Mathematics, Its Content, Methods, and Meaning Matematicheskii institut im. V.A. Steklova, 1964 Complex Analysis in Banach Spaces Jorge Mujica, 2010-03-18 The development of complex analysis is based on issues related to holomorphic continuation and holomorphic approximation This volume presents a unified view of these topics in finite and infinite dimensions A high level tutorial in pure and applied mathematics its prerequisites include a familiarity with the basic properties of holomorphic functions the principles of Banach and Hilbert spaces and the theory of Lebesgue integration The four part treatment begins with an overview of the basic properties of holomorphic mappings and holomorphic domains in Banach spaces The second section explores differentiable mappings differentiable forms and polynomially convex compact sets in which the results are applied to the study of Banach and Fréchet algebras Subsequent sections examine plurisubharmonic functions and pseudoconvex domains in Banach spaces along with Riemann domains and envelopes of holomorphy In addition to its value as a text for advanced graduate students of mathematics this volume also functions as a reference for researchers and professionals Two-Dimensional Calculus Robert Osserman, 2014-01-05 Two dimensional calculus is vital to the mastery of the broader field and this text presents an extensive treatment Advantages include the thorough integration of linear algebra and development of geometric intuition 1986 edition U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Library System Book Catalog Holdings as of July 1973 United States. Environmental Protection Agency. Library Systems Branch, 1974 Encyclopaedia of Mathematics Michiel Hazewinkel, 2012-12-06 This ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF MATHEMATICS aims to be a reference work for all parts of mathematics It is a translation with updates and editorial comments of the Soviet Mathematical Encyclopaedia published by Soviet Encyclopaedia Publishing House in five volumes in 1977 1985 The annotated translation consists of ten volumes including a special index volume There are three kinds of articles in this ENCYCLOPAEDIA First of all there are survey type articles dealing with the various main directions in mathematics where a rather fine subdivision has been used The main requirement for these articles has been that they should give a reasonably complete up to date account of the current state of affairs in these areas and that they should be maximally accessible On the whole these articles should be understandable to mathematics students in their first specialization years to graduates from other mathematical areas and depending on the specific subject to specialists in other domains of science engineers and teachers of mathematics These articles treat their material at a fairly general level and aim to give an idea of the kind of problems techniques and concepts involved in the area in question They also contain background and motivation rather than precise statements of precise theorems with detailed definitions and technical details on how to carry out proofs and constructions Encyclopaedia of Mathematics M. Hazewinkel, 2013-12-01 Ethnomathematics Arthur B. Powell, Marilyn Frankenstein, 1997-01-01 Presents the emerging field of ethnomathematics from a critical perspective challenging particular ways in which Eurocentrism permeates mathematics education and mathematics in general Statistical Inference Robert B. Ash, 2011-01-01 This book offers a brief course in statistical inference that requires only a basic familiarity with probability and matrix and linear algebra. Ninety problems with solutions make it an ideal choice for self study as well as a helpful review of a wide ranging topic with important uses to professionals in business, government, public administration and other fields. 2011 edition Linear Algebra Georgi E. Shilov, 2012-04-26 Covers determinants, linear spaces, systems of linear equations, linear functions of a vector argument, coordinate transformations, the canonical form of the matrix of a linear operator, bilinear and quadratic forms and more Science Information News, 1961 Scientific Information Notes, 1963 Calculus and Statistics Michael C. Gemignani, 2014-06-10 Self contained and suitable for undergraduate students, this text offers a working knowledge of calculus and statistics. It assumes only a familiarity with basic analytic geometry, presenting a coordinated study that develops the interrelationships between calculus, probability and statistics. Starting with the basic concepts of function and probability, the text addresses some specific probabilities and proceeds to surveys of random variables and graphs, the derivative applications of the derivative, sequences and series and integration. Additional topics include the integral and continuous variates, some basic discrete distributions as well as other important distributions, hypothesis testing, functions of several variables and regression and correlation. The text concludes with an appendix, answers to selected exercises, a general index and an index of symbols.

Hydrodynamic and Hydromagnetic Stability S. Chandrasekhar, 2013-04-26 The Nobel Laureate's monumental study surveys hydrodynamic and hydromagnetic stability as a branch of experimental physics, surveying thermal instability of a layer of fluid heated from below, Bénard problem and more Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1969-03 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security. Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists, the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world.

Mathematical Intuitionism: Introduction to Proof Theory Al'berty Grigor'evich Dragalin, 1988-12-31 In the area of mathematical logic, a great deal of attention is now being devoted to the study of nonclassical logics. This book intends to present the most important methods of proof theory in intuitionistic logic and to acquaint the reader with the principal axiomatic theories based on intuitionistic logic Encyclopaedia of Mathematics (set) Michiel Hazewinkel, 1994-02-28 The Encyclopaedia of Mathematics is the most up to date authoritative and comprehensive English language work of reference in mathematics which exists today. With over 7 000 articles from A integral to Zygmund, Class of Functions, supplemented with a wealth of complementary information and an index volume providing thorough cross referencing of entries of related interest, the Encyclopaedia of Mathematics offers an immediate source of reference to mathematical definitions, concepts, explanations, surveys, examples, terminology and methods. The depth and breadth of content and the straightforward, careful presentation of the information with the emphasis on accessibility makes the Encyclopaedia of Mathematics an immensely useful tool for all mathematicians and other scientists who use or are confronted by mathematics.

in their work The Encyclopaedia of Mathematics provides without doubt a reference source of mathematical knowledge which is unsurpassed in value and usefulness It can be highly recommended for use in libraries of universities research institutes colleges and even schools

The History of Mathematics: A Source-Based Approach June Barrow-Green, Jeremy Gray, Robin Wilson, 2021-12-17 The History of Mathematics A Source Based Approach is a comprehensive history of the development of mathematics This the first volume of the two volume set takes readers from the beginning of counting in prehistory to 1600 and the threshold of the discovery of calculus It is notable for the extensive engagement with original primary and secondary source material The coverage is worldwide and embraces developments including education in Egypt Mesopotamia Greece China India the Islamic world and Europe The emphasis on astronomy and its historical relationship to mathematics is new and the presentation of every topic is informed by the most recent scholarship in the field The two volume set was designed as a textbook for the authors acclaimed year long course at the Open University It is in addition to being an innovative and insightful textbook an invaluable resource for students and scholars of the history of mathematics The authors each among the most distinguished mathematical historians in the world have produced over fifty books and earned scholarly and expository prizes from the major mathematical societies of the English speaking world

Soviet Mathematics - Doklady, 1964 Ordinary Differential Equations Morris Tenenbaum, Harry Pollard, 1985-10-01 Skillfully organized introductory text examines origin of differential equations then defines basic terms and outlines the general solution of a differential equation Subsequent sections deal with integrating factors dilution and accretion problems linearization of first order systems Laplace Transforms Newton s Interpolation Formulas more

Theory of Linear Operators in Hilbert Space N. I. Akhiezer, I. M. Glazman, 2013-04-15 This classic textbook by two mathematicians from the USSR s prestigious Kharkov Mathematics Institute introduces linear operators in Hilbert space and presents in detail the geometry of Hilbert space and the spectral theory of unitary and self adjoint operators It is directed to students at graduate and advanced undergraduate levels but because of the exceptional clarity of its theoretical presentation and the inclusion of results obtained by Soviet mathematicians it should prove invaluable for every mathematician and physicist 1961 1963 edition
