Modern Just War Theory Michael P. Farrell, 2013-06-20 Contributions to Illuminations A Scarecrow Press Series of Guides to Research in Religion provide students and scholars lay readers and clergy with a road map to research in key areas of religious study All commonly constructed with introductions to the topic and reviews of key thinkers concepts and events each volume includes surveys of the primary and secondary sources with critical evaluations of their places in the canon of thought and research on the topic Focusing primarily on the knowledge required by today's students and scholars each guide is a must have for any student of religion The twentieth century saw an explosion of wars and an accompanying explosion of literature on the morality of war Thinking among Christian clerics and scholars on the idea of just war shifted with developments on the battlefield Alternatives to just war theory such as pacifism and realism found new proponents in the published work of the neo Anabaptists and Niebhurians Meanwhile proponents of Christian just war theory had to address challenges from competing ideologies as well as those presented by the changing nature of warfare Modern Just War Theory A Guide to Research by scholar and librarian Michael Farrell serves as a manual for students and scholars studying Christian just war theory helping them navigate the wealth of just war literature produced in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Farrell's guide provides an introduction to the major developments of just war theory in the twentieth century including sections on how to research just war theory an overview of some of the most important theorists and developments of the twentieth century and discussions of key search terms and related topics Farrell then surveys and evaluates key primary and secondary sources for researchers on just war theory as well as related sources on Christian realism and the responses of just war theorists to proponents of pacifism and secular just war theories Modern Just War Theory will appeal to students and scholars of theology military history international law and Christian ethics Reinhold Niebuhr and Contemporary Politics Richard Harries, Stephen Platten, 2010-03-25 A timely collaborative re evaluation of Reinhold Niebuhr's work that reflects on his notable contribution to Christian social ethics the Christian doctrine of humanity and the engagement of Christian thought with contemporary politics Reinhold Niebuhr D. R. Davies, 2019-09-19 Excerpt from Reinhold Niebuhr Prophet From America In this he is a very untypical American but very typical of prophetic Christianity In his sociological thinking he has anticipated a whole social development He has kept one step ahead of history That is what makes him a prophetic Christian revolutionary But also it is what makes him difficult for so many good uncomplicated souls to understand About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Theology of Reinhold Niebuhr Edward J. Carnell, 2007-10-01 The Edward Carnell Library An Introduction to Christian Apologetics 1948 Television Servant or Master 1950 The Theology of Reinhold Niebuhr 1951 A Philosophy of the Christian Religion 1952 A Christian Commitment 1957 The Case for Orthodox Theology 1959 The Kingdom of Love and the Pride of Life 1960 The Burden of Soren Kierkegaard 1965 The Case for Biblical Christianity 1969 These reprint editions also include Edward Carnell's Presidential Inaugural Address The Glory of a Theological Seminary presented at Fuller Seminary in 1955 This appears at the end of these books From Christian Commitment Introducing the Edward Carnell Library Nine Titles Listed Inside Rather than mounting a rational proof for God's existence the author advocates here a spiritual approach to God This calls for an exercise not only of one's rational faculties but also of the spiritual The four parts of this book originally published in 1957 treat the development and application of knowledge by moral acceptance the process of becoming acquainted with the person of God and concluding inferences and problems Edward John Carnell was in my estimation the brightest and the best of the neo evangelical leaders He was a courageous thinker who was not afraid to think new thoughts in the service of biblical orthodoxy The Carnell Library is a gift to today's evangelical movement Richard J Mouw President Fuller Seminary Carnell's fertile mind and ready pen blazed fresh theological trails as he sought to defend and proclaim the Christian faith as a world and life view David Allan Hubbard Former President of Fuller Theological Seminary In this welcome collection of Carnell books we are offered an inside view of a radical shift in American religious thinking the emergence of twentieth century evangelicalism out of Protestant fundamentalism Rudolph Nelson author of The Making and Unmaking of an Evangelical Mind The Case of Edward Carnell Edward John Carnell 1919-1967 was an ordained Baptist minister who served for three years as Associate Professor of Philosophy of Religion at Gordon Divinity School He taught apologetics at Fuller Theological Seminary from 1948 to 1967 and served there as the second president from 1954 to 1959

Niebuhr and His Age Charles C. Brown, 2002-02-01 Now available in paperback Niebuhr and His Age provides an extensively researched account of Reinhold Niebuhr and includes a foreword by Arthur M Schlesinger Jr Just War Thinkers Revisited Daniel R. Brunstetter, Cian O'Driscoll, 2024-11-25 This book comprises essays that focus on a range of thinkers who challenge the boundaries of the just war tradition The ethics of war scholarship has become a rigid and highly disciplined activity closely associated with a very particular canon of thinkers This volume moves beyond this by presenting thinkers not typically regarded as part of that canon but who have interesting and potentially important things to say about the ethics of war The book presents 20 profile essays on an eclectic cast of heretics humanists and radicals from ancient Greece to the twenty first century who lived through and theorized about violence The book asks how ethics of war scholars might benefit from engaging with them Some of these thinkers engage directly with to augment or criticize the just war tradition while others contribute to military thinking across the ages pushing the boundaries of what was acceptable in war Many proffer alternative moral frameworks regarding the legitimacy of political violence The present volume thus invites scholars to reconsider the ethics of war in a way that challenges the standard delineation between just war theory realism and pacifism and to reflect on how those positions might inform our own approach to these matters This book will be of much interest to students of just war theory ethics of war war studies and International Relations

The Dramatizing of Theology Matthew S. Farlow, 2017-07-14 Matthew Farlow traces the thoughts of Balthasar and Barth so as to enter into theological truth of God's Being in Act This exploration embarks on a journey into the reality of our Triune God who has engaged his creation so as to elicit fellow actors God seeking out humanity is God with us a truth that not only informs our theological endeavors but invites us into the dramatic performance of reconciliation As Farlow illumines God is an acting God who seeks fellow participants in his ongoing drama of salvation Through the dramatizing of theology the church and her theologians come to realize God's threefold movement revelation invitation and reconciliation It is a unified act that startles humanity and thus theology out of its spectator's seat so as to drag it onto the world's stage As Farlow discusses it is through the dramatizing of theology that we find ourselves best equipped to participate faithfully in the role of a lifetime
