David Mamet International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities

Goode, 1998 Heart Residence Dennis Lee, 2017-04-08 This book is an exhilarating revelation No other poet in Canada has the depth and range of Dennis Lee Jazzman jester and metaphysician hardball political thinker and passionate lover he has been publishing poems for fifty years working across the spectrum from nursery rhymes and skipping songs to uncompromising moral introspection to full tilt love songs plangent psalms and ecstatic solitary prayer This Omnibus represents them all and it will make your head spin There are poets poets and people s poets And then there are those few who are neither and both the few who become over time part of the warp and weft of their culture Heart Residence collects for the first time work from all corners of this extraordinary career from Lee s searing early breakthroughs to his beloved children s verse to his visions of environmental apocalypse A must have collection from one of Canada s literary icons
