Sibelius early Years maturity:

Jean Sibelius Daniel M. Grimley, 2025-03-15 An illuminating investigation into the interdisciplinary impact of the beloved modern classical composer Few composers have enjoyed such critical acclaim or longevity as Jean Sibelius who died in 1957 aged ninety one Always more than simply a Finnish national figure an apparition from the woods as he ironically described himself Sibelius's life spanned turbulent and tumultuous events and his work is central to the story of late nineteenth and early twentieth century music This book situates Sibelius within a rich interdisciplinary environment paying attention to his relationship with architecture literature politics and the visual arts Drawing on the latest developments in Sibelius research it is intended as an accessible and rewarding introduction for the general reader and it also offers a fresh and provocative interpretation for those more familiar with his music

Sibelius Andrew Barnett, 2007-01-01 Informed by a wealth of information that has come to light in recent years this engaging biography tells the complete story of the life and musical work of Finnish composer Jean Sibelius 1865 1957 Drawing on Sibelius's own correspondence and diaries contemporary reviews and the remarks of family and friends the book presents a rich account of the events of the musician's life In addition this volume is the first to set every work and performable fragment by Sibelius in its historical and musical context Filling a significant gap the biography also provides the first accurate information about much of the composer's early music Writing for the general music lover Andrew Barnett combines his own extensive knowledge of Sibelius's music with the insights of other scholars and musicians He lays to rest a number of myths and untruths that Sibelius wrote no chamber music of value for example and that he stopped composing in 1926 and didn't need to compose to earn a living Barnett completes the volume with the most thorough worklist available and an authoritative chronology of Sibelius's entire output

International Record Review, 2008

Architectures Andrew Ballantyne, 2008-04-15 Architectures Modernism and After surveys the history of the building from the advent of industrialization to the cultural imperatives of the present moment Brings together international art and architectural historians to consider a range of topics that have influenced the shape profile and aesthetics of the built environment Presents crucial moments in the history of the field when the architecture of the past is made to respond to new and changing cultural circumstances Provides a view of architectural history as a part of a continuing dialogue between aesthetic criteria and social and cultural imperatives Part of the New Interventions in Art History Series which is published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians

The Gramophone, 1926

Jean Sibelius Tomi Mäkelä, 2011 Mäkelä's study brings together German Nordic and Anglo American work on Sibelius and synthesizes these various strands of Sibelius reception into a single coherent critical narrative This acclaimed study available in English for the first time looks at the music of Jean Sibelius in its biographical context Myths have surrounded Sibelius 1865 1957 and his work for more than 100 years often diverting attention away from his creative output Drawing on many unpublished sources Mäkelä's study leads us back to Sibelius as a musician and a poet of universal validity Chapters examine the composer's creativity inspiration influence aspects of genre as well as the relationship of the artist with nature and homeland Those who knew Sibelius at an early age tell of a youthful bohemian in the midst of European decadence This age of Carmen Eduard Munch marked Sibelius's formative years The composer's most important works dating from a time between his third symphony and Tapiola reflect the modernistic mainstream Sibelius's last three decades known as the Silence of Ainola have inspired the masculine cliché that this book deconstructs Sibelius was one of the least political artists of his time who nevertheless became heavily politicized The first supreme musical talent in the region he gave his nation a genuine sound Europeans of the late nineteenth century showed increasing affinity with Nordic culture Aino Sibelius's wife was instrumental in creating the image of her husband as a Nordic icon The book closely scrutinizes this popular image In an Anglo American artistic context his mix of regionalism and modernity remained attractive even when these elements went out of fashion in the art movement of continental Europe Ideas of Finland and the North vastly influenced the interpretation of meaning in Sibelius's music a music that until this day remains enigmatic

Gramophone, 2007 Program Music Jonathan Kregor, 2015-01-15 Program music was one of the most flexible and contentious novelties of the long nineteenth century covering a diverse range that included the overtures of Beethoven and Mendelssohn the literary music of Berlioz and Schumann Liszt's symphonic poems the tone poems of Strauss and Sibelius and compositions by groups of composers in Russia Bohemia the United States and France In this accessible Introduction Jonathan Kregor explores program music's ideas and repertoire discussing both well known and less familiar pieces by an array of nineteenth and twentieth century composers Setting program music in the context of the intellectual debates of the period Kregor presents the criticism of writers like A B Marx and Hanslick to reveal program music's growth dissemination and reception This comprehensive overview features numerous illustrations and music examples and provides detailed case studies of battle music Shakespeare settings and Goethe's Faust Musical Semiotics in Growth Eero Tarasti, Paul Forsell, Richard Littlefield, 1996 The international research project on Musical Signification since its founding over ten years ago has sought to win new scholars to musical semiotics To that end the Department of Musicology at Helsinki University has already organized five international doctoral and postdoctoral seminars They have become something of a tradition The anthology consists of papers presented in the three first seminars covering areas from music philosophy and aesthetics to the analysis of vocal and instrumental as well as electro acoustic music interrelationships of arts music history post modernism etc

The Songs of Jean Sibelius Gustav Djupsjöbacka, 2023 A landmark in Sibelius scholarship this is the first book that presents all of Sibelius's solo art songs in their musical and aesthetic context Indispensable for scholars and performers alike This is the first book to discuss the complete solo art songs of Jean Sibelius and to locate them in their musical literary and artistic context The book is organized around the poets Sibelius set to music and the literary themes associated with them thus providing invaluable information for the scholar student and performer The musical and aesthetic contextualisation of the songs will help to enable new interpretations on the performance stage
