Monsters of Film, Fiction, and Fable Lisa Wenger Bro,Mary Ann Gareis,Crystal O'Leary-Davidson,2018-07-27 Monsters are a part of every society and ours is no exception They are deeply embedded in our history our mythos and our culture However treating them as simply a facet of children s stories or escapist entertainment belittles their importance When examined closely we see that monsters have always represented the things we fear that which is different which we can t understand which is dangerous which is Other But in many ways monsters also represent our growing awareness of ourselves and our changing place in a continually shrinking world Contemporary portrayals of the monstrous often have less to do with what we fear in others than with what we fear about ourselves what we fear we might be capable of The nineteen essays in this volume explore the place and function of the monstrous in a variety of media stories and novels like Baum s Oz books or Gibson s Neuromancer television series and feature films like The Walking Dead or Edward Scissorhands and myths and legends like Beowulf and The Loch Ness Monster in order to provide a closer understanding of not just who we are and who we have been but also who we believe we can be for better or worse

The Nature of Mind Douglas M. Stokes,2024-10-18 Western science teaches that our beings are governed by the laws of physics and our minds play no part There are however flaws in this thinking most prominently unexplained paranormal phenomena that defy explanation by modern theories of physics Collected by parapsychologists these data include extrasensory perception ESP poltergeist occurrences and psychokinesis Much of the current data in parapsychology and their implications for understanding the true nature of the self are examined here Beginning with a consideration of several instances of spontaneous psi the book examines the theoretical explanations of paranormal phenomena It covers the hypothesis and evidence that minds contain the so called hidden variables that determine the outcomes of the quantum process thus interweaving parapsychology with modern physics The reader is also forced to consider in detail the relationship between the conscious mind and the physical brain and the evidence that minds survive the death of bodies debunkers spirit channelers and crystal healers Hollywood poltergeist scripts and prophets of the New Age Adopting a cultural perspective Hess moves beyond the question of who is right or wrong to the cultural politics of how each group constructs its own boundaries of true and false knowledge Hess begins by looking at each group s unique version of knowledge science and religion and at its story about the other groups Comparing the various discourses texts writers and groups as cultures he shows how skeptics parapsychologists and New Agers may disagree vehemently with each other but end up sharing many rhetorical strategies metaphors models values and cultural categories Furthermore he argues their shared paraculture has a great deal in common with the larger culture of the United States The dialogue on the paranormal Hess concludes has as much to do with gender power and cultural values as it does with spirits extrasensory perception and crystal healing Bedfordshire Magazine ,1988 New Statesman Society ,1988-11 Cuervo. examining them in dialogue with both literary and posthumanist analysis Kafka's Zoopoetics critically revisits animality interspecies relations and the very human animal contradistinction in the writings of Franz Kafka Kafka's animals typically stand at the threshold between humanity and animality fusing together human and nonhuman features Among his liminal creatures we find a human transformed into vermin in The Metamorphosis an ape turned into a human being in A Report to an Academy talking jackals in Jackals and Arabs a philosophical dog in Researches of a Dog a contemplative mole like creature in The Burrow and indiscernible beings in Josefine the Singer or the Mouse People Depicting species boundaries as mutable and obscure Kafka creates a fluid human animal space which can be described as humanimal The constitution of a humanimal space radically undermines the stark barrier between human and other animals dictated by the anthropocentric paradigm Through denying animalistic elements in humans and disavowing the agency of nonhuman animals excluding them from social life and neutralizing compassion for them this barrier has been designed to regularize both humanity and animality The contextualization of Kafka's animals within posthumanist theory engenders a post anthropocentric arena which is simultaneously both imagined and very real Fable, Method, and Imagination in Descartes James Griffith, 2018-01-09 What role do fables play in Cartesian method and psychology By looking at Descartes use of fables James Griffith suggests there is a fabular logic that runs to the heart of Descartes philosophy First focusing on The World and the Discourse on Method this volume shows that by writing in fable form Descartes allowed his readers to break from Scholastic methods of philosophizing With this fable structure or logic in mind the book reexamines the relationship between analysis synthesis and inexact sciences between metaphysics and ethico political life and between the imagination the will and the passions
