Children's Respiratory Nursing is divided into four user friendly sections. The first section provides a general background for children's respiratory nursing. Section two explores the various investigations that aid diagnosis and treatment such as assessment of defects in airflow and lung volume, oxygen therapy and long term ventilation. Section three looks at respiratory infection and provides an overview of the common infections in children with reference to national and local guidelines. The final section considers the practical issues that impact on children's nurses: the transition from children to adult services, legal and ethical issues and the professional communication skills needed for dealing with children and their families. This practical text is essential reading for all children's nurses who have a special interest in respiratory conditions and would like to develop a greater level of understanding of the management required.

Handbook of Communication in Anaesthesia, Pain Management, and Intensive Care, 2024-09-15. Communication in anaesthesia, pain management and intensive care can have profound impacts on patients and healthcare colleagues. Good communication can result in better patient outcomes and experiences of the hospital setting, whereas poor communication is frequently at the heart of adverse incidents, complaints and litigation. This handbook outlines two model frameworks to improve communication: one to give structure to an interaction and one that explores language structures and the layers of meaning to our words. The frameworks are essential tools for communicating with children, obstetric patients and those with needle phobia. A practical guide, the book is packed with useful tips to enhance interactions with both patients and colleagues. Numerous examples and vignettes clearly demonstrate ideas that will improve patient care, safety and bring out the best in everyone around. Fully updated with new clinical guidelines and literature, the second edition includes new chapters on how to talk to patients in pain, featuring motivational interviewing techniques and on social media. Increased coverage of managing challenging situations includes communicating with distressed relatives, dealing with complaints and working with interpreters. The contributors and editors are senior clinicians from North America, Europe and Australasia working at the coalface of perioperative and critical care. Blending theory, science and practicality, this book complements resources for communication skills teaching in anaesthesia and other related professional groups The A to Z of Loss Elizabeth Bell, 2005 In a unique approach this book links policy theory and research with the expertise of service providers and users to explore the major debates concerning the provision of mental health services Many of these dilemmas revolve around questions of who makes the choices and who has control The book examines the power and demands of the disparate groups involved in the provision and use of services before considering the different practice options and their implicit values and goals This book will inform critical debate among all those involved in the mental health enterprise and challenge health professionals to consider their own practice It is timely and relevant reading for practitioners and managers at every level in all disciplines and from all agencies as well as service users and carers Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief Steven Jeffers, Harold Ivan Smith, 2018-10-08 This work includes a foreword by John D Morgan Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Coordinator for Kings College Center for Education about Death and Bereavement Ontario Canada This practical resource guides the reader through all aspects of the grieving process and offers thought provoking and inspirational advice on support With exercises tips and contacts for further assistance Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief provides a comprehensive understanding of this potentially difficult and complex topic It examines different types of grief and various approaches along with reference guides to particular religions and their traditions adopting a comprehensive multi faith approach Pastoral care providers and religious leaders will find the unique hands on approach invaluable as will members of support organisations and volunteer carers It is also ideal for seminary and ministry students counsellors therapists and other care professionals Gives caregivers the tools to help dying and grieving persons face the best and worst that life has to offer It is the worst because death means the end of the attachments that make life worthwhile It is the best because it shows us what is truly meaningful and important in life Mortality is a great gift if we have the knowledge and the courtesy to face it John D Morgan in the Foreword How to Break Bad News to People with Intellectual Disabilities Irene Tuffrey-Wijne, 2012-09-01 This book offers unique and adaptable guidelines that can be used by practitioners to ease the process of breaking bad news to people with intellectual disabilities It provides effective tips and support that will help social workers counsellors and caring professionals relay all types of bad news as sensitively and successfully as possible Cambridge Handbook of Psychology, Health and Medicine Carrie D.
