Anabaptist/Mennonite Faith and Economics Calvin Wall Redekop, Victor A. Krahn, Samuel J. Steiner, 1994 The continuing conflict between the Anabaptist Mennonite community and the expanding industrial culture of the modern world has not been investigated This book addresses the issues which fuel that conflict focusing on the implications of subordinating an economic system to the theological framework of a Christian society Contributors Gregory Baum Lawrence J Burkholder Leo Driedger Kevin Enns Rempel Norm Ewert Jim Halteman Leland Harder Al Hecht Jim Lichti Jacob A Leowen John Peters Cal Redekop Walter Regehr T D Regehr Jean Seguy Robert Siemens Arnold Snyder Willis Sommer Mary Sprunger and Laura Weaver Co published with the Institute of Anabaptist and Mennonite Studies

Doing Faithjustice Kammer, Fred, SJ, 2023 The author defines faithjustice as a passionate virtue which disposes citizens to become involved in the greater and lesser societies around themselves in order to create communities where human dignity is protected and enhanced the gifts of creation are shared for the common good and the poor are treated with respect and a special love He says it is in the end a habit of the believing heart Against the backdrop of the author s explicit experiences as a southerner lawyer priest and Jesuit this book expounds on the meaning of faithjustice starting with the biblical grounding It then traverses the full breadth of historical developments in the Catholic Christian community for more than 200 years and elucidates the meaning of faithjustice in our contemporary context Underlining all this is the author s conviction that only people who are living out faithjustice commitments can promote the truth about the necessity of solidarity and counter the pernicious mistrust that creates division in society This updated edition includes new materials on creation and the jubilee tradition and on the parables of Jesus the writings of Popes Benedict XVI and Francis and other social teaching documents from the past twenty years and updated economic racial and social data and analysis in light of the justice tradition

Religion in Global Civil Society Mark Juergensmeyer, 2005-11-03 The worlds religions are becoming increasingly globalized One can no longer equate particular faiths with corresponding geographic locations Islam is as much a south or southeast Asian religion as it is a middle eastern one And Christianity is growing by leaps and bounds in Africa Asia and Latin America while it declines in Europe In addition to these major population shifts small communities of adherents of every religion are scattered across the globe where they mingle with and adapt to local cultures What are we to make of this new religious world The Oxford Handbook of Global Religions offers a comprehensive look at world religious societies in their contemporary global diversity

Comprising 60 essays each by a leading scholar the volume focuses on communities rather than beliefs symbols or rites Communities in the diaspora and at the periphery are covered as well as the central geographic regions of all the major living religious traditions It is organized into six sections the Indic cultural region the Buddhist Confucian the Jewish Christian and Muslim regions and the African cultural region In each section an introductory essay discusses the social development of that religious tradition historically The other essays cover the basic social facts the community's size location organizational and pilgrimage centers authority figures patterns of governance major subgroups and schisms as well as issues regarding boundary maintenance political involvement role in providing cultural identity and encounters with modernity The world's religious communities are more diverse than ever before and there is no other volume that covers the tremendous variety of faith communities discussed in this Handbook This volume will be indispensable to anyone interested in contemporary religion

Champions of the Poor Barend A. DeVries, 1998-03-01 Barend A de Vries a distinguished international economist examines the economic roots of poverty the actions that can be taken to eradicate it and the ethical case for integrating the poor into the mainstream of society De Vries applies Judeo Christian ethics in particular the values of social justice and compassion for the poor to the problem of poverty in both the United States and in developing countries Bringing together the insights of economics and ethicists he considers both the economic feasibility of religious views regarding the eradication of poverty and the ethical aspects of economic programs He analyzes the poverty of women resulting from discrimination the impact of environmental degradation on the poor the allocation of funding to military rather than social programs and the implications of the enormous debts incurred by poor countries In addressing these conditions he demonstrates the pressing need for action on both economic and ethical grounds Champions of the Poor offers an unbiased presentation of the ethical positions taken by Jews Catholics mainline Protestants and Evangelicals and stresses the need for all social sectors religious and secular business labor and government to work together to eradicate poverty By reassessing poverty from these seemingly disparate approaches it seeks to bring us closer to solving this age old problem

A Jubilee Call for Debt Forgiveness, 1999 A West African Model to Address Human Trafficking Paul V.I. Sidlawinde Karenga, 2022-02-02 This book describes the nature of trafficking in persons in West Africa focusing on labor and sexual exploitation in the region and recommends tailor made solutions established by the Catholic Church in light of governmental authorities failure to effectively combat this scourge of humanity While states efforts to fulfill their international obligations in developing anti trafficking legislations are recognized their failure to carry out prosecutions of offenders and ensure protection of the victims reveals that law alone is not a sufficient instrument for realizing human rights and improving people's lives Faced with the sobering background of less than successful efforts by governmental entities to end the trade in humans this research study recommends adopting essential elements of Catholic social teaching which rests on the inherent dignity of human beings allowing the development of political socio cultural and religious reforms that will increase the effectiveness of existing legislation designed to combat trafficking This faith based approach highlights the role that religion may play in fulfilling the discretionary provisions of the Palermo Protocol by promoting the welfare and protecting the life and dignity of the victims Additionally religion is composed of sound moral ethics that determine people s behavior to refrain from the sinful conduct of trafficking It also creates a sense of ethical responsibility that promotes supply chain transparency and ethical purchasing as well as advocating social reforms and anti trafficking legislations initiatives In fact the author s approach may be a model for other regions in the world and will be of interest to scholars law and policy makers human rights advocates and law enforcement agents working in the field of trafficking in persons
