Segregation In Residential Areas Papers On Racial And Socioeconomic Factors In Choice Of Housing:

Segregation in Residential Areas Amos Henry Hawley, Vincent P. Rock, 1973 Housing and Planning References
, 1973 Resources in Education , 1984 Serves as an index to Eric reports microform Bibliography of Reports by the National Academy of Sciences, 1945-1985 , 1986 Equal Opportunity in Housing United States. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Library, 1974 Equal Opportunity in Housing: a Bibliography of Research. Revised 2nd
Ed. Enlarged United States. Housing and Urban Development Department, 1974 Surrogate Suburbs Todd M.
Michney, 2017-02-08 The story of white flight and the neglect of Black urban neighborhoods has been well told by urban historians in recent decades Yet much of this scholarship has downplayed Black agency and tended to portray African Americans as victims of structural forces beyond their control In this history of Cleveland s Black middle class Todd Michney uncovers the creative ways that members of this nascent community established footholds in areas outside the overcrowded inner city neighborhoods to which most African Americans were consigned In asserting their right to these outer city spaces African Americans appealed to city officials allied with politically progressive whites notably Jewish activists and relied upon both Black and white developers and real estate agents to expand these surrogate suburbs and maintain their livability until the bona fide suburbs became more accessible By tracking the trajectories of those who in spite of racism were able to succeed Michney offers a valuable counterweight to histories that have focused on racial conflict and Black poverty and tells the neglected story of the Black middle class in America s cities prior to the 1960s Research in Education , 1973 Housing Policy Debate , 1995 Women & Housing National Council of Negro Women, 1976 Better Homes of South Bend: An American Story of Courage Gabrielle Robinson, 2015 In 1950 a group of African American workers at the Studebaker factory in South Bend met in secret Their mission was to build homes away from the factories and slums where they were forced to live They came from the South to make a better life for themselves and their children but they found Jim Crow in the North as well The meeting gave birth to Better Homes of South Bend and a triumph against the entrenched racism of the times took all their courage intelligence and perseverance Author Gabrielle Robinson tells the story of their struggle and provides an intimate glimpse into a pan of history that all too often is forgotten Book jacket Housing and Racial/Ethnic Minority Status in the United States Jamshid A. Momeni, 1987-04-03 Momeni pulls together 1 007
citations to articles and monographs on housing for minorities Instead of brief annotations he includes an abstract or summary of each title sometimes written by the original author The descriptions are long enough to allow the reader to appraise the title Entries are classed by broad topic e g discrimination and redlining segregation desegregation rentals ownership and home value subsidies public housing regulations and the courts elderly housing homelessness There are author and subject indexes Particularly valuable is a 15 page analysis of data from the 1980 census in which Momeni studies differences in housing occupied by minorities If affords students and librarians a readable overview of the minority housing picture in 1980 no similar bibliography incorporates data from this census The foreword and preface written by two experts in the field add commentary on the subject Recommended for academic and research libraries supporting sociology and urban studies Choice The proliferation of research on minority housing in the past decade has created the need for a comprehensive bibliography that will provide a synthesis of knowledge on the subject and bring together the results of many widely dispersed studies and documents This outstanding reference work chronicles the historical patterns of change in minority housing conditions and paves the way to a greater understanding of the complexities of the market dynamics of minority housing over the past two decades Containing more than one thousand entries this expansive volume summarizes the latest research literature covering such topics as redlining fair housing the impact of various housing initiatives the problems of the elderly and the homeless

Making Our Neighborhoods, Making Our Selves George C. Galster, 2024-01-17 In Making Our Neighborhoods Making Our Selves George Galster delves deep into the question of whether American neighborhoods are as efficient and equitable as they could be socially financially and emotionally and if not what we can do to change that Galster aims to redefine the relationship between places and people promoting specific policies that reduce inequalities in housing markets and beyond Drawing on economics sociology geography and psychology Making Our Neighborhoods Making Our Selves delivers a clear sighted explanation of what neighborhoods are how they come to be and what they should be

In Lincoln's Shadow Roberta Senechal de la Roche, 2008-08-29 Winner of the Gustavus Myers Center Award for the Study of Human Rights in the United States Winner of the Illinois State Historical Society Superior Achievement Award This detailed case study of the 1908 race riot in Springfield Illinois which began only a few blocks from Abraham Lincoln's family home explores the social origins of rioting by whites against the city's African American community after a white woman alleged that a black man had raped her Over two days rioters wrecked black owned businesses burned neighborhoods to the ground killed two black men and injured many others Author Roberta Senechal de la Roche draws from a wide range of sources to describe the riot identify the rioters and their victims and challenge previous interpretations that attribute rioting to interracial competition for jobs housing or political influence Written in a direct and clear style In Lincoln's Shadow documents a violent explosion of racial hatred that shocked the nation and reveals the complexity of white racial attitudes in the early twentieth century

Black Families Harold E. Cheatham, James B. Stewart, 2017-10-19 The condition and characteristics of the black family have been subjects of intense debate since at least the 1960s when the Moynihan Report and the culture of poverty theses held sway Since then a consistent theme has been that black families are pathological Despite the fact that research has been inconclusive and contradictory political debate and policy have been strongly influenced by the pathology theme This volume presents alternative approaches toward understanding the special characteristics of black families Extending a special issue of The Review of Black Political Economy the book focuses on the economic circumstances and decision making of these families employing Interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives It examines the general responses of black families to various external factors such as economic systems and to Internal factors such as interpersonal relationships This compendium of current thinking and research will be of interest to professionals in a number of fields Including family studies counseling social work psychology and sociology It will be of practical use in training programs for service delivery systems Interested In Incorporating multicultural perspectives as well as those specifically interested in black families today Mutual
