Library, 1908 A Subject-index to the Books in the Library of the Law Society of Upper Canada at Osgoode Hall Law Society of Upper Canada. Library, 1923 The Baronial Opposition to Edward II James Handbook of British Chronology E. B. Pryde, 1996-02-23 The Handbook of British Chronology is acknowledged as the authoritative and indispensable record of all holders of major offices in England Wales Scotland and Ireland from the fifth century to the late twentieth century. The third edition which first appeared in 1986 is now available from Cambridge University Press The Solicitors' Journal and Weekly Reporter, 1909 Royal Regulation of Loans and Sales in Medieval England Gwen Seabourne, 2003 Financial legislation demonstrates the advancing role of law in the Medieval English Wardship in Romance and Law Noël James Menuge, 2001 This title explores how later middle ages wardship literature in romance may be used in studies of wardship and how it may complement an understanding of legal history Wardship discourse is examined in a variety of sources legal treatises cases and romance Changing World Charles Howard McIlwain, 1939 Supplement to the Catalogue of Books in the Library of the Solicitors in the Supreme Courts of Scotland, 1898-1908 Society of Solicitors before the Supreme Courts of Scotland. Wife and Widow in Medieval England Sue Sheridan Walker, 1993 Examines the role of women in Library, 1908 medieval law and society Medicine in the English Middle Ages Faye Getz, 1998-11-02 This book presents an engaging detailed portrait of the people ideas and beliefs that made up the world of English medieval medicine between 750 and 1450 a time when medical practice extended far beyond modern definitions. The institutions of court church university and hospital which would eventually work to separate medical practice from other duties had barely begun to exert an influence in medieval England writes Faye Getz Sufferers could seek healing from men and women of all social ranks and the healing could encompass spiritual legal and philosophical as well as bodily concerns Here the author presents an account of practitioners English Christians Jews and foreigners of medical works written by the English of the emerging legal and institutional world of medicine and of the medical ideals present among the educated and social elite How medical learning gained for itself an audience is the central argument of this book but the journey as Getz shows was an intricate one Along the way the reader encounters the magistrates of London who confiscate a bag said by its owner to contain a human head capable of learning to speak and learned clerical practitioners who advise people on how best to remain healthy or die a good death Islamic medical ideas as well as the poetry of Chaucer come under scrutiny Among the remnants of this far distant medical past anyone may find something to amuse and something to admire 2005 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2009-12-22 Annually published since 1930 the International Bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The IBOHS is thus currently the only continuous bibliography of its kind covering such a broad period of time spectrum of subjects and geographical range The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and alphabetically according to authors names or in the case of anonymous works by the characteristic main title word The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors English Historical Documents, 1189-1327 David Charles Douglas, Harry Rothwell, 1996 This is a collection of documents on English history Editorial comment is directed towards making sources intelligible rather than drawing conclusions from them Full account has been taken of modern textual criticism A general introduction to each volume portrays the character of the period under review and critical bibliographies have been added to assist further investigation Documents collected include treaties personal letters statutes military dispatches diaries declarations newspaper articles government and cabinet proceedings orders acts sermons pamphlets agricultural instructions charters grants guild regulations and voting records Volumes include genealogical tables lists of officials chronologies diagrams graphs and maps Bulletin of the John Rylands Library John Rylands Library,1915 Public Documents of the Legislature of Connecticut Connecticut,1906
