orally to the present generation by their forefathers. It has a deep moral significance to the day to day life of the Vaipheis. Most of the tales narrates mainly on the morality of human life. Such stories were orally passed down through generations and feature morals or lessons. In a folktale, goodness is always rewarded. Heroes and heroines live happily ever after while villains are suitably punished. On the whole, the book descriptions are plain and simple but have deep values. The folktales of the Vaiphei reflect the totality of the attitude towards life, family, yearning for happiness, riches, comforts, fame, aspirations, and dreams, love, fear, and unknown religious beliefs and practices, concepts of spiritual world or life after death, and last but not the least, the traditional values that they continue to cherish. These are also the source of their history. The Vaiphei religion was based on worshipping Dawi magic, which has found basis on the story of Galngam. It was believed that Dawibawm, which forms the basis of Vaiphei religion, was obtained from a spot where the river Tuiluang Barak and Tuilang Irang river converged, called Santaili, the deepest point. It was also said that the places where Galngam had a duel with Dawikungpu were in the present day places of Gun Imphal river bank and Tuiluang Barak river bank. Chawn feast of merit, that no ordinary person with no achievement or success can perform, Sa aih feast of merit after a successful hunting, Bu aih feast of merit after a bountiful harvest, etc., played a major role in the life of the Vaiphei, and this is found in the tales like Dapa Vaphual, Kisuak Liando, and his brother, etc. Similarly, many of the stories and tales are considered to be the foundation of some of their beliefs and traditional values.
