Priroda Filosofii Osnovy Filosofii:

The Soviet Critique of Neopositivism W.F. Boeselager, 2012-12-06 The first of the people to be thanked for their help during the composition of this work is Professor I M Bochenski under whom I had the good fortune to study for an extended period of time Without his help it is doubtful that this work would have been written at all Among the other professors who helped along the way I would like to cite in particular Professors A F Utz M D Philippe and N Luyten of the University of Fribourg Many friends were present at the birth of the ideas contained in this book By naming K G Ballestrem T I Blakeley and M F Gagern I do not want to slight any of the rest It was A Spiekermann in Hollinghofen who saw to it that other preoccupations did not rob me of all the time needed for the study of the subject matter and to the composition of this treatise Of particular help in getting sources from the libraries of the world were Miss Lifschitz of the Institute of East European Studies and Mr Uldry of the Cantonal Library in Fribourg Switzerland Finally my patient typist Mrs Frey in Munster deserves special mention for her beautiful work

The Philosophical Foundations of Soviet Aesthetics

Edward M. Swiderski, 2012-12-06 0 1 GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROBLEMATIC This study is devoted to an examination of a concept of crucial significance for Soviet aesthetics the concept of the aesthetic esthetics Soviet aestheticians have for some time already been trying to design a concept of the aesthetic that would satisfy on the one hand the requirements of aesthetic phenomena and on the other hand the principles of the Marxist Leninist world view The first part of this work shows how the concept of the aesthetic has been and continues to be problematic for Soviet aestheticians This task is carried out by dwelling first of all on the controversies among Soviet aestheticians concerning meta aesthetic issues viz the nature and scope of aesthetics as well as its place among other philosophical and non philosophical disciplines A particularly clear view of the problems that have traditionally pre occupied Soviet aestheticians is provided by an examination of what they standardly call the method of aesthetics where method is understood in the sense of an explanatory framework rather than in the strict logical scientific sense of the term This discussion will provide the occasion to pass in review the main periods of Soviet aesthetics and the characteristic aspects of each The chapter on the sources of contemporary Marxist Leninist aesthetics brings into relief the lack of a homogeneous tradition in the question of the nature of the aesthetic and other related problems

A survey of the intellectual history of Marxism through its several phases and various national adaptations suggests for any of at least three reasons that the attempt to provide a widely acceptable summary of Marxist ethics must be an enterprise with little prospect of success. First a number of prominent Marxists have insisted that Marxism can have no ethics because its status as a science precludes bias toward or the assumption of any particular ethical standpoint. On this view it would be no more reasonable to expect an ethics of Marxism than of any other form of social science. Second basing themselves on the opposite assumption an equally prominent assortment of Marxist intellectuals have lamented the absence of a coherently developed Marxist ethics as a deficiency which must be remedied. Third less commonly Marxism is sometimes alleged to possess no developed ethical theory because it is exclusively committed to advocacy of class egoism on behalf of the proletariat and is thus rooted in a prudential not a moral standpoint. The advocacy of proletarian class egoism or revolutionary morality may strictly speaking constitute an ethical standpoint but it might be regarded as a peculiar waste of time for a convinced and consistent class egoist to develop precise formulations of his ethical views for the sake of convincing an abstract audience of classless and impartial rational observers which does not happen to exist at present.
