Rainy Races:

Racing the Rain John L. Parker, 2016-09-13 From the author of the New York Times bestselling Once a Runner The best novel ever written about running Runner's World comes that novel's prequel the story of a world class athlete coming of age in the 1950s and 60s on Florida's Gold Coast Quenton Cassidy's first foot races are with nature itself the summer storms that sweep through his subtropical neighborhood Shirtless barefoot and brown as a berry Cassidy is a skinny mouthy kid with aspirations to be a great athlete As he explores his primal surroundings along the Loxahatchee River and the nearby Atlantic Ocean he is befriended by Trapper Nelson the Tarzan of the Loxahatchee a well known eccentric who lives off the land In junior high school quite by chance Cassidy discovers an ability to run long distances but his real dream is to be a basketball star Still Cassidy absorbs Nelson's view of running as a way of relating to and interacting with the natural world Though he is warned of Nelson's checkered past Cassidy dismisses the stories as superstitious gossip until his small town is stunned by the disappearance of a prominent judge and his wife Cassidy's loyalty to his friend is severely tested just as his opportunity to make his mark as a gifted runner comes to fruition John Parker's prequel to the New York Times bestseller Once a Runner vividly captures how a runner is formed and the physical endurance determination and mindset he develops on the way to becoming a champion Racing the Rain is an epic coming of age classic about the environments and friendships that shape us all

Uncivilized Races of Men in All Countries of the World Vol 1 of 2 J G Wood embarks on an ambitious ethnographic exploration meticulously documenting various societies deemed uncivilized during the late 19th century Utilizing a descriptive and often vivid literary style Wood weaves narratives that interlace artful observations with scientific inquiry reflecting the Victorian fascination with anthropology and the exotic His accounts draw heavily on travel and exploration literature positioning them within a broader discourse on race and civilization that was prevalent in his time while also complicating the idea of what constitutes civilization itself J G Wood a naturalist and writer was profoundly influenced by the scientific revolutions of his era which inspired him to catalog the diverse cultures he encountered during his travels His background in natural history and a keen interest in human behavior provided him with a unique lens to view the cultural diversity of humanity igniting a passion that transcended mere observation and sought to understand the rationality of seemingly alien customs and practices This seminal work is recommended for scholars and lay readers alike who wish to delve into the complex interplay between culture and civilization Wood s extensive research encourages a reflective understanding of humanity s myriad expressions and offers a compelling critique of contemporary social thought making it an essential text for anyone interested in anthropology history or the ongoing conversations surrounding race and civilization
