Language Maintenance and Development Andrea C. Schalley, Susana A. Eisenclas, 2020-06-22 Even a cursory look at conference programs and proceedings reveals a burgeoning interest in the field of social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development To date however research on this topic has been published in piecemeal fashion subsumed under the more general umbrella of bilingualism Within bilingualism research there has been an extensive exploration of linguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives on the one hand and educational practices and outcomes on the other In comparison social and affective factors which lead people to either maintain or shift the language have been under researched This is the first volume that brings together the different strands in research on social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development ranging from the micro level family language policies and practices to the meso level community initiatives and the macro level mainstream educational policies and their implementation The volume showcases a wide distribution across contexts and populations explored Contributors from around the world represent different research paradigms and perspectives providing a rounded overview of the state of the art in this flourishing field

Innovative Strategies for Heritage Language Teaching Marta Fairclough, Sara M. Beaudrie, 2016-11-01 Heritage language HL learning and teaching presents particularly difficult challenges Melding cutting edge research with innovations in teaching practice the contributors in this volume provide practical knowledge and tools that introduce new solutions informed by linguistic sociolinguistic and educational research on heritage learners Scholars address new perspectives and orientations on designing HL programs assessing progress and proficiency transferring research knowledge into classroom practice and the essential question of how to define a heritage learner Articles offer analysis and answers on multiple languages and the result is a unique and essential text the only comprehensive guide for heritage language learning based on the latest theory and research with suggestions for the classroom      The Reality of Change ,2000      Video Source and Diversity L. Philip Barnes,2014-02-05 In this thoughtful and provocative book Philip Barnes challenges religious educators to re think their field and proposes a new post liberal model of religious education to help them do so His model both confronts prejudice and intolerance and also allows the voices of different religions to be heard and critically explored While Education Religion and Diversity is directed to a British audience the issues it raises and the alternative it proposes are important for those educators in the United States who believe that the public schools have an important role in teaching students about religion Walter Feinberg Professor Emeritus of Education Policy Organization and Leadership at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign Philip Barnes offers a penetrating and lucid analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of modern religious education in Britain He considers a range of epistemological and methodological issues and identifies two contrasting models of religious education that have been influential what he calls a liberal and a postmodern model After a detailed review and criticism of both he outlines his own new post liberal model of religious education one that is compatible with both confessional and non confessional forms of religious education yet takes religious diversity and religious truth claims seriously Essential reading for all religious educators and those concerned with the role of religion in schools Bernd Schr der Professor of Practical Theology and Religious Education University of G ttingen What place if any does religious education have in the schools of an increasingly diverse society This lucid and authoritative book makes an incisive contribution to this crucial debate Roger Trigg is Emeritus Professor of Philosophy University of Warwick and Senior Research Fellow Ian Ramsey Centre Oxford The challenge of diversity is central to education in modern liberal democratic states and religious education is often the point where these differences become both most acute and where it is believed of all curriculum subjects resolutions are most likely to be found Education Religion and Diversity identifies and explores the commitments and convictions that have guided post confessional religious education and concludes controversially that the subject as currently theorised and practised is incapable of challenging religious intolerance and of developing respectful relationships between people from different communities and groups within society It is argued that despite the rhetoric of success which religious education is obliged to rehearse in order to perpetuate its status in the curriculum and to ensure political support a fundamentally new model of religious education is required to meet the challenge of diversity to education and to society A new framework for religious education is developed which offers the potential for the subject to make a genuine contribution to the creation of a responsible respectful society Education Religion and Diversity is a wide ranging provocative exploration of religious education in modern liberal democracies It is essential reading for those concerned with the role of religion in education and for religious and theological educators who want to think critically about the aims and character of religious education
