Meanings of Manual Work in Radical Education Emily Charkin, 2025-02-24 This book aims to challenge and inspire readers with lived examples of alternatives to current paradigms in education childhood and community through new research into two important and neglected schools in the history of progressive and radical education Kilgus and Wennington schools were both founded in the UK in 1940 and at both schools pupils and staff were extensively involved in the manual work of looking after and shaping the physical fabric of the community The author uses these case studies to challenge the tendency to equate pupil participation with voice and meetings and casts light on a fault line within the progressive and radical traditions She then presents new challenges and perspectives to ongoing debates about education and childhood unsettling the stalemate between liberal and traditional and progressive and radical schools by uncovering a community based alternative The book offers a contribution to a growing body of contemporary research literature on progressive and radical education alternative education informal education and social pedagogy as well as across the disciplines of childhood studies history philosophy and geography

J. Krishnamurti and Educational Practice Meenakshi Thapan, 2018-07-27 First in the series on Education and Society in South Asia this volume focuses on the educational thought of a world renowned teacher thinker and writer Jiddu Krishnamurti 1895-1986 This edited volume examines Krishnamurti's work and explores his contemporary relevance in educational endeavours and practices in different parts of the country The contributors to the volume argue that Krishnamurti sought to change the way education is perceived from the mere teaching of curriculum into a life changing experience of learning from relationships and life Through a range of essays that address diverse issues and themes the contributors seek to uncover the practices and processes at some of the institutions that Krishnamurti established in different parts of rural and urban India These include essays on curriculum building inclusive education pedagogy debates on educational philosophy and practice and teacher education They help bring out the barriers and breakthroughs in the educational processes as practiced in these schools and how they may further be applied to other educational institutions Exhibiting the Past Frederik Herman, Sjaak Braster, María del Mar del Pozo

Andrés, 2022-12-19 With respect to public issues history matters With the worldwide interest for historical issues related with gender religion race nation and identity public history is becoming the strongest branch of academic history This volume brings together the contributions from historians of education about their engagement with public history ranging from musealisation and alternative ways of exhibiting to new ways of storytelling The Architectures of Childhood Roy

Kozlovsky, 2016-03-16 Between 1935 and 1959 the architecture of childhood was at the centre of architectural discourse in a way that is unique in architectural history Some of the seminal projects of the period such as the Secondary Modern School at Hunstanton by Peter and Alison Smithson Le Corbusier's Unité d'Habitation at Marseilles or Aldo van Eyck's playgrounds and orphanage were designed for children At CIAM architects utilized photographs of children to present their visions for reconstruction The unprecedented visibility of the child to architectural discourse during the period of reconstruction is the starting point for this interdisciplinary study of modern architecture under welfare state patronage Focusing mainly on England this book examines a series of innovative buildings and environments developed for children such as the adventure playground the Hertfordshire school the reformed children hospital Brutalist housing estates and New Towns It studies the methods employed by architects child experts and policy makers to survey assess and administer the physiological emotional and developmental needs of the user the child It identifies the new aesthetic and spatial order permeating the environments of childhood based on endowing children with the agency and autonomy to create a self regulating social order out of their own free will while rendering their interiority and sociability observable and governable By inserting the architectural object within a broader social and political context The Architectures of Childhood situates post war architecture within the welfare state's project of governing the self which most intensively targeted the citizen in the making the children Yet the emphasis on the utilization of architecture as an instrument of power does not reduce it into a mere document of social policy as the author uncovers the surplus of meaning and richness of experience invested in these environments at the historical moment
