Rillington Place:

Streets of Sin Fiona Rule, 2015-08-03 Notting Hill was not always an upmarket residential enclave and celebrity hotspot Streets of Sin delves into the district's murky past and relates the deplorable scandals and shocking crimes that blighted the area from its development until the late twentieth century Best selling London historian Fiona Rule sheds new light on notorious events that took place amid the leafy streets including the horrifying murders at Rillington Place the nefarious career of slum landlord Peter Rachman the Profumo affair and Britain's first race riots She reveals what life was like in Rotting Hill during its dark years when murder extortion and disorder were everyday occurrences and explores the price its residents have had to pay to climb up out of the ghetto Under Cover of Darkness Amy Helen Bell, 2024-11-05 A gripping new history of London during the Blackout revealing the violent crime that spread across the capital under the cover of darkness Fear was the unacknowledged spectre haunting the streets of London during the Second World War fear not only of death from the German bombers circling above but of violence at the hands of fellow Londoners in the streets below Mass displacement the anonymity of shelters and the bomb scarred landscape offered unprecedented opportunities for violent crime In this absorbing sometimes shocking account Amy Helen Bell uncovers the hidden stories of murder and violence that were rife in wartime London Bell moves through the city examining the crimes in their various locations from domestic violence in the home to robberies in the blacked out streets and fights in pubs and clubs She reveals the experiences of women children and the elderly and focuses on the lives of the victims as well as their deaths This groundbreaking study transforms our understanding of the ways in which war made people vulnerable not just to the enemy but to each other

Ghost Criminology Michael Fiddler, Theo Kindynis, Travis Linnemann, 2022-01-18 The haunting effects of crime violence and death in our history memory and media spaces From Abu Ghraib and Holocaust death camps to Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School and slave plantations spaces where violent crimes have occurred can often become forever changed or haunted in the public imagination In this volume Michael Fiddler Travis Linnemann and Theo Kindynis bring together an interdisciplinary group of distinguished scholars to study this phenomenon exploring the origins theory and methodology of ghost criminology Featuring Jeff Ferrell Michelle Brown Eamon Carrabine and other prominent scholars Ghost Criminology takes us inside spaces where the worst crimes have imprinted themselves on our history memory and media spaces Contributors explore a wide range of these hauntological topics from a criminological perspective including the excavation of graffiti in the London underground the phantom of Robert E Lee in Charlottesville VA during the 2017 riots and the ghostly evidentiary traces of crime in motel rooms Ultimately Fiddler Kindynis and Linnemann offer ghost criminology as another way of seeing and better understanding the lingering impact of violence oppression and history in today's world Ghost Criminology curates cutting edge research to break exciting new terrain Necrophilia Anil Aggrawal, 2010-12-07 Necrophilia Forensic and Medico legal Aspects is the first text that deals with the scientific aspects of necrophilia from a multidisciplinary point of view After an introduction that provides a general scientific social and historical perspective this volume Explores causes and contributing factors covering biological theories and genetics Tell Me a Story Madeleine Pizzuti, 2016-04-25 Growing up in England and living in the small Fenland village of Leverington for eighteen years of my life created for me a myriad of memories some sad but most of them very happy Born in the Fenland capital and living in a house that her father built just outside the village of Leverington in Cambridgeshire Madeleine Pizzuti enjoyed an idyllic childhood within the safe and warm embrace of a loving family good friends and a large and lovable extended family I can still smell the country air that surrounded us as we sat amongst the gooseberry bushes that day The aroma of cucumber sandwiches tea from a flask bales of prickly straw mingled with the smell of strawberries ripening in the distance created for me a childhood memory that would last forever Tell Me a Story is a selection of stories drawn from her childhood memories from her grandmother s infamous jelly cubes to garden forks that go awry From donkey rides to teenage crushes and a drummer boy that would make you smile Set between the mid 1950s to 1970s this memoir would appeal to adults and young adults alike particularly those familiar with the Fenland district Bloody London David Fathers, 2020-04-02 An entertaining revealing and beautifully illustrated walking guide to London s horrific history Bloody London features walks that take in everything from Jack the Ripper s haunts to the Route of the Damned from Newgate Prison to Tyburn to Gangland London to the plague outbreak hotspots and burial pits to the key places involved in the Great Fire of London plus many many more iconic and delightfully gruesome moments in London s history Each walk is beautifully illustrated with a map and gorgeous illustrations and the book is perfectly pocket sized so you can easily take it around with you as you go David Fathers is the king of London walking guides and Bloody London will delight both those who live in London and those visiting who are looking for a walking guide that s a little bit different Psychopedia Blackhous, 2014-04-22 For those looking to delve into the sick and psychotic minds of serial killers Psychopedia is an extensive encyclopaedia of serial killers and murders A popular Apple iTunes app from inception this title is now available in eBook format Psychopedia Satisfies A Strange Curiosity App Advice An insightful and interesting read into the minds and lives of psychopaths which can become quite addictive Appscovery From the Axeman of New Orleans to the Zodiac Killer this publication presents readers with a compendium of the world s most prolific and notorious serial killers and the most captivating unsolved serial murder cases The articles are written from an objective factual approach and make no attempt to glorify the murderers With over 400 profiles spanning hundreds of pages it is a useful guide for students of criminology sociology or abnormal psychology The content is derived from Wikipedia articles and most entries contain extensive details of the killer s early life crimes capture and conviction Genre screenwriters novelists fans of true crime literature and anyone with an interest in the macabre will find plenty of fascinating and grisly details of the world s most infamous and intriguing killers and their horrendous crimes All gruesome details can be discovered within its pages The Best Film You've Never Seen Robert K. Elder, 2013-06-01 Revealing a festival of guilty pleasures almost masterpieces and undeniable classics in need of revival 35 directors champion their favorite overlooked or critically savaged gems in this guide The list includes unsung noir films The Chase and Murder by Contract famous flops Can't Stop the Music and Joe Versus the Volcano art films Lange and WR Mysteries of the Organism theatrical adaptations The Iceman Cometh and The Homecoming B movies Killer Klowns from Outer Space and The Honeymoon Killers and even Oscar winners Breaking Away and Some Came Running The filmmakers including Guillermo del Toro John Waters John Woo Edgar Wright and Danny Boyle defend their choices wanting these films to be loved admired and swooned over arguing the films deserve a larger audience and their place in movie history be reconsidered Some were well loved but are now faded or forgotten others ran afoul of critics or were just buried after a dismal opening run and still others never even got proper distribution A few of these titles qualify as bona fide obscurata but now most can be found on DVD or streaming from Netflix or Amazon The filmmakers are the perfect hosts setting the tone managing expectations and often being brutally honest about a film's shortcomings or the reasons why it was lost in the first place

Hanged at Pentonville Steve Fielding, 2008-02-29 The history of execution at Pentonville began with the hanging of a Scottish hawker in 1902 Over the next sixty years the names of those who made the short walk to the gallows reads like a who's who of twentieth century murder They include the notorious Dr Crippen Neville Heath mass murderer John Christie of Rillington Place as well as scores of forgotten criminals German spies Italian gangsters teenage tearaways cut throat killers and many more Infamous executioners also played a part in the gaol's history the Billington family of Bolton Rochdale barber John Ellis and Robert Baxter of Hertford who for over a decade was the sole executioner at Pentonville For many years the prison was used to train the country's hangmen including members of the well known Pierrepont family Harry Allen and Robert Leslie Stewart the country's last executioners Fully illustrated with photographs news cuttings and engravings Hanged at Pentonville is bound to appeal to anyone interested in the darker side of London's history

The Spaces of the Modern City Gyan Prakash, Kevin M. Kruse, 2021-06-08 By United Nations estimates 60 percent of the world's population will be urban by 2030 With the increasing speed of urbanization especially in the developing world scholars are now rethinking standard concepts and histories of modern cities The Spaces of the Modern City historicizes the contemporary discussion of urbanism highlighting the local and global breadth of the city landscape This interdisciplinary collection examines how the city develops in the interactions of space and imagination The essays focus on issues such as street design in Vienna the motion picture industry in Los Angeles architecture in Marseilles and Algiers and the kaleidoscopic paradox of post apartheid Johannesburg They explore the nature of spatial politics examining the disparate worlds of eighteenth century Baghdad nineteenth century Morelia Cold War era West Berlin and postwar Los Angeles They also show the meaning of everyday spaces to urban life illuminating issues such as crime in metropolitan London youth culture in Dakar memory projects in Tokyo and Bombay cinema Informed by a range of theoretical writings this collection offers a fresh and truly global perspective on the nature of the modern city The Frenzy! Neil Root, 2012-08-31 Murder has transfixed the popular press for centuries But it was only in the second half of the twentieth century that murder began saturating front pages and making these monsters what we today recognise as modern celebrities It was three serial killers caught and executed in the few years after the end of the Second World War who precipitated a level of public furore never seen before Neville Heath a charming sadist who killed two women John George Haigh the Acid Bath Killer who killed between six and nine men and women and John Christie the ineffectual necrophile who killed between six and eight women The modern news coverage finds its roots with these three men whom the crime historian Donald Thomas called the Postwar Psychopaths Their crimes were the first to generate a tabloid frenzy the like of which we see all around us today It was not only the murderers who captured the public s imagination It was the detectives who hunted them down the judiciary who tried them and the man who executed them the legendary hangman Albert Pierrepoint This book tells the stories of these three infamous serial killers against the backdrop of the tabloid frenzy that surrounded them

Serial Killers: Murder Without Mercy Nigel Blundell, 2011-04-19 Charles Manson Aileen Wuornos Burke Hare the Boston Strangler the Zodiac Killer and other remorseless serial murderers whose crimes made history From Victorian era graveyards to a rented room in Paris to an isolated Indian farm and the California hills the shocking murders collected in this true crime anthology span the century and the continents The motivations are just as varied sex greed bloodlust hatred and the sheer thrill of it all But the more than thirty serial killers profiled here share one perverse trait they killed without conscience regret or shame Money did it for dapper French ladykiller Henri Landru homicidal housewife Nannie Doss Lady Bluebeard Belle Gunness and Lonely Hearts Killers Raymond Fernandez and Martha Beck Deadly desires moved Green River Killer Gary Ridgway Yorkshire Ripper Peter Sutcliffe and John Christie whose Notting Hill home was a burial ground And rage was the trigger for Edmund Kemper who used his mother s head for a dart board and for nomadic prostitute Aileen Wuornos who turned her tricks into road kill In crime journalist Nigel Blundell s criminally fascinating collection you will meet the loners outcasts lethal lovebirds twisted fetishists pleasure seekers body
