A Woman's View Jeanine Basinger, 2013-09-04 Now Voyager Stella Dallas Leaver Her to Heaven Imitation of Life Mildred Pierce Gilda these are only a few of the hundreds of women s films that poured out of Hollywood during the thirties forties and fifties The films were widely disparate in subject sentiment and technique they nonetheless shared one dual purpose to provide the audience of women primarily with temporary liberation into a screen dream of romance sexuality luxury suffering or even wickedness and then send it home reminded of reassured by and resigned to the fact that no matter what else she might do a woman s most important job was to be a woman Now with boundless knowledge and infectious enthusiasm Jeanine Basinger illuminates the various surprising and subversive ways in which women s films delivered their message Basinger examines dozens of films exploring the seemingly intractable contradictions at the convoluted heart of the woman s genre among them the dilemma of the strong and glamorous woman who cedes her power when she feels it threatening her personal happiness and the self abnegating woman whose selflessness is not always as noble as it appears Basinger looks at the stars who played these women and helps us understand the qualities the right off screen personae the right on screen attitudes the right faces that made them personify the woman s film and equipped them to make believable drama or comedy out of the crackpot plots the conflicting ideas and the exaggerations of real behavior that characterize these movies In each of the films the author discusses whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic a woman occupies the center of her particular universe Her story in its endless variations of rags to riches boy meets girl battle of the sexes mother love doomed romance inevitably sends a highly potent mixed message Yes you women belong in your proper place that is content with the Big Three of the woman s film world men marriage and motherhood but meanwhile and paradoxically see what fun glamour and power you can enjoy along the way A Woman s View deepens our understanding of the times and

 Between 1929 and 1934 women in American cinema were modern For five short years women in American cinema were modern They took lovers had babies out of wedlock got rid of cheating husbands enjoyed their sexuality led unapologetic careers and in general acted the way many think women only acted after 1968 Before then women on screen had come in two varieties good or bad sweet ingenue or vamp Then two stars came along to blast away these common stereotypes Garbo turned the femme fatale into a woman whose capacity for love and sacrifice made all other human emotions seem pale Meanwhile Norma Shearer succeeded in taking the ingenue to a place she'd never been the bedroom Garbo and Shearer took the stereotypes and made them complicated In the wake of these complicated women came others a deluge of indelible stars Constance Bennett Ruth Chatterton Mae Clarke Claudette Colbert Marlene Dietrich Kay Francis Ann Harding Jean Harlow Miriam Hopkins Dorothy Mackaill Barbara Stanwyck Mae West and Loretta Young all came into their own during the pre Code era These women pushed the limits and shaped their images along modern lines Then in July 1934 the draconian Production Code became the law in Hollywood and these modern women of the screen were banished not to be seen again until the code was repealed three decades later Mick LaSalle film critic for the San Francisco Chronicle takes readers on a tour of pre Code films and reveals how this was the true golden age of women's films and how the movies of the pre Code are still worth watching The bold pioneering and complicated women of the pre Code era are about to take their place in the pantheon of film history and America is about to reclaim a rich legacy Official Awards Pacific International

 Chastain, 2013-06-10 Beloved author Sandra Chastain ignites a simmering story of two passionate souls who discover what happens when fate deals the cards Katie Carithers walks onto the riverboat casino Scarlet Lady with just one intention win enough money to pay off her brother's debts and save her family's Louisiana plantation A no nonsense accountant by day Katie decides that tonight she'll wear a tiny red dress and be a sexy gambler albeit one with an uncanny head for numbers and odds But when Katie lays eyes on the handsome owner of the Scarlet Lady all bets are off as he quickly threatens to take more than her money with his roguish charm The man everyone simply calls Montana runs his Mississippi River casino like the tightest ship in the navy But the night the brunette in the red dress appears Montana feels his steely control waver He's never been so overwhelmed by a woman not since he lost the courage to love years before When the woman in red wins Montana suspects that she has cheated and just like that one hand of poker ignites a passion play with the highest of stakes two hearts Includes a special message from the editor as well as excerpts from these Loveswept titles Flirting with Disaster
