Radway, Kevin Gaines, Barry Shank, Penny Von Eschen, 2009-03-09 American Studies is a vigorous bold account of the changes in the field of American Studies over the last thirty five years Through this set of carefully selected key essays by an editorial board of expert scholars the book demonstrates how changes in the field have produced new genealogies that tell different histories of both America and the study of America Charts the evolution of American Studies from the end of World War II to the present day by showcasing the best scholarship in this field An introductory essay by the distinguished editorial board highlights developments in the field and places each essay in its historical and theoretical context Explores topics such as American politics history culture race gender and working life Shows how changing perspectives have enabled older concepts to emerge in a different context
Casting a Giant Shadow Rachel S. Harris, Dan Chyutin, 2021-07-06 Film came to the territory that eventually became Israel not long after the medium was born Casting a Giant Shadow is a collection of articles that embraces the notion of transnationalism to consider the limits of what is Israeli within Israeli cinema As the State of Israel developed so did its film industries Moving beyond the early films of the Yishuv which focused on the creation of national identity the industry and its transnational ties became more important as filmmakers and film stars migrated out and foreign films filmmakers and actors came to Israel to take advantage of high quality production values and talent This volume edited by Rachel Harris and Dan Chyutin uses the idea of transnationalism to challenge the concept of a singular definition of Israeli cinema Casting a Giant Shadow offers a new understanding of how cinema has operated artistically and structurally in terms of funding distribution and reception The result is a thorough investigation of the complex structure of the transnational and its impact on national specificity when considered on the global stage
