Relationships The Art Of Making Life Work:

Zen and the Art of Making a Living Laurence G. Boldt, 1999 Applies Zen philosophies and techniques to uncovering one's talents assessing career skills marketing one's abilities and conducting a job search At the Foot of the Mountain Alla Renee Bozarth, 2000-06-09 TEXT FOR AUTHOR BIO Like philosopher and teacher Joseph Campbell Alla Bozarth explores life's mysteries through the power of myth and metaphor the salmon the great bear the ocean the phoenix the chambered nautilus the iris the lotus Above all is her mountain Mt Hood her Medicine Woman rising outside her window always changing in mood and meaning TEXT FOR BOOK DESCRIPTION This remarkable work proves that a time of devastating change can result in magnificent growth and illumination In these intensely personal and universal ponderings Episcopal priest author poet and therapist Alla Renee Bozarth relates the wrenching decisions that caused her to move from her exile in the Midwest back to Oregon to her place at the foot of the mountain She takes us through her grief at the death of her father and of her young husband then shares her gradual healing through the creative process of writing this book As she finds strengths to minister to herself she ministers to us In introducing us to her special places and symbols her teachers we are moved to discover our own healing metaphors for ourselves You Are Not Your Illness Linda Topf, 1995-05-08 The author who has lived with multiple sclerosis most of her adult life delves deeply into her own experience to reveal the keys to regaining emotional and spiritual wholeness when a serious illness or injury threatens to destroy one's sense of self While serious illness injury or disability can physically alter the course of your life it can also cause great emotional upheaval It is not uncommon to feel anger frustration grief fear and denial as you try to accept a new way of living As you lose your ability to do things you once considered routine you may even feel that you are losing your self worth that your physical condition is threatening your identity Through a step by step process designed to show that real healing has little to do with the state of the physical body Linda Topf offers a compassionate and inspirational message to anyone whose sense of self is threatened by physical limitations The Source for Effective Church Service Planning, 2003 A comprehensive listing of service tested programming material designed to supplement a church's creative process of service planning Second edition 48 Days to the Work You Love Dan Miller, 2007 Guides people working in jobs they hate on how to make successful career decisions by creating a compass from their natural skills and abilities personality traits values dreams and passions directing them to a more fulfilling vocation For the Love of Knitting Kari Cornell, One surviving cotton sock tells us that the Egyptians were knitting as long ago as the first millennium AD Tenderly preserved shawls and sweaters bespeak our great grandmothers handiwork And colorful strands of yarn escaping from a basket in the corner show that the tradition lives on with us That tradition celebrated in the stories and essays in this book knits together a world of warmth and memory wisdom and camaraderie These writings sometimes amusing sometimes moving always entertaining comprise a charming scrapbook reflecting the myriad cultural and historical aspects of knitting Ranging from the days of World War II to our own time they include offerings by Jamaica Kincaid Melanie Falick Elizabeth Zimmermann Meg Swansen Susan Gordon Lydon Pam Allen Lela Nargi Perri Klass Teva Durham and many others Artwork by Solveig Hisdal fiber artists Debbie New and Karen Searle and photographer Chris Hartlove along with historical photographs vintage advertising and pattern booklets brings the color and textures of these stories to vibrant life Whether you ply knitting needles yourself or simply appreciate the art this collection will enfold you in all the softness warmth and beauty of knitting today and yesterday

Her Life's Work Deborah Shepard, 2013-11-01 Spanning the impressive careers of five notable New Zealand women this uncommon examination portrays the lives of Merimeri Penfold Margaret Mahy Anne Salmond Gaylene Preston and Jacqueline Fahey Having each carved out their own distinguished reputations as artists writers teachers filmmakers and thinkers this investigation demonstrates how each of them has balanced a professional life with a personal one In five in depth interviews this record explores their families education the impact intimate relationships have on their creativity and how each juggles life's demands Reflecting on immense changes in society throughout their lifetimes this biographical account illustrates the second half of the 20th century capturing how it directly affected the women's professional and personal lives Touching on major events and challenges this study also depicts the Land March in 1975 the rise of feminism and the genesis of Indigenous rights movements With five stunning new photographic portraits by renowned photographer Marti Friedlander this is a striking example of how those who grappled with sexism glass ceilings and domestic expectation still found the balance to lead fruitful public lives in the arts and academia

The Mentor-Disciple Relationship in the Visual Arts and Beyond Gaetano A. LaRoche, 2024-07-03 This book undertakes a deep examination of mentor and disciple relationships in the development of artists It draws upon a variety of relationships and models including an in person mentor a mentor or apprentice scenario and non physical mentors such as historical figures in order to investigate their history and philosophy This volume specifically addresses the role of mentoring in the lives of contemporary aspiring artists asking if and how mentoring can be considered a form of human nurturance Deep historical inspections and philosophical inquiries are combined with analyses of interviews with contemporary artists ranging from 35 to 101 years old These holistic insights present the subject of mentoring in the arts from the multiple angles of art history and relevant ideas about the benefits of nurturance and acceptance in human development Using artists biographies and discussions of their work this book sheds light on the role that mentoring has played in their development and can play in contemporary education It will appeal to artists art history teachers educators art students and art scholars

The Aesthetics of Dedalus and Bloom Marguerite Harkness, 1984 This study explores James Joyce's struggle to come to terms with the aesthetic outlooks current at the beginning of the century by examining his portrayal of their dangers and attractions in his two most fully realized characters Stephen Dedalus in Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man and Leopold Bloom in Ulysses

May Stevens Patricia Hills, 2005 May Stevens paintings weave themes of familial love and loss societal ills and the healing power of nature and the human community This book surveys the full range of her remarkable lifework from her early social protest paintings to her recent series of luminous large format images of lakes rivers and other bodies of water May Stevens offers an insightful in depth look at Stevens career drawing on her own recollections and rounded out by informed commentary Images and text bring to light Stevens personal history her humanitarian concerns and the social context within which her art evolved

Foundations of Expressive Arts Therapy Ellen G. Levine, Stephen K. Levine, 1998-09-01 This book provides an arts based approach to theories and practices of expressive arts therapy The contributors emphasize the importance of the imagination and aesthetic experience arguing that these are central to psychological well being and challenging views which emphasise the cognitive and emotional dimensions of mental health development The Living Church ,1946 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1841 Precious stones [quotations] (collected by H.L.S. Lear). Rubies (Diamonds, Pearls). Henrietta Louisa Lear,1881 In the Name of Love Heather Fraser,2008-10-07 Although love is the hallmark of humanity it is not widely discussed in social work and other related professions with respect to its potential connection to abuse In this groundbreaking book the author argues that while love and abuse should not co exist they often do Using a feminist narrative approach stories about love abuse and social work are told with the purpose of understanding domestic violence and other forms of abuse Based on interviews with 84 women of varying ages in Canada and Australia the author shows how the pain and shame of intimate abuse can leave its mark on the bodies minds and souls of victims survivors long after abusive episodes have ended Additionally Fraser also discusses the importance of hope enlightened witnesses income support and educational opportunities for women who refuse to renounce love relationships altogether but are instead trying to foster relationships that are respectful as well as erotic About the Rose Elizabeth Ferrell,2022-02-22 A remarkable portrait of a web of artistic connections traced outward from Jay DeFeo s uniquely generative work of art Through deep archival research and nuanced analysis Elizabeth Ferrell examines the creative exchange that developed with and around The Rose a monumental painting on which the San Francisco artist Jay DeFeo 1929 1989 worked almost exclusively from 1958 to 1966 From its early state to its dramatic removal from DeFeo s studio the painting was a locus of activity among Fillmore District artists Wallace Berman Bruce Conner Wally Hedrick and Michael McClure each took up The Rose in their photographs films paintings and poetry which DeFeo then built upon in turn The resulting works established a dialogue between artists rather than seamless cooperation Illustrated with archival photographs and personal correspondence in addition to the artworks Ferrell s book traces how The Rose became a stage for experimentation with authorship and community defying traditional definitions of collaboration and creating alternatives to Cold War America s political and artistic binaries Awakening Ping Li,2017-01-23 Have you ever wanted to know why you are here on earth Do you sense that you have a higher purpose a special calling but have no idea what it is or how to find it Do you try to convince yourself and others that you are happy and fulfilled Do you wish to have abundance flow to your life effortlessly without working so hard Do you know something is missing in your life but cant identify what that is If the answer is yes to any of these questions help has arrived In Awakening youll discover how to tap into your inner wisdom and the infinite universe to gain valuable insights and knowledge about who you really are at all levels physical mental emotional and spiritual The practical exercises and guidance in every chapter will help you connect with your divine essence and align your beliefs perceptions intentions feelings choices actions words and your personalities with this inner truth so that you can transform your reality and manifest all that you truly desire in life pure love unlimited abundance deep fulfillment and much more

Touching Space, Placing Touch Mark Paterson, Martin Dodge, 2016-02-24 Given that touch and touching is so central to everyday embodied existence why has it been largely ignored by social scientists for so long What is the place of touch in our mixed spaces of sociality work domesticity recreation creativity or care What conceptual resources and academic languages can we reach towards when approaching tactile activities and somatic experiences through the body How is this tactile landscape gendered How is touch becoming revisited and revalidated in late capitalism through animal encounters tourism massage beauty treatments professional medicine everyday spiritualities or the aseptic touch free spaces of automated toilets How is touch placed and valued within scholarly fieldwork and research itself integral as it is to the production of embodied epistemologies How is touch involved in such aesthetic experiences as shaping objects in sand or encountering fleshly bodies within a painting The goal of this edited collection Touching Space Placing Touch is twofold 1 To further advance theoretical and empirical understanding of touch in social science scholarship by focussing on the differential social and cultural meanings of touching and the places of touch 2 To develop a multi faceted and interdisciplinary explanations of touch in terms of individual and social life personal experiences and tasks and their related cultural contexts The twelve essays in this volume provide a rich combination of theoretical resources methodological approaches and empirical investigation Each chapter takes a distinct aspect of touch within a particular spatial context exploring this through a mixture of sustained empirical work critical theories of embodiment philosophical and psychoanalytic approaches to gendered touch and touching or the relationship between visual and non visual culture to articulate something of the variety and variability of touching experiences The contributors are a mixture of established and emerging researchers within a growing interdisciplinary field of scholarship yet the volume has a strong thematic identity and therefore represents the formative collection concerning the multiple senses of touch within social science scholarship at this time
