Glancy,2014-06-23 First published in 1993 This annotated bibliography covers all material relating to A Tale of Two Cities from Dickens s first hints of it in his Book of Memoranda to critical studies published in 1991 It is divided into three main parts Text Studies and Selected Bibliography Museum Movies Haidee Wasson,2005-06-27 Haidee Wasson provides a rich cultural history of cinema's transformation from a passing amusement to an enduring art form by mapping the creation of the Film Library of the Museum of Modern Art MoMA New York established in 1935 The first North American film archive and museum the film library pioneered an expansive moving image network comprising popular abstract animated American Canadian and European films More than a repository MoMA circulated these films nationally and internationally connecting the modern art museum to universities libraries women's clubs unions archives and department stores Under the aegis of the museum cinema also changed Like books paintings and photographs films became discrete objects integral to thinking about art history and the politics of modern life

Nitrate Won't Wait Anthony Slide, 2013-05-03 This study looks at the preservation process newsreel television and color preservation the often controversial issue of colorization and commercial film archives It provides detailed histories of the major players in the preservation battle including the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House the American Film Institute the Museum of Modern Art the UCLA Film and Television Archive and the Library of Congress This first historical overview of film preservation in the United States is also highly controversial in its exposure and criticism of the politicization of film preservation in recent years and the rising bureaucracy which has often lost sight of preservation and restoration as the ultimate purpose of film archives

Music and the Silent Film Martin Miller Marks, 1997-02-13 In this book a leading authority on film music examines scores of the silent film era The first of three projected volumes investigating music written for films this thoughtful and pathbreaking study demonstrates the richness of silent film music as it details the way in which scores were often planned from the start as an integral part of the whole cinematic experience Following an introductory chapter that outlines several key theoretical questions and surveys eight decades of writing on film music Martin Miller Marks focuses on those scores created between 1895 and 1924 He begins by considering two early examples one German written by persons unknown for Skladanowsky's Bioskop exhibitions in 1895 and 1896 and one French scored by Camille Saint-Saëns for the 1908 film L'Assassinat du Duc de Guise Subsequent chapters fully discuss Walter Cleveland Simon's music for the American film An Arabian Tragedy 1912 as well as the Joseph Breil accompaniment to D.W. Griffith's Birth of a Nation 1915 As described in this book Breil's memorable score though a compilation derived from many sources was played by an orchestra as Griffith's sweeping images filled the screen thus contributing significantly to the great film's success while also achieving remarkable power in its own right Marks then concludes with a look at Erik Satie's witty and innovative music for the French film Entr'acte 1924 which was the first film score of consequence by an avant-garde composer Giving unprecedented attention to a vibrant important and oft-neglected facet of twentieth-century music Music and the Silent Film will interest scholars of film theory film history modern music and modern aesthetics celebrities from the late 40s through the late 50s A unique sourcebook for documentation on Fred Allen Jack Benny Milton Berle Father Coughlin Edward R Murrow and many others Early American Cinema in Transition Charlie Keil,2001-12-10 The period 1907 1913 marks a crucial transitional moment in American cinema As moving picture shows changed from mere novelty to an increasingly popular entertainment fledgling studios responded with longer running times and more complex storytelling A growing trade press and changing production procedures also influenced filmmaking In Early American Cinema in Transition Charlie Keil looks at a broad cross section of fiction films to examine the formal changes in cinema of this period and the ways that filmmakers developed narrative techniques to suit the fifteen minute one reel format Keil outlines the kinds of narratives that proved most suitable for a single reel s duration the particular demands that time and space exerted on this early form of film narration and the ways filmmakers employed the unique features of a primarily visual medium to craft stories that would appeal to an audience numbering in the millions He underscores his analysis with a detailed look at six films The Boy Detective The Forgotten Watch Rose O Salem Town Cupid s Monkey Wrench Belle Boyd A Confederate Spy and Suspense Celebrating 1895 John Fullerton,1998 Includes 27 of the finest papers presented at The Centenary of Cinema conference in June 1995 Emile Cohl, Caricature, and Film Donald Crafton,2014-07-14 This is the definitive biography of Emile Cohl 1857 1938 one of the most important pioneers of the art of the animated cartoon and an innovative contributor to popular graphic humor at a critical moment when it changed from traditional caricature to the modern comic strip This profusely illustrated book provides not only a wealth of information on Cohl s life but also an analysis of his contribution to the development of the animation film in both France and the United States and an interpretation of how the new genre fit into the historical shift from a primitive to a classical cinema Beautiful in look and design with stunning reproductions from films and newspapers Emile Cohl Caricature and Film offers a biography of a figure who virtually created the European art of animation In its theory and history the book is one of the most important contributions to the field of animated film But it is central for film study per se offering a fresh exciting look at the complicated world of early cinema Dana Polan Film Quarterly Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

General Studies of Charles Dickens and His Writings and Collected Editions of His Works: Bibliographies, catalogues, collections, and bibliographical and textual studies of Dickens's works Duane DeVries,2004 Cinema Arthuriana Kevin J. Harty,2015-05-07 The legends of King Arthur have not only endured for centuries but also flourished in constant retellings and new stories built around the central themes With the coming of motion pictures Arthur was destined to hit the screen This edition of Cinema Arthuriana revised in 2002 presents 20 essays on the topic of the recurring presence of the legend in film and television from 1904 to 2001 They cover such films as Excalibur 1981 and Monty Python and the Holy Grail 1975 television productions such as The Mists of Avalon 2001 and French and German films about the quest for the Holy Grail and the other adventures of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table The American Theatrical Film John C. Tibbetts, 1985 This book provides needed information on the collaborations between filmmakers and theater personnel before 1930 and completes our understanding of how two art forms influenced each other It begins with the vaudeville and faerie dramas captured in brief films by the Edison and Biograph companies follows the development of feature length Sarah Bernhardt and James O'Neill films after 1912 examines the formation of theater film combination companies in 1914-15 and details later collaborations during the talking picture revolution of 1927 Includes detailed analyses of important theatrical films like The Count of Monte Cristo The Virginian Coquette and Paramount on Parade Movie Acting, the Film Reader Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2004 Combining classic and recent essays and examining key issues such as Movie Acting the Film Reader explores one of the most central but often overlooked aspects of cinema film acting Arthurian Interpretations, 1989 The Birth of Whiteness Daniel Bernardi, 1996 As indelible components of the history of the United States race and racism have permeated nearly all aspects of life cultural economic political and social In this first anthology on race in early cinema fourteen scholars examine the origins dynamics and ramifications of racism and Eurocentrism and the resistance to both during the early years of American motion pictures Any discussion of racial themes and practices in any arena inevitably begins with the definition of race Is race an innate and biologically determined essence or is it a culturally constructed category Is the question irrelevant Perhaps race exists as an ever changing historical and social formation that regardless of any standard definition involves exploitation degradation and struggle In his introduction Daniel Bernardi writes that early cinema has been a clear partner in the hegemonic struggle over the meaning of race and that it was steadfastly aligned with a Eurocentric world view at the expense of those who didn't count as white The contributors to this work tackle these problems and address such subjects as biological determinism miscegenation Manifest Destiny assimilation and nativism and their impact on early cinema Analyses of The Birth of a Nation Romona Nanook of the North and Madame Butterfly and the directorial styles of D.W. Griffith Oscar Micheaux and Edwin Porter are included in the volume
