Science Plus Sentiment Cesar Dalys Formula For Modern Architecture:

Science Plus Sentiment Richard Becherer, 1984 The Oxford Dictionary of Architecture James Stevens Curl, Susan Wilson, 2015 With over 6 000 entries this is the most authoritative dictionary of architectural history available The Theory of Architecture Paul-Alan Johnson, 1994-04-18 The Theory of Architecture Concepts Themes Practices Paul Alan Johnson Although it has long been thought that theory directs architectural practice no one has explained precisely how the connection between theory and practice is supposed to work This guide asserts that architectural theory does not direct practice but is itself a form of reflective practice Paul Alan Johnson cuts through the jargon and mystery of architectural theory to clarify how it relates to actual applications in the field He also reveals the connections between new and old ideas to enhance the reader's powers of critical evaluation Nearly 100 major concepts themes and practices of architecture as well as the rhetoric of architects and designers are presented in an easily accessible format Throughout Johnson attempts to reduce each architectural notion into its essential concept By doing so he makes theory accessible for everyday professional discussion Topics are arranged under ten headings identification definition power attitudes ethics order authority governance relationship and expression Areas covered under these headings include Utopic thought in theories of architecture Advocacy and citizen participation in architecture The basis of architectural quality and excellence The roles of the architect as artist poet scientist and technologist Ethical obligations of architecture Rationales for models and methods of design How authority is determined in architecture How architects structure their concepts Conventions of communication within the architectural profession Each section begins by showing the etymology of key terms of the topic discussed along with a summary history of the topic's use in architecture Discussions probe the conceptual and philosophical difficulties of different theories as well as their potential and limitations in past and present usage Among the provocative issues discussed in terms of their relationship to architecture are chaos theory feminism service to the community and the use of metaphor Johnson points out with stunning clarity the intentions as well as the contradictions and inconsistencies of all notions and concepts All architects and designers as well as students and teachers in these disciplines will gain many insights about architectural thought in this groundbreaking text The Portfolio and the Diagram Hyungmin Pai, Hyöng-min Pae, 2002 A history of modern architecture as a discursive practice Ornament and Class Gary Huafan He, 2025-03-13 This groundbreaking study examines the intricate relationship between the rise of the nineteenth century bourgeoisie and the emergence of modern architecture exploring this connection through major intellectual and theoretical works while also analyzing their tangible manifestations in buildings and architectural projects Contrary to received narratives that describe the birth of modern architecture as primarily an aesthetic movement Ornament and Class argues that the social and political maturation of the European bourgeoisie as a distinct yet heterogeneous group influenced modern attitudes toward architecture at every level Bringing architecture into conversation with recent histories of the bourgeoisie in the social sciences the book considers how architecture was used as a tool to separate the modern bourgeoisie from the aristocratic and clerical forces above and the working classes below It explores how architects clients planners and administrators grappled with and dealt with ornament architecture and modernity from within the new realities of urban and global capitalism and shows how these realities serve as pedagogical touchstones that remain with us today Historians architecture scholars and students interested in modern architecture aesthetics and European history especially those focusing on the interplay between modern architecture and social development will find this book an invaluable resource Scenes of Parisian Modernity H. Hahn,2009-11-23 Integrating the history of Paris with the history of consumption the press publicity advertising and spectacle this book traces the evolution of the urban core districts of consumption and explores elements of consumer culture such as the print media publishing retail techniques tourism city marketing fashion illustrated posters and Montmartre culture in the nineteenth century Hahn emphasizes the tension between art and industry and between culture and commerce a dynamic that significantly marked urban commercial modernity that spread new imaginary about consumption She argues that Parisian consumer culture arose earlier than generally thought and explores the intense commercialization Paris underwent Alone Together Elizabeth C. Cromley,1990 Describes how the apartment building developed in the late nineteenth century and gradually achieved acceptance as middle class housing in New York City

France and 1848 William Fortescue,2005 Examining the economic social and political crises this book evaluates the political history of France during the revolution of 1848 and the French political culture of the time Quatremere de Quincy Sylvia Lavin,1992 Sylvia Lavin uncovers the origins of one of the fundamental concepts of modern architectural theory the idea that architecture is a form of language Paris, Capital of Modernity David Harvey,2004-06-01 Collecting David Harvey s finest work on Paris during the second empire Paris Capital of Modernity offers brilliant insights ranging from the birth of consumerist spectacle on the Parisian boulevards the creative visions of Balzac Baudelaire and Zola and the reactionary cultural politics of the bombastic Sacre Couer The book is heavily illustrated and includes a number drawings portraits and cartoons by Daumier one of the greatest political caricaturists of the nineteenth century Dreams of Happiness Neil McWilliam,2017-03-14 Responding to the decline of the monarchy and the church in post revolutionary France theorists representing a wide spectrum of leftist ideologies proposed comprehensive blueprints for society that assigned a crucial role to aesthetics In this full length investigation of social romanticism Neil McWilliam explores the profound impact of radical philosophies on contemporary aesthetics and art criticism and traces efforts to conscript the arts for doctrinal ends He highlights the complexity and diversity of systems such as Saint Simonianism Fourierism Republicanism and Christian Socialism movements that set out to exploit the ameliorative effect of aesthetic form on human consciousness and challenges the previous linking of social art to narrow didacticism This book seeks an understanding both of the conventions of artistic judgment and reception and of the aims and significance of radical political ideologies Drawing on a broad spectrum of previously neglected journalistic criticism visual material and archival sources together with key political texts by figures such as Saint Simon Philippe Buchez and Pierre Leroux this work reveals an important facet of radical history and modifies received understandings of French art in the wake of Romanticism In the process it probes the role of culture within oppositional political practice arguing that the ultimate failure to realize a social art exposes the limits of the radicals break with dominant discourse and their hesitancy in forging links with a culturally disenfranchised working class Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Topographies of Memories Anita Bakshi,2017-11-09 This book explores new approaches towards developing memorial and heritage sites moving beyond the critique of existing practices that have been the traditional focus of studies of commemoration Offering understandings of the effects of conflict on memories of place as manifested in everyday lives and official histories it explores the formation of urban identities and constructed images of the city Topographies of Memories suggests interdisciplinary approaches for creating commemorative sites with shared stakes The first part of the book focuses on memory dynamics the second on Nicosia the divided capital of Cyprus and the third on physical and material world interventions Design practices and modes of engagement with places of memory are explored making connections between theoretical explorations of memory and forgetting and practical strategies for designers and practitioners

Housing and Dwelling Barbara Miller Lane,2006-11-01 Housing and Dwelling collects the best in recent scholarly and philosophical writings that bear upon the history of domestic architecture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Lane combines exemplary readings that focus on and examine the issues involved in the study of domestic architecture taken from an innovative and informed combination of philosophy history social science art literature and architectural writings Uniquely the readings underline the point of view of the user of a dwelling and assess the impact of varying uses on the evolution of domestic architecture This book is a valuable asset for students scholars and designers alike exploring the extraordinary variety of methods interpretations and source materials now available in this important field For students it opens windows on the many aspects of domestic architecture For scholars it introduces new interdisciplinary points of view and suggests directions for further research It acquaints practising architects in the field of housing design with history and methods and offers directions for future design possibilities

Seeing from Above Mark Dorrian,Frédéric Pousin,2013-10-03 The view from above or the bird s eye view has become so ingrained in contemporary visual culture that it is now hard to imagine our world without it It has risen to pre eminence as a way of seeing but important questions about its effects and meanings remain unexplored More powerfully than any other visual modality this image of everywhere supports our idea of a world view yet it is one that continues to be transformed as technologies are invented and refined This innovative volume edited by Mark Dorrian and Frederic Pousin offers an unprecedented range of discussions on the aerial view covering topics from sixteenth century Roman maps to the Luftwaffe s aerial survey of Warsaw to Google Earth Underpinned by a cross disciplinary approach that draws together diverse and previously isolated material this volume examines the politics and poetics of the aerial view in relation to architecture art film literature photography and urbanism and explores its role in areas such as aesthetics and epistemology Structured through a series of detailed case studies this book builds into a cultural history of the aerial imagination Planning Paris Before Haussmann Nicholas

Papayanis,2004-10-13 Publisher Description Sources of Regionalism in the Nineteenth Century Linda Van Santvoort,Tom Verschaffel,2008 KADOC Artes 9Architectural concepts and styles seem to flourish on a variety of levels from the most local of contexts to the global This book investigates regionalism which is often conceived today as a late nineteenth century phenomenon because of the preservation and restoration movements that arose during that period Derived from the workshop The Sources of Regionalism held by the FWO research group World Views Cultural Identities and Architecture in Western Europe 1815 1940 the essays in this book examine the meaning of regionalism in architecture art and literature its sources and its cultural and historical background The contributors focus on the nineteenth century and the years of the twentieth century before World War I and focus geographically on Western Europe with an emphasis on Belgium France and England Together their essays provide a thorough examination of the complexity and multilayered quality of regionalism

Inhabited Machines Moritz Gleich,2022-12-19 Around 1800 one of the most influential architectural concepts of the last 250 years emerged that of built spaces as technical devices Climate morality and comfort are the three main themes of this study and each is vividly examined in separate chapters through synchronous comparison and with the help of examples The emergence of corresponding metaphors knowledge and construction forms is traced over a period of about 70 years The author focuses particularly on the operative dimension of architecture Thus the book provides a historical perspective on a key topic for the future of architecture The book is aimed at readers interested in architecture technology or the cultural history of building and living The Exploring Architecture series makes architectural scholarship accessible introduces the latest research methods and covers a wide range of periods regions and topics Victor Considerant and the Rise and Fall of French Romantic Socialism Jonathan Beecher,2001-02-11 This book traces the rise and fall of French romantic socialism through the life of one of its most influential representatives Victor Considerant 1808 1893 París, capital de la modernidad David Harvey,2015-01-27 París ha sido una de las ciudades más influyentes del mundo pero durante los días del Segundo Imperio constituyó el prototipo de la modernidad tal como está ha sido codificada can nicamente Durante el periodo que transcurre entre las revoluciones fallidas de 1848 y 1871 experimenta una transformación realmente impresionante El barón Haussmann orquestó la remodelación física de la ciudad reemplazando su trazado medieval por los grandes bulevares que

dominan su fisonomía hasta el día de hoy Igualmente durante esta misma etapa se verificaron tanto el surgimiento de una nueva forma de capitalismo dominado por las altas finanzas como la emergencia de la moderna cultura del consumo Los imparable cambios sociales y físicos provocaron la novedosa respuesta del movimiento moderno pero también dividieron más profundamente la ciudad y su organización espacial económica y urbana de acuerdo con distintas líneas de clase El resultado fue el levantamiento y la sangrienta represión de la Comuna de París en 1871 cuyo desenvolvimiento es analizado en el libro con todo detalle Harvey sitúa las fuerzas sociales económicas y de clase en el centro de su estudio proporcionando un impresionante análisis de este periodo crucial para comprender cómo se gestó la trama de la política moderna y cómo se utilizó el espacio urbano para gestionar los conflictos sociales y producir formas estables de dominación política inextricablemente ligadas a las formas de reproducción de las relaciones capitalistas de producción

Apartment Stories Sharon Marcus, 1999 Apartment Stories works from the brilliant premise that urban culture and domestic architecture are indeed related in a number of unpredictable and mutually enlightening ways Marcus's readings of Balzac and Zola novels in the context of the new urban architecture are absolutely superb and she remains subtle and unexpected at every step Bruce Robbins author of Feeling Global
