John Baptist Jackson: 18th-Century Master of the Color Woodcut Jacob Kainen, 2019-12-05 In John Baptist Jackson 18th Century Master of the Color Woodcut Jacob Kainen presents a meticulous examination of the life and works of John

Baptist Jackson a pivotal yet underappreciated figure in the field of color woodcut artistry Kainen employs a blend of art historical scholarship and critical analysis to explore Jackson s innovative techniques and stylistic contributions during a dynamic period in printmaking history This work situates Jackson within the broader context of 18th century artistic movements scrutinizing the interplay between technique and visual narrative that characterizes Jackson s prints and their significance in both British and European art Jacob Kainen an esteemed printmaker and art historian brings his own breadth of experience and deep appreciation for print arts to this study His expertise is evident in the thoroughness of his research which reflects a long standing commitment to uncovering the intricacies of art forms often overlooked in mainstream art discourse Kainen s personal involvement with printmaking imbues the narrative with authenticity resonating with the challenges and triumphs Jackson faced in his artistic pursuits This book is an invaluable resource for art historians students and collectors alike providing keen insights into the complexities of color woodcut artistry Kainen s dedication to illuminating Jackson s legacy invites readers to reassess their understanding of 18th century art and its enduring influence making this a must read for anyone interested in the evolution of printmaking and the diverse narratives that shape it

A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings VI Ernst van de Wetering, 2014-11-11 A revised survey of Rembrandt s complete painted oeuvre The question of which 17th century paintings in Rembrandt s style were actually painted by Rembrandt himself had already become an issue during his lifetime It is an issue that is still hotly disputed among art historians today The problem arose because Rembrandt had numerous pupils who learned the art of painting by imitating their master or by assisting him with his work as a portrait painter He also left pieces unfinished to be completed by others The question is how to determine which works were from Rembrandt s own hand Can we for example define the criteria of quality that would allow us to distinguish the master s work from that of his followers Do we yet have methods of investigation that would deliver objective evidence of authenticity To what extent do research techniques used in the physical sciences help Or are we after all still dependent on the subjective expert eye of the connoisseur The book provides answers to these questions Prof Ernst van de Wetering the author of our forthcoming book which deals with these questions has been closely involved in all aspects of this research since 1968 the year the renowned Rembrandt Research Project RRP was founded In particular he played an important role in developing new criteria for authentication Van de Wetering was also witness to the way the often overly zealous tendency to doubt the authenticity of Rembrandt s paintings got out of hand In this book he re attributes to the master a substantial number of unjustly rejected Rembrandts He also was closely involved in the re discovery of a considerable number of lost or completely unknown works by Rembrandt The verdicts of earlier specialists including the majority of members of the original RRP up to 1989 were based on connoisseurship the self confidence in one s ability to recognise a specific artist s style and hand Over the years Van de Wetering has carried out seminal research into 17th century studio practice and ideas about art current in Rembrandt s time In this book he demonstrates the fallibility of traditional connoisseurship especially in the case of Rembrandt who was par excellence a searching artist The methodological implications of this critical view are discussed in an introductory chapter which relates the history of the developments in this turbulent field of research Van de Wetering's account of his own involvement in it makes this book a lively and sometimes unexpectedly personal account The catalogue section presents a chronologically ordered survey of Rembrandt's entire painted oeuvre of 336 paintings richly illustrated and annotated For all the paintings re-attributed in this book extensive commentaries have been included that provide a multi-faceted new insight into Rembrandt's world and the world of art historical research Rembrandt's Paintings Revisited is the concluding sixth volume of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volumes I-V 1982 1986 1989 2005 2010 It can also be read as a revisionary critique of the first three Volumes published by the old RRP team up till 1989 and of Gerson's influential survey of Rembrandt's painted oeuvre of 1968-69 At the same time the book is designed as an independent overview that can be used on the basis that anyone seeking more detailed information will be referred to the five previous digital versions of the Volumes and the detailed catalogues published in the meantime by the various museums with collections of Rembrandt paintings This work of art history and art research should belong in the library of every serious art historical institute university or museum

Rembrandt and His School John Charles Van Dyke, 1923 Rembrandt Ernst van de Wetering, 1997 Rembrandt's paintings have been admired throughout centuries because of their artistic freedom But Rembrandt was also a craftsman whose painting technique was rooted in the tradition Rembrandt The Painter at Work is the result of a lifelong search for Rembrandt's working methods his intellectual approach to the art of painting and the way in which his studio functioned Ernst van de Wetering demonstrates how this knowledge can be used to tackle questions about authenticity and other art historical issues Approximately 350 illustrations half of which are reproduced in colour make this book into a monumental tribute to one of the world's most important painters The book is if one may be allowed to say such a thing about a serious scholarly work a gripping good read Christopher White The Burlington Magazine This is a very rich book a deeply felt analysis of an artist whom the author knows better than almost any other living scholar Christopher Brown Times Literary Supplement

Catalogue of a collection of paintings by Dutch masters of the seventeenth century, by W. R. Valentiner Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1909 Drawings from the Age of Bruegel, Rubens, and Rembrandt William W. Robinson, 2016-08-02 This superb book presents 100 notable examples from the Harvard Art Museums distinguished collection of Dutch Flemish and Netherlandish drawings from the 16th to 18th century Featuring such masters as Pieter Bruegel the Elder Peter Paul Rubens and Rembrandt van Rijn the volume showcases beautiful color illustrations accompanied by insightful commentary on prevalent styles and techniques Genres that define this artistic period landscape scenes of everyday life portraiture and still life are explored in detail The book also presents the results of new conservation and technical study including infrared analysis and scientific examinations of drawing materials This revelatory new research has allowed previously illegible underdrawings and inscriptions in many of the artworks to surface for the first time shedding light on longstanding mysteries of production and provenance

A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings IV Ernst van de Wetering, 2005-10-18

Volume IV of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings deals uniquely with the self portraits of Rembrandt In a clearly written explanatory style the head of the Rembrandt Research Project and Editor of this Volume Ernst van de Wetering discusses the full body of work of paintings and etchings portraying Rembrandt He sets the different parameters for accepting or rejecting a Rembrandt self portrait as such whilst also discussing the exact working environment of Rembrandt and his apprentices This workshop setting created a surroundings where apprentices could be involved in working on Rembrandt paintings making it more difficult to determine the hand of the master Van de Wetering who is one of the Rembrandt experts of our day and age goes down to great detail to explain how the different self portraits are made and what techniques Rembrandt uses also giving an overview of which paintings are to be attributed to the Dutch Master and which not In the additional catalogue the self portraits are examined in detail In clear and accessible explanatory text the different paintings are discussed larded with immaculate images of each painting Details are shown where possible as well as the results of modern day technical imaging like X radiography This work of art history and art research should be part of every serious art historical institute university or museum Nowhere in the art history have all Rembrandt s self portraits been discussed in such detailed and comparative manner by an authority such as Ernst van de Wetering This is a standard work for decades to come
