Hegerfeldt, 2005-01-01 Magic realism has long been treated as a phenomenon restricted to postcolonial literature Drawing on works from Britain Lies that Tell the Truth compellingly shows how magic realist fiction can be produced also at what is usually considered to be the cultural centre without forfeiting the mode s postcolonial attitude and aims A close analysis of works by Angela Carter Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson Robert Nye and others reveals how the techniques of magic realism generate a complex critique of the West s rational empirical worldview from within a Western context itself Understanding magic realism as a fictional analogue of anthropology and sociology Lies that Tell the Truth reads the mode as a frequently humorous but at the same time critical investigation into people s attempts to make sense of their world By laying bare the manifold strategies employed to make meaning magic realist fiction indicates that knowledge and reality cannot be reduced to hard facts but that people s dreams and fears ideas stories and beliefs must equally be taken into account Varieties of Magic Realism Clark M. Zlotchew, 2007 A Collection of Essays for college courses such as Magical Realism in Latin America Spanish American Fiction XXth Century Special Topics Jorge Luis Borges and Sex and Magic in Latin American Literature The term magic realism or magical realism has been bruited about with great frequency in the last half of the twentieth century especially in reference to contemporary Latin American literature yet it is not always clear exactly what is meant by this designation In his introduction to this outstanding collection of essays Dr Clark Zlotchew attempts to elucidate the meaning and scope of the term by providing a historical overview of it defining the literary modes often confused with it and offering some current opinions on what a definition of magic realism should or might be The ten essays that follow present an analysis of works by writers such as Jorge Luis Borges Carlos Fuentes Julio Ricci Antonio Brailovsky and Enrique Jaramillo Levi in an attempt to illustrate the manner in which some Latin American authors create their own brand of magic realism Magic Realism Joan Mellen, 2000 This from conventional descriptions of magic realism based primarily on the Latin American tradition Kluwick here proposes an alternative definition allowing for a more accurate description of the form She argues that it is disharmony rather than harmony that is decisive that the incompatibility of the realist and the supernatural needs to be recognized as a driving force in Rushdie's fiction In its rigorous analysis of this Rushdian magic realism this book considers the entire corpus Midnight's Children Shame The Satanic Verses The Moor's Last Sigh The Ground Beneath Her Feet Shalimar the Clown and The Enchantress of Florence This study is the first of its kind to do so

Multiculturalism and Magic Realism in Zadie Smith's novel White Teeth: Between Fiction and Reality Sylvia Hadjetian, 2014-03-01 Since the 1970s there has been increasing concern with the impact of post colonialism on British identities and culture White Teeth by Zadie Smith is the story of three families from three different cultural backgrounds set mostly in multicultural London The first part of this book provides an overview of the former British Empire the Commonwealth and the history of Bangladesh Jamaica and the Jews in England as relevant to White Teeth Following this the role of the former centre of London will be presented Subsequently definitions and postcolonial theories Bhabha Said etc shall be discussed The focus of this book is on life in multicultural London The main aspects analysed in these chapters deal with identity the location where the novel is set and racism A further aim of the book is a comparison between the fictional world of White Teeth and reality One chapter is devoted to the question of magic realism and the novel's position between two worlds In a summary the writer hopes to convince the readers of the fascination felt when reading the novel and when plunging into the buzzing streets of contemporary multicultural London

What Is Magical Realism? Kenneth S. Reeds, 2014-06-26 This is the first book to carefully show the ways that magical realism emerged in the twentieth century in places other than Latin America For example the definition is given that works must contain elements of the neo fantastic along with re casting history Gabriel Garc a Mirquez being the acknowledged representative author of the genre contains both in his novels Authors like Gunter Grass Franz Kafka Jorge Luis Borges and Alejo Carpenter all contain some but not all elements of the genre They can be considered early progenitors but not fully within the same classification as magical realism Today in its fully developed form magical realism is often viewed as being purposefully vague with determining the lines between fact and magic

Catching Butterflies Maria Takolander, 2007 Magical realism was one of the most significant literary developments in the last century It has become synonymous with the seductive fictions of writers such as Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie Toni Morrison Ben Okri Jeanette Winterson and Peter Carey However the genre has also become known for its theoretical indeterminacy In fact exoticist speculation inspired by the links between magical realist literature and the world's cultural or political margins has thrown the category into critical disrepute This book rescues magical realism from misreadings and misdemeanours tracing the historical development of the literary genre and analysing an original spectrum of magical realist texts from Latin America Africa India Canada the US the UK and Australia It asks such questions as How did magical realism come to take over the world What is the nature of its allure Also how does the marginal status of its authors inform the genre Does magical realism have a political agenda This book uses postcolonial theory to investigate notions of cultural identity and post structural theory to examine the narrative strategies of magical realism presenting a comprehensive historical and theoretical overview of the genre and a politically urgent argument about its subversive potentialities Magical Realism

Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class
