A New Nation ,2000 The Nordic Wave in Place Branding Cecilia Cassinger,Andrea Lucarelli,Szilvia Gyimóthy,2019 The widespread international interest in the Nordic region and the mobility of Nordic brand imaginaries call for more research into the global relevance of Nordic place branding practices This book offers a timely attempt to unpack the specificity of the Nordic in regard to place branding by gathering different transdisciplinary accounts written by researchers in marketing tourism geography communication sociology and political science Democracy & Education ,2006 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print ,2000 ,2000 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile,Cort J. Willmott,2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White The Software Encyclopedia 2001 ,2001 The adventure Sébastien Bachelet,2025-07-08 This ethnographic exploration of irregular migration from Western and Central Africa in Morocco deconstructs dehumanising narratives of a migration crisis and a sub Saharan problem in politics of migration The book provides an original focus on how migrants understood and experienced their entrapped mobility The emic notion of the adventure at the heart of this study sheds light on a transformative epic quest to carve out a better life and future The book traces how young men from Western and Central Africa sought to assert themselves as agents of their own destinies despite uncertain illegalising processes In steering away from aesthetics of despair and fearmongering narratives the book brings new insights into inter disciplinary debates e g illegality uncertainty immobility violence suffering transit etc Such focus is essential to draw out the complexity and existential depth of irregular migrants lives journeys and stories A Survey of Reclamation: how the Great Government Adventure in Irrigation of the Arid West Came Into Being and what it Has Accomplished ,1923 Handbook on the History and Culture of the Black Sea Region Ninja Bumann,Kerstin S. Jobst,Stefan Rohdewald,Stefan Troebst,2024-12-30 Following the annexation of Crimea by the Russian Federation in spring 2014 160 years after the Crimean War and the full scale invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 the Black Sea region has again become the focus of world history In this handbook international scholars from various historical and cultural disciplines provide deep historical insights into the structures of conflict cooperation and interrelations between the Balkans the Middle East the

People, Places, and Practices in the Arctic Cunera Buijs, Kim van Dam, Frédéric Laugrand, 2022-11-30 This collection follows anthropological perspectives on peoples Canadian Inuit Norwegian Sami Yupiit from Alaska and Inuit from Greenland places and practices in the Circumpolar North from colonial times to our post modern era This volume brings together fresh perspectives on theoretical concepts colonial imperial descriptions collaborative work of non Indigenous and Indigenous researchers as well as articles written by representatives of Indigenous cultures from an inside perspective The scope of the book ranges from contributions based on unpublished primary sources missionary journals and fairly unknown early Indigenous sources and publications to those based on more recent Indigenous testimonies and anthropological fieldwork museum exhibitions and self representations in the fields of fashion marketing and the arts The aim of this volume is to explore the making of representations for and or by Circumpolar North peoples The authors follow what representations have been created in the past and in some cases continue to be created in the present and the Indigenous employment of representations that has continuity with the past and also goes beyond traditional utilization By studying these representations we gain a better understanding of the dynamics of a society and its interaction with other cultures notably in the context of the dominant culture s efforts to assimilate Indigenous people and erase their story People s ideas about themselves and of the Other are never static not even if they share the same cultural background This is even more the case in the contact zone of the intercultural arena Images of the Other vary according to time and place and perceptions of others are continuously readjusted from both sides in intercultural encounters This volume has been prepared by the Research Group Circumpolar Cultures RGCC which is based in the Netherlands Its members conduct research on social and cultural change focusing on topics that are of interest to the Indigenous peoples of the Arctic The RGCC builds on a long tradition in Arctic studies in the Netherlands Nico Tinbergen Geert van den Steenhoven Gerti Nooter and Jarich Oosten and can rely on rich Arctic collections of artefacts and photographs in anthropological museums and extensive library collections The expertise of the RGCC in Arctic studies is internationally acknowledged by academics as well as circumpolar peoples

Environmental Impact Assessment A. G. Colombo,1992 This study of environmentla impact assessment includes four Sections Section 1 discusses the current state of implementation of the directives on environmental impact assessment and environmental hazards It also includes a paper on the Dutch integral environmental zoning project Section 2 deals with EIA approaches and techniques First the phases of an EIA study and the risk analysis methods are described Then Danish experiences in EIA environmental planning in the Ruhr area and pollution abatement in oil refineries and inorganic chemical industries are illustrated Finally a decision support system for EIA is presented

Project Management in Extreme Situations Monique Aubry,Pascal Lievre,2016-12-12 The growing complexity of projects today as well as the uncertainty inherent in innovative projects is making obsolete traditional project management practices and procedures which are based on the notion that much about a project is known at its start The current high level of change and complexity confronting organizational leaders and managers requires a new approach to projects so they can be managed flexibly to embrace and exploit change What once used to be considered extreme uncertainty is now the norm and managing planned projects is being replaced by managing projects as they evolve Successfully managing projects in extreme situations such as polar and military expeditions shows how to manage successfully projects in today s turbulent environment Executed under the harshest and most unpredictable conditions these projects are great sources for learning about how to manage unexpected and unforeseen situations as they occur This book presents multiple case studies of managing extreme events as they happened during polar mountain climbing military and rescue expeditions A boat accident in the Arctic is a lesson on how an effective project manager must be ambidextrous on one hand able to follow plans and on the other hand able to abandon those plans when disaster strikes and improvise new ones in response Polar expeditions also illustrate how a team can use weak links to go beyond its usual information network to acquire strategic information Fire and rescues operations illustrate how one team member's knowledge can be transferred to the entire team Military operations provide case material on how teams coordinate and make use of both individual and collective competencies This groundbreaking work pushes the definitions of a project and project management to reveal new insight that benefits researchers academics and the practitioners managing projects in today's challenging and uncertain times
