Sex and Slaughter in the Tent of Jael Colleen M. Conway, 2016-09-30 In the Hebrew Bible Judges 4 5 tells the lurid story of the heroic figure of Jael the formidable woman who saves Israel from the Canaanite army by seducing their general Sisera and then nailing his head to the ground with a tent peg Once separated from its original theological context the Jael and Sisera tradition transforms into a story about gender identity and conflict between the sexes This gruesome tale has long intrigued scholars and artists alike repeatedly and creatively building on its gendered themes In Sex and Slaughter in the Tent of Jael Colleen Conway offers the first sustained look at how this biblical tradition has been used artistically to articulate and inform cultural debates about gender She traces the cultural retellings of this story in poems prints paintings plays and narratives across centuries Conway examines the ways in which Jael has been reimagined by turns as a wily seductress passionate lover frustrated and bored mother peace bringing earth goddess and deadly cyborg assassin Meanwhile Sisera variously plays the enemy general the seduced lover the noble but tragically duped victim and the violent male chauvinist Ultimately Conway's analyses demonstrate how cultural productions of this ancient text intersect with broader conversations about the often conflicted and sometimes violent relationship between the sexes Servant of the Kingdom Darci D. burden she carries keep her from completing her mission Will she find the one she seeks before her time runs out Will she even survive the journey Real Sadhus Sing to God Antoinette Elizabeth DeNapoli, 2014-04-01 Drawing on ethnographic research spanning ten years Antoinette Elizabeth DeNapoli offers a new perspective on the practice of asceticism in India today Her work brings to light the little known and often marginalized lives of female Hindu ascetics sadhus in the North Indian state of Rajasthan Examining the everyday religious worlds and practices of the mostly unlettered female sadhus who come from a number of castes Real Sadhus Sing to God illustrates that these women experience asceticism in relational and celebratory ways They construct their lives as paths of singing to God which the author suggests serves as the female way of being an ascetic Examining the relationship between asceticism sannyas and devotion bhakti in contemporary contexts the book brings together two disparate fields of study yoga asceticism and bhakti using the singing of bhajans devotional songs as an orienting metaphor This is the first book length study to explore the ways in which female sadhus perform and thus create gendered views of asceticism through their singing storytelling and sacred text practices which DeNapoli characterizes as their rhetoric of renunciation
