Night They Say Was Made For Love:

A Heart Made for Love Linda Tillis, 2016-08-24 In rural Florida 1903 Mae Hinton cares for her father and younger brothers trying to fill her deceased mother's shoes Her life is shattered and her faith tested when her innocence is stolen by roving miscreants Left unconscious unable to identify her attackers she pledges to help other victimized women She pursues an education and learns to deal with bigoted ministers well to do hypocrites and men with higher regard for their livestock than their women Edward Finch is nearly done with medical studies in England when he comes home for the holidays Love flourishes and Mae seems close to achieving her dreams of both true love and a haven for victims once she can explain to him why she carries a pistol Then her new found happiness is upset by a murder as one of her attackers returns She may settle this herself or she may find that vengeance truly belongs to God

Oppositional Consciousness Jane J. Mansbridge, Aldon Morris, 2001-09-14 How can human beings be induced to sacrifice their lives even one minute of their lives for the sake of their group This question central to understanding the dynamics of social movements is at the heart of this collection of original essays The book is the first to conceptualize and illustrate the complex patterns of negotiation struggle borrowing and crafting that characterize what the editors term oppositional consciousness an empowering mental state that prepares members of an oppressed group to undermine reform or overthrow a dominant system Each essay employs a recent historical case to demonstrate how oppositional consciousness actually worked in the experience of a subordinate group Based on participant observation and interviews chapters focus on the successful social movements of groups such as African Americans people with disabilities sexually harassed women Chicano workers and AIDS activists Ultimately Oppositional Consciousness sheds new light on the intricate mechanisms that drive the important social movements of our time
