Zinn, 2018-11-21 Much has been written about the legendary players and managers of baseball's Deadball Era 1901-1919 Far less attention has been given to the club owners like Charles Ebbets In 1898 after a 15 year apprenticeship he became president of the Brooklyn Dodgers taking over a chronic second division team in poor financial condition Over the next 25 years he organized four pennant winning clubs and developed one of the most profitable franchises in the game while building two state of the art ballparks in Brooklyn Ebbets was also an effective steward of the national pastime working tirelessly on innovations that would help all teams not just his own Despite his success his personal weaknesses ultimately undermined much of what he had so painstakingly built This first full length biography provides an in depth view of his life and career filling a critical gap in the history of the Deadball Era and the Brooklyn Dodgers [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
