Entrepreneurialism In Universities And The Knowledge Economy: Diversification And Organizational Change In European Higher Education

Shattock, Michael, 2008-12-01 This book which is the product of a major EU funded research programme and is based on twenty seven institutional case studies attempts to offer answers to these questions through a series of cross national thematic studies      Academic Governance in the Contemporary University Julie Rowlands, 2016-10-12 This book addresses three central questions in contemporary university governance 1 How and why has academic governance in Anglophone nations changed in recent years and what impact have these changes had on current practices 2 How do power relations within universities affect decisions about teaching and research and what are the implications for academic voices 3 How can those involved in university governance and management improve academic governance processes and outcomes and why is it important that they do so The book explores these issues in clear concise and accessible language that will appeal to higher education researchers and governance practitioners alike It draws on extensive empirical data from key national systems in the Anglophone world but goes beyond the simply descriptive to analyse and explain      The Enterprise University Simon Marginson, Mark Considine, 2000-10 Throughout the industrialised world universities have undergone remarkable changes since the mid 1980s In Australia interest has been intense and publication of The Enterprise University was very timely First published in 2001 it was the first systematic study of the Australian system since the momentous Dawkins reforms ten years earlier The book is grounded in case studies of most of the major Australian universities the authors interviewed a large number of senior managers They also have taken account of global trends and have prepared the book in the light of international research on the university as an institution The authors contend that the modern university can be understood as an enterprise university characterised by corporate style executive leadership In a hard hitting conclusion they propose novel policies and directions for Australia's higher education system      Building Organizational Capacity and Strategic Management in Academia Kayyali, Mustafa, 2024-11-01 As higher education institutions face challenges like technological advancements student demographics and funding constraints effective strategic management is essential This involves enhancing institutional capabilities through improved governance resource allocation and stakeholder engagement while fostering a culture of innovation and collaboration By prioritizing strategic planning and capacity building academic institutions can remain relevant and responsive to the needs of students faculty and the broader community Further research empowers universities to achieve sustainable growth and fulfill their educational and social objectives Building Organizational Capacity and Strategic Management in Academia explores the crucial role of leadership and strategic management in boosting the capacity and effectiveness of higher education institutions It examines the complex dynamics of organizational change innovation and sustainable growth within the setting of academia This book covers topics such as brand management information technology and strategic planning and is a useful resource for business owners academicians educators managers computer engineers scientists and researchers      EBOOK: Entrepreneurialism in Universities and the Knowledge Economy: Diversification and Organizational Change in European Higher Education Michael

Shattock,2008-12-16 How entrepreneurial are European universities Perhaps more than is generally realised What are the factors that encourage entrepreneurialism to flourish in research technology transfer teaching regional engagement and internationalization How do different kinds of HEIs comprehensive specialist regional or private address these issues What are the conditions which stimulate or inhibit the academic intrapreneur And in what forms does entrepreneurialism contribute to the knowledge economy This book which is the product of a major EU funded research programme and is based on twenty seven institutional case studies attempts to offer answers to these questions through a series of cross national thematic studies It considers how national systemic characteristics in financial arrangements human resource management and institutional governance impact on entrepreneurialism and suggests ways in which individual initiative can be released and universities freed up to make their contribution to the EU Lisbon Strategy Higher Education Management and Policy

,2007 Business Practices in Higher Education Mark A. Kretovics,2011-02-15 Business Practices in Higher Education is a breakthrough guide offering higher education and student affairs professionals an understanding of the fundamental business nature of colleges and universities The author discusses the practical applications of business concepts and models and how these applications can contribute to the overall efficiency and effectiveness of higher education institutions Useful examples from a wide range of institutions including small privates large publics and community colleges illustrate these concepts This professional guide is organized into the following four sections Environment and Structure Finance and Funding People and Processes Perspectives on the Future Business practices pervade the academic student affairs and administrative sides of higher education This book affords readers a greater understanding of the true nature of higher education and an appreciation for how the academy effectively incorporates business practices into everyday work lives

First Among Equals James Martin,James E. Samels,1997-10-31 Each chapter of First among Equals explores a different aspect of the chief academic officer's primary responsibilities including relations with the president and the board academic governance curriculum development new instructional technologies financial planning enrollment management legal affairs and faculty development Handbook of Research in Education Finance and Policy Helen F. Ladd,Edward B.

Fiske,2012-08-21 Sponsored by the Association for Education Finance and Policy AEFPP this groundbreaking new handbook assembles in one place the existing research based knowledge in education finance and policy thereby helping to define this evolving field of research and practice It provides a readily available resource for anyone seriously involved in education finance and policy in the United States and around the world The Handbook traces the evolution of the field from its initial focus on school inputs and the revenue sources used to finance these inputs to a focus on educational outcomes and the larger policies used to achieve them It shows how the current decision making context in school finance inevitably interacts with those of governance accountability equity privatization and other areas of education policy Because a full understanding of the important contemporary issues requires input from a variety of perspectives the Handbook draws on contributors from a variety of disciplines While many of the chapters cover complex state of the art empirical research the authors explain key concepts in language that non specialists can understand

Life After Dawkins Stuart Macintyre,Gwilym Croucher,André Brett,2016-04-18 The reconstruction of higher education in Australia through the creation of the Unified National System of Higher Education at the end of the 1980s by John Dawkins is commonly seen as a watershed It brought new ways of funding directing and organising universities expanding their size reorienting their activities and setting in train a far reaching transformation of the academic enterprise This volume traces its impact on the balance between the University of Melbourne s academic mission and external expectations and how it adjusted to neutralise the impact of the change and restore the balance At Melbourne the Dawkins revolution changed little in the way it understood itself and conducted its affairs but changed everything

The Nonprofit Sector Walter W Powell,Patricia Bromley,2023-05-25 Timely unique and definitive not only chronicles the history of the nonprofit sector but also provides a broad but critical analysis of its current state Vartan Gregorian President Carnegie Corporation of New York The nonprofit sector has changed in fundamental ways in recent decades As the sector has grown in scope and size both domestically and internationally the boundaries between for profit governmental and charitable organizations have become intertwined Nonprofits are increasingly challenged on their roles in mitigating or exacerbating inequality And debates flare over the role of voluntary organizations in democratic and autocratic societies alike The Nonprofit Sector takes up these concerns and offers a cutting edge empirical and theoretical assessment of the state of the field This book now in its third edition brings together leading researchers economists historians philosophers political scientists and sociologists along with scholars from communication education law management and policy schools to investigate the impact of associational life Chapters consider the history of the nonprofit sector and of philanthropy the politics of the public sphere governance mission and engagement access and inclusion and global perspectives on nonprofit organizations Across this comprehensive range of topics The Nonprofit Sector makes an essential contribution to the study of civil society Praise for previous editions Takes a decidedly multidisciplinary approach invaluable Journal of Policy Analysis and Management A major contribution to the field Social Forces

Education, Training and the Future of Work I John Ahier,Geoff Esland,2013-10-18 A central claim of this volume is that public policy in education and training can only be properly understood if it is seen in relation to prevailing economic and employment conditions It has become increasingly apparent that the neo liberal economic policies pursued by Western governments during the 1980s and 1990s have led to a growing world wide work crisis Unemployment levels particularly in Europe remain persistently high and for those in employment job insecurity and long working hours have become the norm The response of UK governments has been to promote flexibility in employment practices while proclaiming the importance of improving skill levels through education and training This volume challenges the adequacy of such an approach and asks whether reliance on education and training reforms without additional political intervention in economic processes is capable of reversing current trends

Issues covered in this reader include the impact of globalization on employment trends neo liberal and neo Keynesian approaches to employment policy political reforms in education and training institutions the impact of flexibilization on private life and the family The two volumes in this series are readers for the Open University course Education Training and the Future of Work E837 a module of the MA in Education The companion volume is Education Training and the Future of Work II Developments in Vocational Education and Training John Ahier is Lecturer in Education at the Open University Geoff Esland is Director of the Centre for Sociology and Social Research at the Open University and Course team Chair of E837
