Reinventing Education Entrepreneurship In Today's Public Schools:

Reinventing Education Louis V. Gerstner, 1995 The Next Century Schools program was launched by the RJR Nabisco Foundation to fund bold ideas for fundamental change in public education This is the landmark book about that program and the schools that have participated Now is the time for action and this book is about one thing only solutions Educational Entrepreneurship Today Frederick M. Hess, Michael Q. McShane, 2021-03-04 In Educational Entrepreneurship Today Frederick M Hess and Michael Q McShane assemble a diverse lineup of high profile contributors to examine the contexts in which new initiatives in education are taking shape They inquire into the impact of entrepreneurship on the larger field including the development and deployment of new technologies and analyze the incentives barriers opportunities and tensions that support or constrain innovation Over the past decade entrepreneurship has moved from the periphery to the center of education reform Policy measures philanthropic support and venture capital increasingly promote initiatives that drive innovation within and outside the traditional education sector These initiatives have included spectacular successes like Khan Academy Teach For America and Wireless Generation as well as highly visible failures like the InBloom data warehouse Educational Entrepreneurship Today offers critical perspectives on the impact of entrepreneurship and also includes lessons from leading entrepreneurs in which they use case studies drawn from their own experience to illustrate the realities of leading disruptive change in education and pose guiding questions for the next generation of innovators In a time of increasing polarization around education policy this timely frank and insightful volume shows how we can begin to create systems in which entrepreneurial ideas and fresh thinking are welcomed constructively employed and held accountable for the public good Tested Linda Perlstein, 2025-03-14 The pressure is on at schools across America In recent years reforms such as No Child Left Behind have created a new vision of education that emphasizes provable results uniformity and greater attention for floundering students Schools are expected to behave more like businesses and judged almost solely on the bottom line test scores To see if this world is producing better students Linda Perlstein immersed herself in a suburban Maryland elementary school The resulting portrait detailed human and truly thought provoking is marked by the same narrative gifts and expertise that made Not Much Just Chillin so illuminating The school once deemed a failure is now held up as an example of reform done right Perlstein explores the rewards and costs of that transformation through the experiences of the people who lived it Nine year olds meditate to activate their brains before exams and kindergartners write paragraphs Teachers attempt to address diverse needs at the same time they are expected to follow daily scripts and feel compelled to focus on topics that will be tested at the expense of those that won't The principal attempts to keep it all together in the face of immense challenges Perlstein provides the first detailed view of how new education policies are modified by human realities Tested will be talked about thought about written about and will almost certainly play an important role in the national debate as the federal education law comes up for renewal Educational Entrepreneurship Frederick M.

Hess,2006-08-01 This lively and provocative book introduces this burgeoning field for readers concerned with K 12 education in the United States and with efforts to reform and improve it Entrepreneurship has emerged in recent years as an unprecedented and influential force in U S K 12 education Yet the topic has received surprisingly little serious or systematic attention Educational Entrepreneurship aims to fill this gap This timely volume addresses a number of central questions What is educational entrepreneurship and what does it look like Who are the educational entrepreneurs and what motivates them What tools do entrepreneurs need to be successful What policies or practices enable or impede entrepreneurship What would it mean to open up the education sector to more entrepreneurial activity An interesting and admirable range of contributors offers clusters of articles on the nature of educational entrepreneurship the political policy and legal contexts that face educational entrepreneurs various models of entrepreneurial activity the role of for profit organizations in K 12 education and possible future directions for educational entrepreneurs The Comprehensive High School Today Floyd M. Hammack,2004 Hammack has gathered a distinguished group to assess current reform efforts in their sociological and historical context taking into account the vision of James B Conant the major proponent of the comprehensive high schools Contributors are Mary Erina Driscoll Joseph P McDonald Jeannie Oakes John L Rury Roger Shouse Amy Stuart Wells The Rules of School Reform Max Angus,2005-10-20 Why are legislators often left wondering why after new acts and regulations have been implemented the educational practice remains the same This text provides perspectives on the way in which regulation can enable or obstruct reform within the Building Knowledge for a Nation of Learners Sharon P. Robinson,1996 This is the first biennial report which establishes national priorities for education research Contents what do we need to know research for a changing world an agenda for the nation establishing priorities for education research early childhood learning student learning effective teaching strengthening schools student diversity learning beyond the classroom and adult competence putting the priorities to work and powerful questions Notes Sources for sidebars and data boxes Extensive bibliography The Fantasy Economy Neil Kraus,2023-10-06 This book offers a new perspective on wage stagnation growing inequality and the current education reform agenda The author argues that education must be understood as a necessary public service providing critical benefits many of which are not strictly economic yet are essential for democratic society Balancing Local Control and State Responsibility for K-12 Education Neil D. Theobald,Betty Malen,2013-10-18 This book examines the impact of state activism on local school autonomy in terms of both financial resources and policy initiatives Creating the Future School Hedley Beare,2013-05-13 This fascinating book is based on the changes to schooling that a five year old Angelica will see in her lifetime It is divided into two parts the first describes how schools are viewed by society the second considers practical responses that schools can make to keep up with change Creating the Future School predicts that the career of teaching will change and the work of the professional educator will differ significantly from what has been the traditional teaching role in schools of the twentieth century The book addresses principals senior members of school staff teachers governors and policy makers and aims to open up the reader's awareness to the profound shift in society and how society views its schools

Becoming a Critical Educator Patricia H. Hinchey, 2004 Many American educators are all too familiar with disengaged students disenfranchised teachers sanitized and irrelevant curricula inadequate support for the neediest schools and students and the tyranny of standardizing testing This text invites teachers and would be teachers unhappy with such conditions to consider becoming critical educators professionals dedicated to creating schools that genuinely provide equal opportunity for all children Assuming little or no background in critical theory chapters address several essential questions to help readers develop the understanding and resolve necessary to become change agents Why do critical theorists say that education is always political How do traditional and critical agendas for schools differ Which agenda benefits whose children What classroom and policy changes does critical practice require What risks must change agents accept Resources point readers toward opportunities to deepen their understanding beyond the limits of these pages

International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, Judith Chapman, P. Corson, P. Hallinger, Ann Hart, 2012-12-06 EDITORS This introduction to the International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration describes some of the motivation for developing the book and several assumptions on which is based much of the work represented in its 31 chapters A synopsis of the contents of those chapters is also provided SOME KEY ASSUMPTIONS It is sometimes suggested that the search for an adequate understanding of leadership is doomed to fail After all there is little evidence of agreement about the concept in spite of prodigious efforts dating back hundreds if not thousands of years Such a view is captured for example in Bennis' observation that Of all the hazy and confounding areas in social psychology leadership theory undoubtedly contends for top nomination Probably more has been written and less is known about leadership than any other topic in the behavioural sciences 1959 page 259 We do not find this state of affairs discouraging nor entirely accurate and of course it did not prevent Bennis from proceeding either One reason for our desire to continue in the face of such discouraging words is that a great deal of leadership research aspires to develop a general theory a theory which applies to all or most domains of organized human activity This aspiration inevitably produces decontextualized and therefore abstract categories of practice Howard Gardner's 1995 depiction of leadership as story telling is a case in point The

Primary School in Changing Times Tony Townsend, 2002-09-11 Following substantial changes throughout the Australian education system primary schools are no longer in the protected position of having a regulated flow of clients a pre determined curriculum and marginal levels of staff development Recent moves have brought new or increased responsibilities for all schools in areas such as curriculum and policy development staff development monitoring and assessment the use of new technologies resource allocation This book seeks to review the impact of this change on Australian primary schools on the people who are involved with them and the issues they face Primary education is being re structured throughout the world and therefore these issues are of great interest and relevance to educators worldwide Knowledge and Power in the Global Economy David Gabbard, 2017-07-05 Advancing a three fold political agenda this volume illuminates how the meanings assigned to a whole vocabulary of words and phrases frequently used to discuss the role and reform of U S public schools reflect an essentially economic view of the world contends that education or educational reform conducted under an economized worldview will only intensify the effects of the colonial relations of political and economic domination that it breeds at home and abroad and offers a set of alternative concepts and meanings for reformulating the role of U S public schools and for considering the implications of such a reformulation more generally for the underlying premises of all human relationships and activities Toward these ends the authors in Part I critically examine many of the most commonly used terms within the rhetoric of educational reform since the early 1980s and before Part II links today s economized worldview to curricular and instructional issues These essays are especially important for comprehending how the organization of school curriculum privileges those disciplines deemed most central to market expansion math and science and how the political centrality of the economic sphere influences the nature of the knowledge presented in specific content areas Given that language constrains as well as advances human thought the twin tasks of de economizing education and decolonizing society will require a vocabulary that transcends the familiar terminologies addressed in Parts I and II The entries in Part III cultivate the beginnings of such a vocabulary as the authors elucidate innovative concepts which they view as central to the creation of truly alternative educational visions and practices Political Agendas for Education Joel Spring, 2014-03-26 The Fifth Edition of Joel Spring s ongoing documentation and analysis of political agendas for education reflects the major political issues in education since 2008 This edition focuses on the education sections of the 2012 Republican Democratic Green and Libertarian Party platforms Taking a fresh look at the social and political forces educational research and ideologies shaping the educational agendas of these political parties and a comparative approach the book stimulates reflection and discussion New coverage in the Fifth Edition includes The political coup called Race to the Top Common Core State Standards and national testing based on the Standards Explosion of online instruction Debates about teacher evaluations and merit pay Growing for profit education industry New agenda for American Education Constitutional amendment long life and happiness environmental education Political Agendas for Education is essential
